AND ADDED TO HIS POPULARITY BOL BOW. BY HIS GENEROUS HOSPITALI-TY TO THE NEWSPAPER MEN OF THE STATE.

Hotel Rennert, Baltimore, Md., August 29, 1918 Senator Orlando Harrison entertained the members of the State Editors Association at his really vast estate on the Eastern Shore. The guests were all impressed at the evidence of his great business ability and the magnitude of the enterprise WHEREAS, AT THE JANUARY SEShe has built up from small beginnings, until now he has the largest nurseries. not only in this country but in the entire world Mr Harrison was a model host and added largely to his popularity by his unstinted hospitality to the newspaper men, and others who were privileged to be present with him on Monday.

Speaking of the able and astute Senator from Worchester naturally brings up the fact that he is the only democrat at present openly in the field chances of Mr Harrison, for should the republicans decide to nominate; an Eastern Shoreman for the place. that it would be the part of wisdom fearless, able independent and one or the best and most capable fighters in beninst him, no matter from what part is over next year
