Here is an exclusive feature in tractor construction that you get only in an Avery Tractor. It is the best idea that has ever been developed for a tractor motor.

The most vital spot in any motor is the inside of the cylinder well. It gets the hardest wear of any part of the tractor and the Avery Trac tor is the only tractor in which you can take care of this wear by done with other tractors. You just get a new inner well which bought at very much less expense and put it in and your motor is a
