ELKTON, JULY 26, 1873. RELIGIOUS SUMMER RESORTS. The Methodist Church has latterly turned its attention to the establishment of Summer resorts, to be controlled by more descreet than the king of Babylon, the "God-fearing" and church-going people, where moral and religious influences shall predominate, and where horse-racing, gaming and other amusements which constitute the distinguishing features of the majority of fashionable watering places of the day, shall forever be tabooed. Of this character of Summer resorts, Ocean Grove is a distinguished success, and to which the Methodist Church points with pride. To establish a similar watering place on the peninsular, between the Delaware and Chesapeake bays, was determined upon by the Peninsular Methodists, in 1872, and a tract of ground about five miles below extending from the Atlantic beach, near a mile back into the land, embracing a fine grove of timber. This grove has been dedicated to camp-meeting purposes, and the portion of the purchase, on and near the beach, has been laid out into lots for cot-

Cape Henlopen light-house was purchased, into the private office of the Cecil Demotages, and divided by streets and broad avenues. Considerable grading has been done, and several cottages commenced. A hotel has been erected on the beach, called commands a fine view of the ocean. The place was called Rehoboth, from the bay R. Price of Chesapeake City, and Dr. of that name, lying a mile to the south, Turner of B. M. House. and an old village in the vicinity. A commencement was made this year to popularize the place, and a camp ground was laid the one agreed upon in the caucus of the out, a number of tents built, and "Rehoboth" at once became a kind of Mecca for the Peninsular Methodists. The name Mecca would not be considered inappropriate by one who takes the long, dusty ride of some hundred and twenty miles from Elkton to they may not, like that rich sinner, cry Lewes, an old town on the Delaware bay, from hell, yet awhile, for a drop of water, at the terminus of the Junction and Breakwater Railroad. A tide of six miles by stage from Lewes, brings the pilgrim to the camp ground of Rehoboth and within hearing of all ocean, where waves are hearing of old ocean, whose waves ever roll and thunder on Reheboth beach.—

The beach is the greatest, -in fact, at present the only attraction of the place, -and is one of the best for bathing on the Atlantic. The slope is very gradual and the rollers come in with great volume and force. For six immense piles of rock together over amile in length, built by the Government for the protection of shipping, at a cost of two and a half million dollars.

There are several dangerous reefs near the entrance to Delaware bay, which cause numerous shipwreeks. Four vessels were wrecked last Winter and Spring on these reefs; one loaded with oranges, lemons, and other products of the West Indies, came ashore two miles below Henlopen light. The old hulk lies on the beach with the tide cbbing and flowing through her broken timbers. Orange and lemon boxes strew the coast for miles, where they were thrown on thy the waves and wind. This wreek proved a great harvest for the natives, who feasted on oranges and lemons for weeks after the wreek of the ship.—Hundreds of bushels of these delicious fruits were picked up on the sands and carried away by the people of the neighborhood. The immense sandhills here call to mind the Arabian deserts, and impress es one more than ever with the grim humor that would style Rehoboth with its camp and summer-tenting ground, and the annual pilgrimage of a religious denomination, the Meeca of the Puinsular Meth.

The Elkton Ring-Masters in Council.

The select members of the inner circle of the old Elkton Ring which has distributed the taxes of Cecil county for the last half dozen years, met in secret conclave on last Tuesday and deliberated with closed door. Wiser than Belshazzar they need no Daniel to interpret the handwriting on the wall, and means by which to avert the decree of fate. That popular indignation is an enemy they have to contend with, more formidable to were to Babylon, they acknowledge, hence the troubled brows of the ring-masters.

