

The Farm

Walks and Talks on the Farm

From American Agriculturist. The Deacon and I have been to see Mr. Dewey's drilled corn...

It is rarely that one sees such a magnificent field of corn. There is a dense growth of stalks, who have two perfect...

The soil of this farm is richer to-day in available plant-food than when first cleared. It produces larger crops per acre...

This is precisely the result that I should have expected. If Mr. D. was a poor farmer...

I have great faith in the benefits of thorough tillage. In other words, of breaking up, pulverizing, and exposing the soil to the decomposing action...

CO-OPERATION AMONG FARMERS.—In a late number of the report from the Agricultural Bureau, the following truths are presented...

LIQUID GLUE.—An excellent liquid glue is made by dissolving glue in nitric acid. The other will only dissolve a certain amount of glue...

THE CREDIT SYSTEM

One of the greatest curses which has hung over the farming community is the fact that the ownership of land goes to credit...

It is not the drilling that gives Mr. Dewey such good corn. He is a good farmer. He does not practice "high farming" in the sense in which I use that term...

CURING BEEF.—Cheese "consists of the curdling of milk, separated and condensed." To effect this separation, coagulation, or "curdling," must take place...

What is it worth to keep Horses, Cattle, Sheep, &c., per week? For horses it is worth as many shillings per week as hay is worth dollars per ton...

CO-OPERATION AMONG FARMERS.—In a late number of the report from the Agricultural Bureau, the following truths are presented...

Mutual Building Association of Cecil County. Insure your family and property against fire and theft...
