

GENERAL SUMMARY. MONDAY.

Mr. Gladstone has been making a speech at Greenwich, which, while attacking the members of the Cabinet, excluded the Queen from the Government.

The Bavarian authorities have the subject of cremation under consideration, and have asked the opinion of the Protestant, Catholic and Israelite congregations, and also the Board of Health.

The steambark Charles Morgan, from Cincinnati bound to New Orleans, collided with the steambark Cotton Valley, bound to the Red River, yesterday when opposite Donaldsboro, Va.

The National Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry, in session at Richmond, Va., declared its intention to oppose the proposed tariff on agricultural machinery.

The Paris Journal des Debats gives currency to a doubtful report that King Alfonso, of Spain, has determined to ask the hand of the Princess Christine, the elder sister of the late Queen Mercedes.

The duty Revenue Collector Sawyer, of Haverhill, Mass., has been arrested for an alleged defalcation of thirteen hundred dollars belonging to the Government.

The marriage of the Princess Thyra, of Denmark, with the Duke of Cumberland, will be solemnized on the 21st or 22d of December.

Fifteen removals were made on Saturday in the New York Custom House to diminish expenses.

TUESDAY.

The third session of the Forty-fifth Congress began at noon yesterday, with a full attendance of members in both houses.

In the Senate, after prayer by the chaplain and the appointment of a committee to wait upon the President, Messrs. Lamar, Harris and Eastis presented resolutions for the appointment of a joint committee of the Senate and House to inquire into the cause and spread of epidemic disease in the United States, particularly yellow fever and cholera.

Mr. Bixbee introduced a bill to provide for retreating the trade dollar, and for its recognition into the standard silver dollar. Mr. Voorhees submitted a resolution instructing the committee on finance to inquire into the expediency of making the trade dollar a legal-tender for all debts, public and private, and of providing for its recognition into the standard silver dollar of 412 1/2 grains.

Mr. Blaine submitted a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire whether at the recent election the constitutional rights of any citizen of the United States were violated in any State of the Union, and what further legislation is necessary to protect citizens in their constitutional rights, &c.

Among the documents sent to Congress yesterday was the report of the proceedings of the International Monetary Conference held in Paris last summer. The substance of the report is that the commissioners failed to agree upon any recommendation for the establishment of a common ratio between gold and silver, but reached two general conclusions—first, that the monetary functions of silver should be retained, as well as those of gold, in order to keep the money value of the world upon a sufficiently broad basis; and secondly, that the selection of one or both of these precious metals should be left to the various nations individually.

The Governor-General and Princess Louise left Montreal yesterday morning en route for Ottawa. Military and civic honors were shown them on their departure as on their arrival. The party arrived at Ottawa at 4.30 P. M. The corporation presented an address. The illumination and procession were postponed until Wednesday evening.

Col. Mosby will sail from San Francisco for Hong Kong, in the steamer City of Peking, on the 4th of January next.

The Hampton Roads (Va.) cable, which was broken last Wednesday, has been repaired.

Mr. William B. Astor has arrived safely at Jacksonville, Fla., with his fine yacht.

WEDNESDAY.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, Mr. Morrill introduced a bill to authorize the issue of certificates of deposits of the denomination of ten dollars, or any multiple thereof, not exceeding $100, bearing 8-10 one-hundredth per cent. interest.

A resolution, offered by Mr. Beck, was adopted directing the Secretary of the Treasury to inform the Senate what amount and denomination of silver coin has been received in payment of customs since the beginning of the fiscal year, and whether or not he has applied the silver coin so received to the payment of interest on bonds and notes of the United States, and if not, to state the reason why, and also to show what kind of coin has been used.

Mr. Matthews called up the Texas Pacific railroad bill from last session's calendar, and spoke in favor of the bill. A bill was introduced to incorporate the Mt. Pleasant and Potomac Side Railway Company. The standing committees of the last session were re-elected.

In the House, under the call of States, a number of bills were introduced, including the following: For the redemption and recognition of trade dollars and their reissue in standard dollars of 412 1/2 grains; to give notice of the termination of the treaty of 1895 with the North German Confederation; to punish election frauds; to repeal the resumption act; for the appointment of a yellow fever commission; requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to receive trade dollars in exchange for legal tender dollars, and for the admission and registry of foreign ships.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have paid to ex-Gov. Olen B. Way, president of the Maryland Jockey Club, the sum of $12,561.23, being the amount of a judgment, with costs, obtained against them by Mr. Bowie for injuries sustained by his race horse Australia, while being shipped on a train at the Washington depot. The suit was first instituted in 1869. A verdict was obtained for $8,000, to which the company took an appeal. The second verdict was for $10,000, from which an appeal was taken to the United States Supreme Court, but that court sustained the verdict below.

The United States steamer Quinnebec, Commander Farquhar, will be inspected at Norfolk to-morrow morning at nine o'clock, and sail for Annapolis at twelve, to give her machinery a test before going to sea. Commodore Gen. H. Conner's board of naval inspectors arrived at Norfolk this morning to inspect the Ticonderoga and Quinnebec.

Mrs. Meason, of Uniontown, Pa., a daughter of Gen. Richard Batter, one of Washington's trusted lieutenants during the revolutionary war, died Saturday night, aged 96 years.

The United States steamer Ticonderoga, now in dry dock at Norfolk, Va., had her keel struck by a large log on the coast of Massachusetts recently.

