It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pheumonia Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. The American Farmer

For April is received,-replete with its usual array of useful and seasonable papers from the most practical and experienced hands in the various departments of farm, garden and household economy. The standard tople of discussion, as usual with this venerable farm journal, appears to be manures, home-made and artificial, and the best modes of restoring the declining fertility of soils. Several articles on these subjects are well worth careful reading. Other branches, such as the Live stock Interest, the Dairy, the Staple Crops, Horiculture in its various divisions, the Poultry Yard, &c., all are given full space. A num ber of appropriate cuts illustrate the text.

Attentive reading of this number to any of our wide awake farmers cannot fall to be worth more than the amount of the yearly subscription, which is $1.50, or only $1 to elubs of five or more. Samuel Sands & Son, Baltimore, are the publishers.
