Boy and Girl Scouts, a five dollar price being awarded to the troupe most outcessful, or the one doing the best work. A $2.50 prise was offered the colored children.

The Girl Scouts won the $5.00 prize, the award being decided by the Town Commissioners, but it has not been Now in Stock Come see them learned upon what basis the sward was made to the colored children.

The campaign lasted but a few The campaign lasted but a few because of the orchard of apple, plum and cherry hours, and the trucks of Carter & Co., Watch This Snapper to trees, and also a small tract of wood and C S Thomas, and the wagons of WUILLI IIIO UUULG Wright & Collins and Louis B. Perkins were denated for the purpose of bauling off the refuse matter.

This campaign differed materially from the average real campaign, in that it was in existence but a few hours. A real "Clean-up" campaign should not be likened to the annual bath. It is what the name implies -- a campoign for cleaning.and campaigns. be it noted, are continuous things; they continue just as long as there is anything worth campaigning for, and in the "Clean-Up" line eternal vigilance and industry are the price of librty from dirt and disorder.

A real "Clean-Up" campaign does not stop in a day, a week, a month or a season, unless the town or commusclean up and keep clean.

The Bunday School Convention has grown to such size that its entertainment on the old plan is no longer fearthie. In these stirring war times, when the forces of righteousness are fighting a death battle with the forces of evil, it is extremely important that the coming generation should be trained Correspondents wanted in every town to be brave, sturdy soldiers of the Cross. Let each Sunday School begin Saturday morning. May 4th, 1918. planning now to attend this convention, so as to make it the most successful our county has ever held.