THURSDAY.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, Mr. Davis, of West Virginia, offered a resolution instructing the committee on agriculture to consider that subject and report by bill what can be done by the general government to better advance and foster our agricultural interests. Mr. Eastis introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for the construction and repairs of the Maryland levee.

Mr. Harris's resolution for a joint commission on epidemic diseases was passed, after being amended so as to appoint a committee of seven Senators, giving such committee power to sit and act in conjunction with any similar committee of the House. The Senate, by a vote of 23 to 10, rejected the motion of Mr. Matthews to take up the Texas Pacific railroad bill.

In the House, a resolution was adopted calling on the President for a copy of his patches and communications from the United States minister in Mexico on the subject of the commercial relations between the two countries; also a resolution calling on the President and Postmaster General for any information in their possession, now in the possession of the House, in regard to the commercial and postal relations between the United States and the countries of South America.

Mr. Eastis introduced a bill to provide for retreating the trade dollar, and for its recognition into the standard silver dollar. Mr. Voorhees submitted a resolution instructing the committee on finance to inquire into the expediency of making the trade dollar a legal-tender for all debts, public and private, and of providing for its recognition into the standard silver dollar of 412 1/2 grains.

Mr. Blaine submitted a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire whether at the recent election the constitutional rights of any citizen of the United States were violated in any State of the Union, and what further legislation is necessary to protect citizens in their constitutional rights, &c.

Among the documents sent to Congress yesterday was the report of the proceedings of the International Monetary Conference held in Paris last summer.

The Governor-General and Princess Louise left Montreal yesterday morning en route for Ottawa.

Mr. William B. Astor has arrived safely at Jacksonville, Fla., with his fine yacht.

FRIDAY.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, Messrs. Harris, Matthews, Lamar, Padlock, Conner, Garband and Eastis were announced as the yellow fever commission. A resolution was adopted for an investigation into the conduct of the late Freeman's Savings and Trust Company since the appointment of commissioners of the same. After a brief executive session the Senate adjourned until Monday next.

In the House the consular and diplomatic and naval appropriation bills were reported. A resolution offered by Mr. Henkle, of Maryland, was adopted directing the committee on civil service and reform to inquire into certain charges made in the Washington Post, in which it was stated that a Vermont Congressman had received $25,000 and an Illinois and Maryland member each $12,500 for aiding in the issue of some of the bills directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the interest of the 3-65 bonds.

Mr. Hendee, of Vermont, the other member reflected on, was absent on account of sickness. The House passed a concurrent resolution for the appointment of a commission to investigate the yellow fever and other epidemic diseases, and then adjourned until Monday.

SOMETHING FOR THE NEW YEAR.—The world-renowned success of Hostetter's Bitters, and their continued popularity for a quarter of a century as a stomachic, is generally acknowledged and the welcome that greets their annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing 60 hands in that department. Ten cylinder printing presses, 3 rolling machines, 5 job presses, &c., are running about eleven months in the year on this work and the issue of some for 1870 will not be less than ten millions printed in the English, German, French, Italian, Norwegian, Swedish, Russian, Bohemian and Spanish languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Bitters, amusement, varied information, astronomical and other information, and items, &c., which can be depended on for correctness. The Almanac for 1870 can be obtained free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.—Ado.

Two Kinds of Snobbery.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

There is a form of snobbery that consists in the affection of extreme disgust of genuine snobbery, and one is about as vulgar as the other. There is no more proper indignation against an arrogant and repulsive snob than there is against a snob who is inordinately proud of his own superiority.

College Fellowships in America.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

College Fellowships in America.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

College Fellowships in America.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

The purpose which the fellowship system as it is now being established in American colleges, is intended to serve are the advancement of scholarship, and the promotion of original thought and investigation.

Advertisement for 'The Genuine' Sewing Machine, featuring the Singer brand and M. N. Buzby as the sole agent.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Road Notice' regarding the construction of a road from the West-Minister road near Glenwood.

Advertisement for 'Ladies' Boots, Shoes and Gaiters' by Brierly Bros., Manufacturers and Dealers.

Advertisement for 'Ladies' Boots, Shoes and Gaiters' by Brierly Bros., Manufacturers and Dealers.

Advertisement for 'Ladies' Boots, Shoes and Gaiters' by Brierly Bros., Manufacturers and Dealers.

Advertisement for 'New Store' offering a choice selection of dry goods, groceries, liquors, and notions.

Advertisement for 'Merchant Tailoring' by Benay Bruchfisch, offering ready-made clothing for men and boys.

Advertisement for 'Coal Yard' by W. W. Radcliffe, offering anthracite and bituminous coal.

Advertisement for 'Grand Prize' awarded to Bergner & Engel Beer, sold by Julius Wusch.

Advertisement for 'Carpet Weaving' by J. W. Lankford, offering a variety of carpet styles.

Advertisement for 'Fertilizer Agency' by Joshua W. Dorsey, offering various agricultural fertilizers.

Advertisement for 'Cucumber Pumps' by Nathaniel Shipley, offering high-quality pumps.

Advertisement for 'Baker and Confectioner' by Edward Norris, offering fresh bread and pastries.

Advertisement for 'Fresh Meat' by Charles Schrod, offering high-quality meat products.

Advertisement for 'Seed Buckwheat' by J. J. Lamkin & Co., offering various agricultural seeds.

Advertisement for 'Bell Hanger' and 'Gun and Locksmith' by Charles Schrod.

Advertisement for 'Bell Hanger' and 'Gun and Locksmith' by Charles Schrod.