GREELEY.

The strangest political freak of the age, as well as most ludicrous, was enacted at was the problem that refused to be solved. The Democratic press had indicated a preference for Adams or Davis, and gave an implied promise to endorse by their National Convention such nominations.—

To pursue, this course would make the matter so evidently a job fixed up in the interest, and virtually at the dictation of the Democracy, that every Republican would see and understand the bargain, place the Cincinnati nominees on a Democratic platform, and fight the Presidential campaign on that ground alone. This being the condition of affairs, gave the intriguers in the Greeley interest an opportunity to ply their arts which it is pretty generally admitted by all parties they did generally admitted by all parties they did success the content of the Democratic platform, and fight the Presidential campaign on that ground alone. has made the eccentric philosopher of the old white coat and hat see famous. As critics and censors of public men and measures Wendell Phillips and Horace Greeley are original types, who in their particular line are unrivaled. But what man who is reasonably well informed in the history of the times, and the history of these men would seriously think of making either of them Chief Magistrate of the nation? Both are extreme and fanatical on most leading questions, and headstrong beyond the possibility of being advised; while Greeley is no less famous

That Greeley will blindly stick to the shadow of the Presidency, which a nomination affords there is no room to doular. One of his most troublesome crotchets has been for a long time to catch a nomination of the presidency. Which as rejected in the shadow of the President. Many men inferior in many respects in point of ability have received with the desire. It is a tertible infatuation when it gets hold of a man. For this prize the philosopher of the Tribute has long been scheming. Many of his unaccountable sayings and doings have been prompted by this glittering prize. To appear the rebel element of the South with this political object in view was doubtless the secret instigation of Greeley's read that the heading rebels, his hunting up Jeff Daris to shake hands, his speech at Vickburg in which he declared that Lee and Stonewall Jackson would have as bright a fame—or words to this effect—on Many and the first the proposal to the leading rebels, his hunting up Jeff Daris to shick he declared that Lee and Stonewall Jackson would have as bright a fame—or words to the life sheet of the Committee on Military Affairs were passed, and provided the season of the objections which the schedered that Lee and Stonewall Jackson would have as bright a fame—or words to the life of the principles. The military of the order of the President division of the game. He need that the wing the control of the principles of the bull of the late of the principles of the principles of the principles of Jackson would have as bright a fame-or words to this effect-in American history as her worthiest heroes and statesmen, and his unmitigated abuse of the Republican party of the ex-rebel States, whom he denounced as carpet-baggers and tideving adventurers were all with a view to future political operations. There are a few of the strange roles the philosopher has played since the mania to be President has overtaken him. Placed in the Presidential chair through Democratic aid, there is no more dangerous man in the country. He has a weak side for flattery and no set of men are more skillful in this refined art than Democratic politicians.

There is a very general conviction that he is a safe and prudent Executive.

Gen Grant has been not quite two years the most important question the party was the party to make nominations for party, to make nominations for party and party part there is no more dangerous man in the By this weapon they made a pliant tool

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate on Friday, the Conference Committee on the disagreement of the two Houses on the Legislative. Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill, after three attempts, succeeded in making a report, which was concurred in. Bills were introduced to increase pensions twenty per cent to certain classes of pensioners, and to enforce penalities for the obstruction of navigable waters. The Postoflice Appropriation bill was taken up and the amendment increasing to $1,000,000 annually the subsidy to the San Francisco and China steamship line was adopted. In the House of Representatives the report of the Conference Committee already agreed to by the Senate was concurred in. Debate on the Tariff bill was closed at three o'clock by a speech from Mr. Dawes. Mr. Ritchie prespeech from Mr. Dawes. Mr. Ritchie presonted a bill to give military telegraph operators o land bounty, and the House adjourned.

In the Senate on Monday, the effort to increase the mail steamship service between the United States and Rio Janeiro to semiweekly trips failed by the rejection of an amendment to increase the appropriation.

Mr. Morton introduced an amendment to the Democracy, that every Republican would see and understand the bargain, place the Cincinnati nomlness on a Democratic platform, and fight the Presidential campaign on that ground alone. This being the condition of affairs, gave the intriguers in the Greeley interest an opportunity to ply their arts which it is pretty generally admitted by all parties they did most successfully. These successful intriguers were no other than the famous Hair family with Gratz Brown the Vice on the ticket. Brown is a relative and, therefore, entitled to be classed as one of the family.

The philosopher of the Tribuns being nominated it becomes an important question to inquire into his political strength. We presume there is but one opinion among Republicans and Democrats in regard to the fearful unfitness of Horace Gireley to be President of the United States. This fact does not in any way condict with his claims to great ability which has made the eccentric philosopher of the old white coat and hat se famous. As critics and censors of public men and measures Wendell Phillips and Horace

The Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, amounting to over seventeen millions, was reported and made the special order for Tuesday next. The Tariff bill was taken up, and all efforts to change the duty on salt from eight cents per pound were defeated. The duty on chicory was fixed at one cent per pound. Mr. Wallace was admitted to the contested seat from the Fourth District of South Carolina, and the House adjourned.

The national Democratic committee have decided to hold the National Convention of the party, to make nominations for Gen Grant has been not quite two years in power. During those two years many war-clouds have loomed on the horizon, yet peace with foreign nations and with Indian tribes has been happily preserved. The taxes have been largely reduced, yet two hundred raillions of the national debt have been paid off and canceled, though we are paying one hundred and twenty millions per annum for interest, and thirty millions per annum for pensions to the widows and orphans of our great struggle. We doubt whether any Government ever before devoted so large a proportion of its annual incomes to the payment of debt.—

He misunderstands human nature who fancies that these facts will not tell in a Democrats-language has no meaning.
