GENERAL SUMMARY. MONDAY.

Gen. Butler made a speech before a greenback meeting in Biddeford, Me., Friday night. He said he had left the old parties. He had belonged to the democratic party until it attempted to destroy the Union, and was with the republican party until it deserted its founders, the laboring men. Capitalists he said. now hold the republican party bound hand and foot. Hayes has violated every pledge and betrayed the negro of the South. The effort of Grant's administration to strengthen the public credit was a swindle. He reviewed the history of greenback currency, and claimed that it | 000 bushels remain on hand. should be made a legal tender for all debts, public and private.

H. J. Montague, the actor, was seized with another hemorrhage of the lungs in San Francisco, Sunday evening, and died at 9.30, at the Palace Hotel. The body will be embalmed and couveyed East, accompanied by the actors engaged in the play of"Diplomacy,"who have concluded to terminate all engagements for the season and disband on arriving in New York. The California Theatre was closed last evening in respect to the memory of the deceased. Mr. Montague was an Englishman, and came to this country four years ago under engagement to Mr. Wallack. He was prominent among "society," comedians in such parts as "Capt. Hawtree"in Caste, and a long list of similar highly genteel creations, and was a favorite with people who think the repression of feeling is the final excellence in acting.
