LIBERTY LOAN ROLL CALL

At a meeting of the Editors of the county newspapers of Maryland held in Baltimore, Tuesday, October 9th, the representatives of four counties reported as follows:

- Q Queen Anne's County---Has already raised its maximum allotment and is now going full speed ahead for a record for the state.
- Q Carroll---Has already subscribed to date over $500,000, this amount being in excess of the entire subscription for the First Liberty Loan.
- I Frederick---Volunteers and will not be "conscripted" to raise its amount. Its message, "Watch for our Announcement"
- 9 Allegany---Our message is the same as Frederick County.

What About the Other 19 Counties and Baltimore City?

Our Country Calls for Every Individual to "DO HIS BIT"

					$ec=\infty \infty$
The Federal Reserve Bank Expects Maryland to Raise	•	•	•	•	$65,000.000
Of This Amount the Quota for Queen Annes County is	•	•	•	•	$ 329,000
				•	$39,000,000
The Minimum That Maryland Must Raise is					$ 197.000
Of This Amount the Quota for Queen Annes County is	•	•	•	•	•
Of This Amount the Quota for Queen Annes County is The Minimum That Maryland Must Raise is	•		•	•	$39,000,000 $ 197,000

WHAT SHALL IT BE?

Merely our duty, or the fulfillment of the greatest expectation?

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE
Liberty Loan Committee for Maryland