Defeat stares the ring in the face and like the sullen roar of old ocean, the voice of the people is heard from afar. The old stagers who have engineered so many dangerous campaigns, never looked s down-hearted on the evo of a political campaign as they do at present. The half-dozen who met on Tuesday gathered crat and with closed doors and shutters, contemplated the "impending crisis." The result of this conference was the fol lowing slate: For Clerk, A. W. Mitchell, of Elkton; Register, Alex. Briscoe, of Rising Sun; State Senator, W. M. Knight, of the First district; Sheriff, W. W. Scott, of Elk Neck; House of Delegates, J. B. Groome Esq., of Elkton; W. Armstrong of the Fourth District, and Joseph Win-

There may be some slight changes made in the above ticket, but this is essentially ring-masters. It was also determined to postpone the nominating convention till late in September. Let the evil day be long deferred; but like Dives their good things will not last forever, and although some of them who have fattened on public plunder for years, will, ere long, cry for a of being plundered, as they have been, by the Court House in Elkton.

The Career of a Great Remedy.
Twenty summers have classed since it was briefly announced that a new vegetable tonic and alterative, bearing the name of Hostetier's Stomach Bitters, had been added to the list of preventive and restorative mediciacs. The modest alteration and within initial streeties to the preventive and restorative mediciacs. The modest alteration thick that it had been used with great success in private practice as a cure fo dyspepsia, tilious complaints, constitution and intermittent favor. It was soon discovered that the article possessed extraordinary properties. The people, of every class, tested its merits as a tenic, stimulant, cor-rective and restorative, and found that its effects more than fulfilled their hopes and expectations. From that time to the present its course has been upward and onward, and it stands to day at the head of all medicines of its class. American or imported, in the magni-tude of its sales and its reputation as a safe, agreeable and potentiavigorant and restorative. For languor and debility, lack of appetite and gastric disturbances so common during the summer months it is absolutely infallible. Indigestion, billous disorders, constipation, nervousness, periodical fevers, and all the ordinary complaints generated by a vitiated and humid atmos-phere, vanish under its renovating and regulating influence. This is its record, asouthed by volumes of Intelligent testimeny, extending over a period of a fifth of a contury, and comprehending the names of thousands of well-known citizens belonging to every class and calling. In Europe it is thought a great thing to obtain the patronage of royalty for a "patent medi-

"J. B. Sanner, Boller Inspector, $86.10."

NORTH EAST, MD., July 23d, 1873. }
EDITOR WHIG:—Sir:—One of the pleasures of a people's government seems that of being cheated. Among the thousand swindles, large and small, to which the public submit, there are few more outrageous than that to which you call attention under the heading above, in your issue of Saturday last. If all the charges in that list are equally honest, no wonder them than the hosts of Media and Persia the honest citizens of Cecil pay their taxes without complaint.

As the matter has come up again, we wish with your consent to submit a few facts to a candid public; facts that we are prepared to prove. On Monday after the explosion, Mr. Sanner came here and examined the exploded boiler thoroughly; in and out. When we interrogated him as to the cause of the explosion, he stopped still, turned round and facing us replied:-"I have examined the boiler carefully in and out, and can see no cause whatever why it should have exploded; every thing indicates the best of engineering. In fact, I never knew of a cylinder boiler exploding before. Should any of you gentlemen come to Baltimore, call at my office, and I will show you pieces which I have cut out of cylinder boilers preparatory to patching, which, after taking the scale from them, were not much thicker than ordinary paper, and I could punch my pocket knife through them."

After going to the Depot we expressed our pleasure that he could see no reason why the boiler should have exploded, and that he was satisfied that everything had been properly attended to, and he again HOBBARD EROS, Parks 723 Surson St., Philada, Pa. repeated his first statement verbatim.—
Several of the best experts of Philadelphia and Wilmington expressed the same opinion, declaring that the explosion could not be accounted for on any principle learning.

That night the Hon. State's Attorney visited Baltimore, and on Wednesday, we think it was, Mr. Sanner appeared before the Elkton Jury, and without any further opportunity of informing himself, testifled that the boiler was unsafe; that everything indicated bad engineering, and that if it had been properly attended to, it would not have exploded. One of the two statements was of course false; or both were .-We wont say that he was drunk when here-simply in a condition in which a termined that the Republican State Con. class of low ward politicians are somevention, for the nomination of a candidate times found-slightly happy. The animus of the whole thing was simply to use a sad accident, from which Committees were instructed to order promary meetings to be held for the election of delegates to the County Conventions on or before September 6th.
