NATIONAL PROHIBITION A LIVE ISSUE

It has been brought to the atforces to create sentiment against ratifying the National Prohibition Amendment at this tainly no member will be misled by this organized and well financed propaganda of the liquor

The Anti-Saloon League, through its publication, through the pulpit and the press of the state, did its best to make the tesue plain. The Personal Liberty League, through its advertisements, showed that they understood the issue and made their fight accordingly.

The resolution for nationwide prohibition had passed the Senate before the Delegates and presentatives at that time. question who would for a moment, say that there was doubt any time in the past six months about the submission of this question to the Legislatures of the states. As a great newspaper of the City of Baltimore has said, if this question is not settled at this Legislature it will a he the question upon which the election of all legislatures will turn for the next seven years. This certainly is true unless 36 states ratify the resolution before that time

We submit that inasmuch as the Legislature knows this to be true, the responsibility for continuing this fight on the subin cities of 5,000 or more the chiefs mission of the aution-wide prothe one now in session can settle this question for all time to come in Maryland and we cause to make this known to his House of Delegates
