THE GAZETTE FOR 1879.

THE BALTIMORE GAZETTE is a daily newspaper which appeals to the public solely on its perits as a journal of the day. It is a com-pendium of news at home and abread, each event being written, prepared and edited accor-them daily in terse and pointed English. It is thoroughly Democratic in its teachings and tendencies, but independent of all corrupt rings, cliques or factions Oligarchies. The GAZETTE believes that the principles of the Democratic party should prevail. To that end it will labor to place the Democratic party in power and thereby bring about a much needed change in the administration of the Government. In Municipal, State, and National politics The Gazette will lend its aid to the representatives of Democratic principles. A great struggle for political mastery is coming on. In 1880 another battle for the Presidency will be fought. The importance of such a newspaper as The Gazerre in educating, or-Tanizing and preparing the people for this con-test cannot be over-estimated. The News, Editorial, and Local features of THE GAZETTE will be thoroughly maintained and improved during the year. The department of Foreign Correspondence has attained a standard unequaled in Baltimore journalism, and as a whole there is no daily journal in the country which contains so many popular features

Turnished at such popular prices.
The Baltimore Weekly Gazette is a folio Journal, same size as the Daily, which contains every week an epitome of Home and Foreign News, Charming Stories, Entertaining Miscellany, Complete Market Reports, Correspondence, Editorials and Family Reading, all telested with expensed in reference relected with care and with especial reference to the needs of people who are unable by reason of location or circumstances to take a

THE BALTIMORE DAILY GAZETTE is furnished at $6 per year to mail subscribers, postage included. It is delivered by carriers at 12 cents per week and at the rate of $1 per year; six months, 50 cents.

Price and all things considered, The Dally and Weekly Gazette are the best papers printed on the South Atlantic Scaboard We hope during the coming year to add thou-sands of names to our lists in Baltimore and contiguous sections. All letters and inquiries in regard to subscriptions or matters of business should be addressed to THE GAZETTE,

THE SUN FOR 1879

THE SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past: To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell ding to its relative importance. Not a line appears in The Gazette which is not useful or instructive. It essays to give the news in a nutshell and at a price in keeping with the economical demands of the times.

The Gazette has opinions and it expresses them daily in terse and pointed English. It is the truth though the heavens fall. joyed by any other American Journal.
The Sun is the newspaper for the people. A. M.

It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates, It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its one from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles u<sub>1</sub> on which this Republic was founded for the peo-ple. Whenever the Constitution and constirageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is Tur says it ago of indefor the right. That is THE SUN's idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme.

The Sun has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. The SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated bright-

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, The Sun does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine not propose to make itself in 1869 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its read-It is delivered by carriers at the same of the rate of $1 per year; six months, 50 cents.

The Weekly Gazette is mailed to subscribers of the rate of $1 per year; six months, 50 cents.

To this end the resources worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well-established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy abhorence of fraud in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of The Sun's work for 1879.

We have the means of making The Sun, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them freely. before; and we mean to apply them freely.
