Queen Annes county must again do her bit in helping promote the success of the new Liberty Loan

Here's hoping that every member of the first group of forty selected men sent to Camp Meade this week may return to their families after the war. safe, sound and well!

It to the duty of every loyal Democrat to help with the registration work next Tuesday It is vitally necessary for every Democrat to see that he k properly enrolled in order to participate in the November election.

The acquisition of Kent Island by the government would have meant that Queen Annes county would lose an annual income, from taxes, of about the Centreville Opera House $12.50 at the lowest estimate At the preent tax rate, just $12,500 is collected from every million dollars worth of property Kent Island's taxable bas Tuceday . Bonds Soon To Arrive

Dear Friend:

Distribution of the Liberty Loan Bonds, purchased by the people of the country during the recent bond sale, is now being made by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks. These latter banks will, in turn, forward them to the National Banks in their respective districts.

Within a short time bonds purchased through this bank will be ready for distribution.

We will notify you as soon as your bond is received. Upon receipt of notice please call and receive same.

Very truly yours,

J. LEMUEL ROBERTS, Cashier.

Facts Regarding Merchandise

Never in the history of the present generation has the securing of merchandise been as difficult as now. Supply and demand, the only true reasons, have brought about unusual conditions regarding prices in first hands. This business, now covering three-quarters of a century of fair dealing with its customers, will not "profiteer" on any of our

On themy lines old contracts at ear ago prices are nov being filled. In every instance advances will not be made where it can be avoided. Included in our fortunate holdings are the following desirable lines:

Bills Taffetes, $1.50 and $2.25 yard. Settes, $1.65, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50 yerd. Crope de Chine, $2.50 yard. Chiffen Breedcloths, $3.50 yerd. French Berges, $1.50 and $2.00 yard. Storm Sorges, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 yerd. Weel Peplins, $1.50 yerd. Wool Geberdines. $2.50 yerd.

French Kid Gloves and domestic Wash Kid, Mocha and Buckskin Gloves will be found at prices comparing favorably with the lowest quotation of years ago.

The same applies to Handkerchiefs, Silk Gloves and Hosiery.

Knitted Underwear and Muslin Underwear are not noticably higher than a year ago.

Whatever household Linens we own in the way of Damasks, Napkins, Towels and fancy linens are all kept within the lines of fairness.

Blankets, Comfortables and Spreads are lines we would suggest that you choose liberally now.

As indicative of our efforts to give values far beyond market conditions you should see the qualities we are of-fering in plain white Turkish Towels at 18c., 25c., 35c. and 37 1-2c.

For tomorrow we place on sale 600 initial Turkish Towels at 29c. each, the exact number and quality you bought one and two years ago.

Conditions mentioned apply equally as true to our Garment section.

We show women's Suits at $25.00 each which were never

MThe same can be truthfully said of Dresses, Waists, Coats and Skirts.

No store anywhere is better prepared to serve you honestly than here. A comparison right through our lines will be convincing proof of this.

Beginning Monday you can have the services of an ex-pert corsetiere, who will be in attendance in our corset sec ion for the entire week.

We solicit charge accounts of those of established credit, and deliver free within a reasonable distance.
