MYSTERY SHROUDS "GHOST" TALE OF MEREDITHS' HOME

SCENE IS NEAR SALEM CHURCH

Queer Happenings Forty Years Ago At Farmer's House Attract Much

Attention-Missiles Are Thrown. Another of the mysterious "ghost" tales that are appearing in The Easton Ledger has been located in Queen Annes county. This story, which first window one evening and dropped in came to light 20 years ago, deals with the sitting room; every one examined happenings of 21 years previous to the stone and at last it was placed on 1897, or in 1876. Its scene is near a shelf until the next morning When Salem M. E. Church, where there is the family arose the next morning and a burying ground, and there may be examined the stone again it was found some relation between the story to be burning hot. Gentlemen-All.

You have to go some to keep up a reputation as a Southern gentleman—a SOVEREIGN—King of Them All. Yes, sir! I bet I get more attention than any youngster on earth!

The folks in the factory are always at me to keep clean and sweet and pure.

"You come from the finest Southern stock of Virginia and the Carolinas," they say. "You are made of the best tobacco in the world. You are clothed in a fine, clean, white suit of genuine imported paper. Keep clean; keep clean; keep clean clear through.

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood! You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

So a clean, sweet, wholesome cigarette makes heaps of friends down South." And you, friend, I would like to know you too! So here's another big thing to think about—

> I am guaranteed by The American Tobacer G -Buy me.
> If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
