THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES - As an illustration of the spirit of the times was the following little family scene, when a bright four-year-old little lady was imitating her elders by playing "make calls:"

are the children ?" Totty-"I'm twite well, I tank you,but the children has all dot the hoopin toff."

Mamma -"I'm sorry to hear it. How many children have you, Mrs. Smith ?" Totty-"Oh, I has ten, and dey is a gate tyal to me wif my housekeepin'."

Mamma-"They must be, indeed. But how does your husband, Mr. Smith, do ?" Totty-"He's very well, tank you, but he's had bad bithness and he bath failed." Mamma-"I'm sorry to hear that your Eusband has failed, but you haven't lost cverything, Mrs. Smith, for I see you make TAPSCO STORE COAL YARD by the calls in your own cartiage."

"Never mind, couny--better weather and better sales next week."

"Boys hain't no 'count," lonesomely answered the little shaver.

"Oh, ves they are. I was a boy once."

"Was you smart?"

"Guess I was! Why, before I was seven years old I could take the family clock all to pieces !" "Could you!" exclaimed the lad, his eyes sparkling with admiration as the man passed on. He got a new brace for his feet, indulged in some hard thinking, and all at once spoke up: "What a fule I am that I didn't sass him! Any fule of a boy kin take a clock ter pieces, but it takes a man, and a purty smart one, ter get the wheels together agin! I'm jist as discouraged as I was before, and more, too !"

-They were taking evidence the other day in a divorce case on the ground of cruelty. The husband was under examination and his wife, prostrated with grief, was weeping bitterly, covering her face with her bandkerchief. "Now," said the judge, "are you not ashamed to have thus brutally treated your wife, a tender young woman of twenty-five ?" The wife suddenly raised her head. "I beg your pardon," she sobbed; "treenty-four only," and she again gave way to her grief.
