THERE is no more doubt that Sherman wrote that famous and infamous letter to Anderson than there is that Tilden was duly elected President. It it the policy of the Republican party however to lead the country off into the labyrinths of radical pollution and so mystify the minds of those who have not closely watched their movements, that it will be impossible, they fondly imagine for the masses to discern the truth and fix the guilt where it propcrly belongs. The evidence before the Potter Committee disproves all their delirious conceptions of Ku Kluxism, and presents their crime, more hideous, than any that could have been conceived by their tormer executive in the wildest stages of his imagination. DEAR EDITORS: Will you kindly inform me why the dwellers in the south western pertion of Ellicott City pay city taxes? Don't think I propound this as a conundrum, which at first sight it might seem to be. Don't imagine that I seek to State. The applicant is to be appointed catch you in a trap. I am only an anxious enquirer. Is it because we have one solitary lamp, which is carefully lit just after we go to bed? Is it because all disorderly and drunken persons, after being carefully conveyed across the bridge opposite the Howard House, are turned loose upon us to make night hideous with oaths, cries, yells, and pistol-shots? Is it that demoniac singers of colored skins may howl around us unchecked on hot Sunday afternoons? Is it that the profane youths of the city may yell and swear on Quaker Hill, and drunken sleepers call for strong drink at our very gate? Is it that we may keep a hotel for tramps, stray dogs and sweet voiced cats? If it Confirmation at Carroll's is not for these things, I beseech you, oh
