A Positive Cure for Diarrhea, &c. STONEBRAKER'S INDIAN GUM SYRUP. will positively cure any and every case of Diarrhea, Dysentery and Summer Complaint no matter how severe the case may be. It never fails in a single instance, and as a SOOTHING SYRUP, it acts with equal certainty, being far superior to any other in use. Mothers should bear this in mind. Sold by all merchants and druggists.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Hosehee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup. Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,-000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Suchia medicine as GERMAN SRRUP cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample Bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Oct. 20-1v.

Harper's Magazine for December. Harper's Magazine for December, 1877, fully maintains the leading position which this periodical holds, both as to literary and artistic excellence. Readers will first of all turn to Longfellow's poem, Keramos, beautifully illustrated by Abbey and Fredericks. While the subject of the poem is one dear to the hearts of all brie-a-brac hunters, the poet has transcended its more obvious features, and in realistic description, but also an imaginative work of the highest order. The fashioning of clay in the potter's hand typically suggests the subtle fashions of human life and nature—the key-note of the whole poem being the idea of change. The potter's song, bits of which occur as frequent refrains, imbues or of merely speculative reflection.

The number opens with Milton's Hymn on the Nativity, with seven effective illustrations by Fredericks. Mrs. Spofford contributes a paper, beautifully illustrated, on Elizabethan and later decorative art in England since the Renaisance, and the author's graceful style renders it as attractive as it is instructive.

Mr. William H. Rideing contributes a pa-per on the Metropolitan Newspaper, which will be universally popular. It is embellished raits of prominent New York editors. Christmas story, by Virginia W. Johnson, with two striking illustrations by Abbey.

This Number is especially rich in flction. Miss Thackeray begins a new etory, Da Capo; and Edward Everett Hale's story, Back to Back, is concluded. There are also six admirable short stories. The Man in the Cage day, but as there is a law ferbidding Sunis a very strong story, by Rebecca Harding day travelling, the police put an end to it. Ryan. Davis; The Daily Advertiser, by H. E.
