The Presbyterian Sociable.

(COMMUNICATED).

The sociable given by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church at the house of Mr. Hugh Bone, on Wednesday evening last, was a splendid success in every particular. There was a great gathering of peo-ple-fully 500 being present during the evening-and the scene will long be remembered as one of great beauty, animation and enjoyment. The ladies under whose charge the entertainment was held. proved themselves fully equal to the laborious task of furnishing supper for the multitude, and the quantity and quality of the viands dispensed was a matter of surprise to many, and congratulation by all present. The large house and grounds were beautifully illuminated, pretty ever receding quantities upon the handsome tables, while at intervals sweet music was given by trained performers and singers, and over all the charming & scene the moon shed its softest and most beautiful light. This entertainment will long be known, as in all respects, one of the most enjoyable ever held in this
