THE TRIUMPH!

Of the many achievements won by Grant, that of Tuesday last eclipses them all. Forts Henry and Donelson the first complete victories of the war were won by Grant, the hearts of the nation. Vicksburg, Shiloh, Lookout Mountain, followed by the Wilderness and the bloody series of battles that culminated at Appomattox with the surrender of Lee, were mighty triumphs, which filled the loyal hearts of the nation with hope and joy. But these were the triumphs of arms, all save the final one, subject to be reversed at any hour by the uncertainty and shifting fortunes of war. The victories of the battle field could not be regarded as secure, till by the voice of a grateful people the greatest captain of the age was called to administer for four years the government his military genius had contributed so largely to the saving of this country.

The Victory!

Grant and Wilson sweep the Country! The Tribune's Philosopher finds the Last Ditch! He Gets leave to go "a Fishing!" The Old White Hat among the Tropics of the Rebellion!

The "Liberal" Coalition Played Out! A CLEAN SWEEP OF EAST, NORTH AND WEST! Five-Sixths of the States Fall in Line for the Soldier-President!

Greeley Pronounced a Humbug and a Failure! The Greatest Majority ever Received by a President! Emphatic Endorsement of General Grant and his Administration.

Overwhelming Confusion to his Enemies. Pennsylvania 119,000 for Grant! Maryland nearly Rescued!

Old Cecil falls into Time with 444 Majority!

On Tuesday the people of the thirty-seven States of this Union went forth quietly and peacefully and deposited their ballots for President and Vice-President for four years from the 4th of March next. Before midnight of the same day there were but few in all this wide land who had not their previous convictions confirmed, that the Republican party had gained one of the most complete and overwhelming victories ever achieved at the polls, in the election of Grant and Wilson.

Everywhere the Republican majority has been increased, and the victories in its magnitude and completeness astonish both friend and foe. Like some of General Grant's greatest victories of the rebellion, when the smoke of battle had raised, the enemy who had boasted so loudly before, were seen flying in all directions, broken and demoralized.

Pennsylvania leads the column with 119,000 majority. Followed by Massachusetts with 73,000. Illinois, Grant's own State, gives 33,000 majority for his re-election. Indiana, the "doubtful" State rolls up a majority of over 20,000. Kansas 25,000. New York, Greeley's own State, gives a Republican majority of nearly 40,000. Maryland, Tennessee, is elected congressman at large over Andy Johnson and Cheatam. Old Virginia, which was "sure to go for Greeley" has been carried by Grant.

Little Delaware too wheels into line with a majority of 872 for Grant, and elects Lotland, Republican to Congress by 263. Maryland has been almost redeemed, the majority for Greeley being less than 4,000. In the First Congressional District, Wilson, Greeleyite, is probably elected. In the 2nd District, Archer, Democrat, is elected by 200. In the 3rd District, O'Brien, Democrat, is elected by 1,329 majority. In the 4th District, Swann is re-elected by 1,223 majority. 5th District, Albert, Republican, is elected. In the 6th District, Lowndes, Republican, is elected by 1,765 majority.

In this county the contest was sharp and severe, but the Republican party acquitted itself nobly, achieving a victory of 411 majority, a gain over the State ticket of last year of 615. Glory enough for our campaign.

The following table will show the electoral vote of each State placed under the candidates names for whom they were cast:

Table with 2 columns: FOR GRANT and FOR GREELEY. Lists states and their respective electoral votes.

FALSE PROPHECIES. It was the fashion with the Greeley orators to assure their audiences in the most solemn manner that their candidates were just as sure to be elected by an overwhelming vote of the people, as the sun would rise the next morning. Now the same men with all you had no idea that Greeley would be elected, and dismiss their candidate with an oath, coupled with the wish that he had never heard of him. Will an honest people believe, and be duped by such leaders again?

GREELEY RETURNS TO THE TRIBUNE. Greeley publishes a "card" in Thursday's Tribune, announcing his return as Editor-in-Chief to that paper—from which, however, he was not very far, since during the canvass he had been in the country. He also states that he will never again be a candidate for any office, a declaration we doubt not, all future nominating conventions will help him to keep.

THE HORSE PLAGUE. The horse epidemic has passed its crisis in the North and is steadily traveling South. In Philadelphia and Baltimore it has been at its worst this week and the streets nearly filled with the carcasses of the diseased animals. It is not yet officially determined, but a few cases are reported in the country. The disease confers its attacks almost exclusively to the cities. Our correspondents report a few cases in this county.

So obvious was their candidates to the party in this county that Greeley's name was scrupulously kept from the head of their ticket, and "Liberal" was ignored. Oh ye hypocrites! You tried hard to keep up the old delusion, under "Democrat and Conservative" but it would not work. The people fathered your rascality, and led it stably.

DEATH OF GEORGE GORDON MEADE.

From Thursday's Press. Major General George Gordon Meade, one of the most gallant as well as one of the most able soldiers in the Union Army during the late war, died at half past five on Thursday morning at his residence, No. 1835 Delancy Place, in this city.

Richard W. Meade was a citizen of Philadelphia, and while engaged in mercantile affairs in Spain, married to a lady of Catalonia. Of the two sons resulting from this marriage the second was George Gordon Meade, who was born in this country to his parents removed to Philadelphia, and in 1841 he was placed in the military school then near this city, and in 1843 he was entered at the West Point Academy, from which he graduated as second lieutenant in the 2d Regiment of Artillery. In this capacity he fought in the Florida Seminoles war, but in 1845 he was adopted the profession of civil engineering.

On the breaking out of the Mexican war he tendered his services to the Government, and was appointed to the rank of Major General. For his gallant conduct at Palo Alto and Monterrey he was mentioned in general orders, and on his return to Philadelphia was presented with a sword by his townsmen in proof of their appreciation of his valor.

When the call to arms was sounded in 1861, Captain Meade was ordered East, and upon the organization of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, he was made—August 31—lieutenant general of volunteers, and assigned to the command of the 21st Brigade of which General McCull was division general.

For the great bravery which he evinced in the battle of Mechanicsville, June 26, 1862, he received the rank of Major General, and was promoted to lieutenant colonel of regulars, and after the capture of General Meade and Reynolds, he took charge of the division. On June 20, in the battle of New Market, General Meade was severely wounded in the side.

At Antietam, when Hooker was wounded and carried to the rear, Meade took command of the 9th Corps and fought the battle of Fredericksburg, and on the 12th of December, 1862, he was promoted to Major General, and on the 15th of January, 1863, he was promoted to Lieutenant General, and on the 15th of February, 1863, he was promoted to Major General, and on the 15th of March, 1863, he was promoted
