Specimens of Democratic Economy. Comptroller Woolford prepared a new tax bill which he formally requested the Legislature to pass on the ground that the taxes were at present inadequate to defray the expenses of government. This bill of the Comptrollers was, on examination found to be so crude in many of its provisions, that the Legislature refused to pass it; but we do not know that they were averse to its passage on any other than technical grounds. The Comptroller's bill had the merit of increasing the taxes in order to supply deficiencies.

Looking toward measures of economy we find among the proceedings of the House the following, offered by Mr. Koons of Frederick, one of the Republican members of the House:

Ordered, That the Committee on Claims be instructed to inquire and report to this House within five days the number of about the House, what their position and duties are, when they were appointed, and whether it is possible to comply with the order passed by the House to limit their pay, to commence on the day of their ap-pointment. The order was adopted, but it has already been shown that to pass an order is by no means to ensure action under it. Two calls of the House have failed to the Senate some time ago, but no return under the call has yet been made. Mr. Koons oftered another order rescinding an order passed some time ago making the per of the Sergeant-at-Arms the same as the Sorgeant of the Senate. Mr. Koons stated that he had ascertained that the per diem of the Sergeant of the Senate was $10 and that the Sergeant of the House had an assistant, making the cost of the office the same as in the Senate already. He did not think the duties were sufficiently arduous to be paid at such a high rate. As the to be paid at such a high rate. As the actual duties of the Sergeant-at-Arms, as far as can be ascertained by constant ob servation, are to set up the mace on the of messengers from the Senate when they enter the chamber of the House. Mr. Koons' view was entertained by many members, and on a yea and nay vote the order rescinding the previous order was adopted. The chief clerk only gets $3 per diem, and his duties are of the most exhaustive and laborious character.

order to keep down taxes is still further manifested in the following extract from proceedings of the Senate in the action of that body on the Baltimore Police Bill, and tixing the per diem of the Sheriff of the city for attending Court:

Mr. Blake called up the House bill (Mr. Joyce's) to amend chapter 287, 1870, relating to police force of Baltimore, reported with amendments, which were adopted amended and passed, the pay of captains is raised to $30 per week; also the pay of the Chief Detective and a clerk to the

The Serult to determine were raised to be advantageous to the State? Happily, geant-at-Arms and his posse retired to be advantageous to the State? Happily, another room to discuss the objections, and the subject has no political bearing.

The Senate at present has twenty-one of these employees in its service at wages from $5 to $10 a day. Twenty-six members compose the Senate of Maryland and they have twenty one waiters in their employ paid out of the State treasury.

In the debate on the bill, Senator Williams, of Calvert county, asserted that Fourteen Associated Judges there were seventy officers in the Legislature at a salary of $50,000. A correspondent of the press in speaking of the debate on Senator Knight's bill says:

"It moreover was developed in the course of the debate that all the Democratic Senators were represented among the officers, except Messrs. Claggett and Brattan. Senator Phelps gave some reminiscences of former sessions when they could order is by no means to ensure action under it. Two calls of the House have failed to obtain any information as to the nature of the duties performed by the Secretary of the Senate under the act of 1805 in regard to vital statistics, which is inoperative, but under which he draws a salary of $1,000 per annum. An order similar to the one have colored by Mr. Krasenski and the color of the party pageage here. ove offered by Mr. Koons, was passed in a few of the party managers, know how Senate some time ago, but no return many officers there are. A number of them never come near the State House, numbers live in distant portions of the State, where they remain. It is said that quite a number will be sworn in this week. and will draw pay from the beginning of

To correct this monstrous thievery of the Democratic ring managers was the object of Mr. Knight's bill, but it has not the slightest chance of passing, and if the bill were passed by the present Legislature it could not bind the next. The only safeguard the people have in a law-making body is in sending honest, competent men to the Legislature.

NEW ENGLAND TOWNS.

While every one has heard of the New England Towns, comparatively few have a true conception of the importance of these towns. They are usually compared with our Election Districts; while they serve Comptroller's Department, the purpose of the Election District, they are of vastly more importance in the social and political organization of society and the State. A writer in The Baltimore American in suggesting the town system for Maryland in connection with the extension of the limits of Baltimore city, furnishes a didactic article which will be of interest as well as instructive to many in with amendments, which were adopted, and the bill passed—yeas 16, nays 0. The advantages of the township system are too many to be enumerated in this article, and would require an abler pen than mine to do them justice. For whatever of prosperity, what

The weather unfortunately was not favorable, being generally cloudy and rainy. The reports from that region have been greatly exaggerated. Many of the people residing on the mountain and in the immediate vicinity have been much alarmed, but only one family has removed. There is some foundation, however, for the sensational reports which have had so wide a circulation. But the manner of that vindication is the most remarkable part of the affair.

"Of course," says that organ, "to elect Democrats to positions of honor and trust is an offense to good taste, if not to good morals." Without intending it, the above is much nigher the truth than The Democrat often gets. But we found no fault with the Legislature for filling the offices.

The investigation by a committee of congress at Washington of the famous Sanborn Contracts to collect the Internal Revenue taxes on successions and distributions of the States into towns than to any other cause.

We are all creatures of habit, and it is quite natural that every one should regard most favorably the institutions or systems under which he has always lived. The most satisfactory guarantee of the purity of our Ground Bone, is that our mill is open at all times to the thorough inspection of our customers.

Some farmers have thought it necessary to purchase other fertilizers, fearing that Ground Bone is too slow in its action. The general experience of our customers, however, seems to show that when ground as fine as ours is prepared, it acts with satisfactory promptness. The following letter from a well known and reliable citizen, of Lancaster county, Pa., which appeared in the Oxford Press of 12th Mo. 3d, 1873, without any agency on our part is to the point. any agency on our part, is to the point:

Futor, Linearize court, 11th Mo., 24, 1872.

Entor Parss:—As you wished a report about my wheat crop of 1873, I will give the following: From one acre the vield was 46-been sheaves, which, when threshed, yielded 26 busheds and 12 penuls of wheat. On this acre 800 pounds of Werfing's towe had been harrowed in, and 1½ bushels of white wheat drilled. It was somewhat injured by fly in the fall of 1872. One acre alongwise the above, and treated in the same nanner, except without the bone, yielded 22 dozen, making 16 bushels and 8 pounds to the acre. Difference in favor of Waring's ground bone, in my experience, of 20 bushels and 4 lbs. to the acre. By deducting price for bone it leaves a gain of $12.10 per acre, when wheat is $1.50, in favor of putting on the bone. These experiments we have tried for our own and others' adventage. We have tried other fertilizers and received but little in return for our great outlay.

We use the best machinery now known for pulverizing Bone, and offer our grade of BOWLERA, BURNES BROWNER as a substitute for even the best of the various manipulated articles in the market, and as positively containing a larger per centage of manurial value than any dissolved bone or super-phosphate that can be made at an equal cost.

This Extra Fine Bone is not obtained by sifting it out of the other, but is made by passing it through the mill a sufficient number of times to reduce it to the required degree of fineness.

For the Spring of 1874 our prices at the mill, without bags, are as follows: Less than 8 Tons, - - - $13.00 per ton. 8 Tons and Upwards, - - 42.00 " "

These are the prices at the mill, and do not include lags. We will fill lags furnished us, or supply them at out; or will ship in our own lags at 25 cts. per ten additional, the lags to be returned within ten days, free cf out to us. 4.2 In actiding orders please state whether the ordinary grade or the Extra Fine is wanted. When no distinction is reads we will send the ordinary grade.

2 a uples of either grade sent on application.
