"OVER THERE"

"They say, who have come back from Over There that at night the troubled earth between the lines is carpet. ed with pain. They say that Death rides whistling in ev. ery wind, and that the very mists are charged with awful torment. They say that of all things spent and squandered there young human life is held least dear. It is not the pleasantest prospect for those of us who yet can feel upon our lips the pressure of our mother's good-bye kiss. But, please God, our love of life is not so prized as love of right. In this renaissance of our country's valor, we who will edge the wedge of her assault make calm acceptance of its hazards. For us, the steel-swept trench, the stiffing cold—weariness, hardship, worse. For you, for whom we go, you millions safe at home—what for you?

We shall need food. We shall need care. We shall] need clothes for our bodies and weapons for our hands We shall need terribly and without failure supplies and 1 Lequipment in a stream that is constant and never-ending From you, who are our resource and reliance, who are the heart and hope of that humanity for which we smite and 1 atrive must come these things
