For The Cecil Whig. KEEP TOUR FARMS.

While living in the city, it was always with a feeling of regret that I saw a moving of household goods, which appeared to be coming in from the country, and I could not prevent the desire by bitter experience, you learn your error. I have seen so many instances where small farmers, lured by the deceptive appearances of city life, have sold their homes and removed to the city, sometimes as a small grocer, boarding housekeeper, or some other accuracy. of saying to them, "turn back, before ing house-keeper, or some other occupa-tion where small means would be avail-quently in the Spring I had a lot of rotable; and in a very short time their little means would be squandered, and they would be glad to return again to the country impoverished, or be obliged to take up any position that might offer way of farming. Brother farmers, try to support, in a precarious way, their it, and remember the basis of success dependent families. But few in the country can realize the hollow pretentions of a city life.

To most it appears a life of ease and comfort, with plenty of money and but little exertion. The reality is very different; thousands that you meet in the ferent; thousands that you meet in the FARMER:

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the churacter of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "athousand ills," simply by Toning up. Invigorating and cures "athousand ills," simply by Toniny up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The en-riched and vitalized blood per-meates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secre-tions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon. This is the secret of the won-derful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Com-plaint. Dropsy. Chronic Diar-
