Have You Read Miss Alcott's New Story, "Under The Lilaes?"

This story rivals in interest Miss Alcott's first great success, "Little Women." The scene is laid in a fine old New England homestead and the neighboring country town, and the half-dozen jolly boys and girls who form the chief characters are described, and their thousand pranks and scrapes detailed-in the author's very best style. Two characters that will especially delight the readers are a runaway circus-boy and his wonderful trained away circus-boy and his wonderful trained dog Sancho, who, for 'ways that are dark and tricks that are vain,' almost rivals the Heathen Chinee. "Under the Lilacs" was begun in St. Nicholas, Seribner's illustrated inagazine for girls and boys, for November, 1877, and will be completed in October, 1878. The publishers offer the 12 numbers, from November, 1877, to October, 1878, containing venter, 1877, to October, 1878, containing "Under the Lilacs," complete, besides three shorter serials, and short stories, poems, pictures, thymes, and jingles almost lunumerable, for $2.50, or they can be had of any bookscher at the same rate.

The regular price of St. Vicholas is $3.00 a

John G. Whittler says:—"It is little to say of St. Nicholas that it is the best Child's Periodical in the World." The Christian Union says:—"It is a delightful magazine for children of all ages—from

THE PRINCE AND BISMARCK

For years past there has been a widespread belief that there was a bitter anagonism between the Prince Regent and Prince Bismarck. The London Daily News, writing on this subject seven years ago, said:
