We publish a table in another column showing the official vote of the county, polled on Tuesday last. The result was a surprise to all honest men of either party, and was not anticipated by any but the managers of the Elkton ring who kept half counted the opposition would have willingly settled on the basis of giving the result. The alms house vote was hauled out in wagons and the Judges of election went out into the street to take the tickets that were placed in the fingers of these poor beggars, by their Democratic masters.—
The most ignorant of this stock were told that they had taken a solemn oath when they were registered to vote as the keeper of the alms house told them, and although they wished to vote the Republican ticket, they were afraid to do it. This pauper vote of Maryland has always been a burning disgrace to the State, and the obsequiousness of our election Judges in leaving their seats and going to the wagons in the streets to collect the vote is contemptable. This practice, we believe, is a recent Democratic invention to guard against the possibility of losing some of the stock which is liable to be out, if let loose.

If you wish to save money, economize in little as well as in large items of expenditure. To say nothing about its great superiority to all other substances, it is, on the score of money alone, by far the cheapest. Remember this fact and save many dollars every year.

One of the things you read of recently occurred in Wilmington. Delaware. A man was detected hurrying away from a butcher's stall with a steak which he had stelen under his coat. A policeman fol lowed him home, and peeping through the window, saw him give the steak to his children, who devoured it raw.
