are to day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valnable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactor, results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by ali Druggists on the Western Continent.

THE CANDIDATE.

"Father! who travels our road so late?" "Hush! my child, 'tis the candidate. Fit example of human woe, Farly he comes and late he goes. He greets the woman with courtly grace; He kisses the baby's dirty face; He calls to the fence the farmer at work He bores the merchant; he bothers the clerk The blacksmith, while his anvil rings, He greets, and this is the song he sings : 'Howdy! dowdy! how d'ye do? How is your wife, and how are you? Ah! it ilts my fist as no other can, The horny hand of the workingman."

"Husband! who is that at the gate?" "Hide, my love, 'tis the candidate!" "Husband! why can't he work like you? Has he nothing at home to do ?" "My dear, whenever a man is down-No cash at home and no credit in town-Too stupid to preach and too proud to beg Too timid to rob and too lazy to dig; Then over his horse his leg he flings And to the dear people this song he sings

'Howdy! dowdy! how d'ye do? How is your wife, and how are you? Ah! it fits my fiet as no other can, The horny hand of the workingman.'

Brothers who labor early and late, Ask these things of the candidate: What's his record? How does he stand At home? No matter about his hand, Be it hard or soit, so it be not prone To close over money not his own. Has he in view no thieving plan? Is he honest and capable? He's your man! Cheer such a man till the welkin rings: Join in a chorus when thus he sings: "Howdy! dowdy! how d'ye do? How is your wife, and how are you? Ah! it fits my fist as no other can-The honest hand of the workingman."
