Red Lights and Blue.-Not the Connecpirates to lure the noble ship to ruin; but Dr. Bob Frazer's red and blue-"deeply, darkly, beautifully blue "-not unlike that siren lady's eyes which lures the tender swains to "sigh like a furnace"-seen every cloudy and clear night in the west window of the central drug store. The beavens in June are not more blue than that dazzling blue light when the kerosene is in full glare behind it. And that other red light-had Stambro light been half so bright, the Atlantic, that noble steamer, would have been warned from her ruin, and 600 souls might have lived to day to walk the earth, who sleep below the wave. Those dazzling lights are beacons of perpetual warning to be careful of your health, or you'll have to swallow the villainous drugs that lie concealed behind

The Steamer.—Cyrus P. Smith, Captain Brown, which ran last season between Elk Landing and Baltimere, is about to resume her trips on the same course this season. Many of our citizous desire the boat to run and have petitioned the owners to that effect. The owners of the wharf offer to deduct any expenditures for improvements in clearing the channel which may be made by the owners of the boat, from the rent of wharf. It is estimated that $300 expended would clear the channel so as to make a good landing on low tide. Mr. Brown we understood offered to give $100 toward the work but the wharf owners refused to contribute in any way than the televanear of the tax-collectors were reappointed as the televanear of the sense among the farminers to view and determine the proceedings.

CHARLES GROOM and ELLEN GROOM, his wife.
In the Circuit Court for Cecil county. In Chancery.
The object of this Bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the defendants iteral Existe to satisfy a mortgage deck thereon due the complaisant.
The Elli alleges that the defendants, who reside in Philadelphia, Pa, or elsewhere beyond the jurisdiction of this Court, on April 1st, 1870, executed and delivered to a certain James McGinn a mortgage on their Real listate, to secure the june not five sum of Econ; that the said McGinn, on the 15th day of July, 1870, assigned said mortgage to Deleplains McDanlei; that the said McDanlei, on the 16th day of July, 1870, assigned the same to Evan W. Thomse, who on the 1st day of Octoler, 1870, resigned the same to William S. Boswell.
The Bill further ableges that the said mortgage debt mentioned in said Bill, and that the said Charles Groom and Ellen Groom, his wife, are non-residents.
It is thereupon ordered by the Court, on this 18th day of March, 1873, that the complainant cause a copy of this order, together with the object and substance of the Bill, to be inserted in some newspaper, published in Ekton, Cecil county, Ma, once a week for one month lefore the 17th day of April, next, giving notice to the defendants in set if Bill, and warning them to appear in this Court, in person or by selicitor, on or before the
