A Story of Liszt.

A young pianist was giving concerts through the provinces of Germany for her support; and, to enhance her reputation she advertised herself as a pupil of Liszt. In a little town in the interior of Germany, where she had announced a concert, she was confounded the day before the concert was to take place by seeing in the list of arrivals, at the very hotel where the concert was to be given, "M. L'Abbe Liszt." Here was a dilemma, and what to do she knew not. Her fraud would be discovered; she would be exposed; she could never give another concert; she was ruined! Tremblingly she sought the presence of the great maestro, determined to make a clean breast of it, and to cast herself on his mercy. Coming into his room with downcast eyes, she knelt at the old man's feet, and with many tears told her story—how she had been left an orphan, and poor, with only her one gift of music with which to support herself; and the difficulties she had encountered until the fraudulent use of his great name had filled her rooms and her purse.

"Well! well!" said the great man, gently raising her up, "let us see, my child, what we can do. Perhaps it is not so bad as you thought. There is a piano. Let me hear one of the pieces you expect to play to-morrow evening."

Tremblingly she obeyed—the maestro making comments and suggestions as she played; and when she had finished he added:

"Now, my child! I have given you a lesson—you are 'a pupil of Liszt.'"

Before she could find words to express her gratitude, Liszt asked:

"Are your programmes printed?"

"No, sir!" was the answer.

"Then say that you will be assisted by your master, and that the last piece on the programme will be played by the Abbe Liszt."

That concert, it may be readily believed, was a great success.

A Profitable Boarder.—"What do you charge for board?" asked a tall Green Mountain boy, as he walked up to the bar of a second-rate hotel in New York; "what do you ask a week for board and lodging?"

"Five dollars."

"Five dollars! that's too much, but I s'pose you allow for the times I am absent from dinner and supper?"

"Certainly, thirty-seven and a half cents each."

Here the conversation ended, and the Yankee took up his quarters for two weeks. During this time he lodged and breakfasted at the hotel, but did not take either dinner or supper, saying his business detained him in another portion of the town. At the expiration of two weeks he again walked to the bar and said:

"S'pose we settle that account—I'm going in a few minutes."

The landlord handed him his bill: "Two weeks board at five dollars—ten dollars."

"Here, stranger," said the Yankee, "this's wrong—you've not deducted the time I was absent from dinner and supper—14 days, two meals per day; 28 meals at 37½ cents each—$10,50. If you've not got the fifty cents that is due to me, I'll take a drink and the balance in cigars.

—This is a boy's composition on girls. He says: "Girls are the only folks that has their own way every time. Girls is of several thousand kinds, and sometimes one girl can be like several thousand other girls if she wants to do anything. This is all I know about girls, and father says the less I know about them the better off I am."

—Student: "Now, professor, do you not believe that relations of honor should exist between pupil and teacher?"

Professor: "Certainly, sir."

"Well, then, I tell you, on my honor as a man that my examination paper, which I hold in my hand, is first grade, and will not hand it in. It is merely to save you trouble, sir."

—When the royal baby of Brazil cries his nurse remarks, in pure Castillian, "Now, you Luiz Maria Phillippi de Alcantara Gastao Miguel Baphael Gonzaga, you just keep quiet."

—Sidney Smith once rebuked a swearing visitor by saying, "Let us assume that everything and everybody are damned and proceed with our subject."

—According to the Scientific American, in the State of Connecticut one person in every 855 is an inventor. The other 854 wonder of the darned thing will work.

—Darwin says a woman loses one-tenth of her time looking for her thimble. He recommends that a shelf for it be attached to the frame of the mirror.

—It is the only medicine I would give to my Baby, a mother said, speaking of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. At all drug stores, 25 cents.

—Two reasons why some persons don't mind their own business: One is, they haven't any business; the other they haven't any mind.

—"I go through my work," as the needle said to the little boy. "But not till you're hard pushed," as the boy said to the needle.

—It is more blessed to give than to receive, but it's not so popular.

THERE IS NO USE "WAITING

For something to turn up," and we have at last decided to turn it up. The protracted warm spell has materially interfered with the CLOTHING BUSINESS of Baltimore. Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars worth, which seasonable weather would have sold, remains on Shelf and Counter. It is usual in most business houses to make reductions after the season of demand is over. We have decided to take time by the forelock and make those reductions NOW. Hence our entire stock has been marked Down, Down, DOWN to an after-holiday basis. We will positively stick at no reasonable sacrifice that will turn our great stock into speedy CASH.
