No Scandal. - Don't become carriers of evil. You are bound to be careful of the reputation of your fellow-men. Much harm is done by repeating what you hear. "Have you heard the story?" "No." "Well, I don't know anything about it; I cannot youch for its truth; but this is the way it was told to me." Then there comes the whole miserable tale. "It may not be true; but this is as I heard it, I understand it to be so; but it may not be so; I hope it is not so." O hypocrite Agent for the Sale of and Bottler of Bergue and villain. You are accussinating a man and villain! You are assassinating a man by carrying around deadly rumors concerning him. You are stabbing him behind back. You say that you do not know these rumors are true; and yet you standard Quality, I will sell at are spreading them. You are alike false to conscience and to your fellow-men.
