REPUBLICAN CLUB.

All voters of the 3d Election District Odd Fellows' Hall, on Saturday evening next, 21st inst., at 7} o'clock, for the purpose of forming a Grant and Wilson Club. REGISTRATION.

The Registers will open their books, on Registration in time.

LONG FACES.

Alas, it grieves us to the very heart to see so many of our good friends and neighbors going about with tearful eyes and down cast countenances, since Tuesday morning. Their faces are as long as rails since the news from Maine was heard; and what still more painfully affects us is that there is no prospect of having those rueful countenances shortened. The facial organs of our friends were preceptibly elongated by the final news from North Carolina; and the news from Vermont last week added a cubit to their length, but the "news from Maine" relaxed their lower jaws like the palsied hand of death, and they looked like they had lost the last friend they had in the world.

It is doubtless a severe ordeal, to cast of the old hard shell of Democracy, and come out clothed in the more delicate raiment of "Black-Republicanism." The change must be allied to the experience the crab undergoes in parting with its old shell .-The poor animal's only resort is to hide itself in the sand and wait for a future tide. We advise our Greeley friends to hide themselves and wait for a coming tide .-We don't know that any one will ever rise high enough to reach them; but they ought to have some sympathy for their friends and not continue to harrow our feelings so with their painfully long faces.

Throwing Off the Sheep's Clothing. This is what we find in last week's Dem-

THE SWINDLE.

Isn't it exceedingly droll to see the old Elkton Democracy forming Greeley Clubs? If some of the "faithful," whom we have in our mind's eye-Bailey Biles, and others of that class, for instance-who have been gathered to their fathers before this great scandle settled on their party, could only pay the Court House a visit, like Rip Van Winkle, after his twenty years' nap, on the Catskill mountains, when the Jounger were present. The committees Greeley Club is in full blast, and behold which were to report permanent officers their old associates proclaiming the glory, and laws for the club didn't appear either, wisdom and purity of the great Abolition and were continued. The Registration. Epiron Whia:-Quite a number of voters were lost in the county last Fall for want of attention by the committees of the Districts. Some of the cases then requiring attention were those of young and untemporarily out of the county at work, but whose cases were either not known at all.

As the Registration for this Fall is soon to begin, some provision should at once be made for preventing such losses in the approaching election. So long as the practice prevails of opening the Books of Registration at times and places not duly and legally advertised, and making alterations by putting on and striking off names, there will be urgent need for careful scrutiny of Hostetier's Stomach Bitters remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic, or an anti-fillious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent; or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judichously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently atimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygiente vittues. It is to these characteristic virtues that it owes its pressite as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker set as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of conterfeits.
