THE NATION'S THANKSGIVING

Again a generous, omnipotent God has showered His richest blessings over a Nation pulsating with the breath and life of Christian civilization, and again the recipients of these manifold tributes of love have offered up their appreciation in a sincere and joyous Thanksgiving. In every village, town, city, county and state of this broad land heary-handed sons of toil, bankers, financiers, diplomate, governors and men and women of every class and every walk of life bowed their beads over the festive board and murmured words of love and thanks for the peace, prosperity and plenty that are enjoyed by the United States, while other No-
