-We call special attention to the adver tisement of Mr. Jas. McCormick, who is a deserving candidate for the patronage of our farmers. We would also direct the attention of the same class to the advertisement of the celebrated bone men, Messrs. Waring. With plenty of pure bone, and good tools farming can be made to pay.

-Windy. Boreas has been asserting his authority since March entered in with pounced down on the lamb, which the month brought in her arms as a love offering, and has expended an amount of rage and bluster in devouring the gentle thing, altogether unwarranted, it would seem for so insignificant an exploit.

-An eccentric lady, a resident of this town, has kindly, privately, offered her services to the band of praying women as soon as they organize and commence operations. She states her inability to sing in the following language: "My voice is so herrid that if I were to sing in front of a bar-room the inmates would think that it was 'a voice from below,' summoning them to their everlasting place of busi-

Fatal Accident .- Just before noon on Saturday last, as the P., W. & B. express train, north, which passes through this city at 12:20, was this side of Iron Hill, it struck a man walking on the track. He stopped, was picked up and brought to this city, where he died soon after his arrival. The name of the unfortunate man was ascertained to be George Wingate, and he appeared to be "tramping," on his way from Baltimere to Philadelphia, his avecation in the former city being that of a companied by another man and the two were walking Northward, with their backs to the train, at the time. It was snowing unite heavily, and a down freight train was approaching, which probably confused Wingate. His companion escaped by a leap into the ditch.

Executors, Administrators and Guardians. EXECUTORS, Administrators and truarutals.

By section 10, Article 81, of the Code of Public General Laws, the several Registers of Wills in this State are required, annually, to return to the County Commissioners, a summary account of all property that shall appear by the records of the several Orphans Courts to he in the hands of each Executor, Administrator or Guardien, so that the same may be taxed. The provisions of this law have not been strictly compiled with lately, and 1 have been called on by the County Commissioners for Cecil county for such "Summary Account." In many cases it is impossible for me, from the record now in my office, to make a correct return of the amount in the hands of each Executor, Administrator or fluordians and that no injustice may be done any one, I hereby give notice to all Executors, Administrators and Chardians to come forward and make a true exhibit of the projective in their lands respectively, as such Executor, Administrator or Guardian.
