Let's Us Good Folks Stick Together

I'm mighty glad I was born a real Southerner. Just suppose I had been an Eskimo, or an Indian, or something with rings in my nose and ears!

Yes, sir - I am good and proud of my Southern birth. My mother is from Virginia and my father is from the Carolinas. I was born and raised down here among you all

I wish you could see my home—it is so clean and bright and cheery and wholesome—the finest, whitest, healthiest tobacco factory in all the world.

I am called SOVEREIGN-King of Them All! But my middle name is Smoke, friend—and all over the South my loyal friends are with me, because

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood! You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

I want you all for my friends—every one of you. Give me a chance—see how I make good. And don't forget-

I am guaranteed by the American Cobace G -Buy me.
If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
