Personal.-Mr. Richard F. May, from Helena, Montana, visited Elkton on Wednesday last. Mr. May is well known to our citizens, having been a former resident and one of the mercantile men of Elkton. Eleven years ago he left Elkton for Baltimore, where he resided for about eighteen months. He resided some time after leaving baltimore at Annapolis, and then "struck" for the gold fields of the Rocky Society on Saturday night last for 63 and mountains, finally locating in Helena, 7 per cent premium, after the withdrawing where he carried on his old business of buying and selling goods. The vocal solos, by Dr. Thomas, Dr. Register and Mr. Barnhurst, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Heald, of Port Deposit, were elaborately and artistically rendered, and the duets and quartetts, by the same gentlemen most happily assisted by Miss McCulwill be administered by the Rt. Rev. Bishop lough and Mrs. Shure, also of Port Deposit, were examples of lyric art and sweetness. The solo, "John Anderson My Jo." by Dr. Thomas, and the duet, "Love and War," by the same, and Mr. Barnhurst, were enthusiastically enchored. The applause following most of the pieces, demanding in many cases their repetition, showed how fully the efforts of the lady and gentlemen amateurs were appreciated by the audience. The Piano Duets, made up of "home talent" were highly creditable performances and spoke most favorably of the musical cultivation of our town. Perhaps the "gem" of the evening through, was the Piano Solo, by Mr. Spencer, of Philadelphia. Never did an Elkton audience hear a greater artist than Mr. Spencer. Scarcely had the last note ceased to vibrate through the room, when a storm of applaus. greeted the performance which only ended with the performer re-appearance at the plead guilty to the charge of having paid instrument. Elkton seldom enjoys so rich a treat, and to the ladies and gentlemen of the Presbyterian Church, assisted by Dr. Register, of Philadelphia, under whose auspices it was given, we are under obligations for so fine an entertainment.
