Ellieaff Cifu Cimes twenty questions, for the answers to which

HOWARD COUNTY ADVERTISER.

Advertising rates on first page.
Death and Marriage Notices inserted Obituaries five cents per line. Rule and Figure Work will be charged double the regular rates.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1878.

SENATOR WHYTE was very happy in the few clever remarks be made in the the enhancement of the splendor of pre- Christmas table; also many ingenious and train leaves Baltimore at 11.15 P. M., ar-Senate on Tuesday, when assigning the clous stones by dipping them in honey! reasons which prompted him to vote thority used a verb singular with two or are well worth seeing. Give him a call. Blaine. He gave that gentleman to understand that whatever the House of Representatives may be, the Senate chamber is not a public market place in which poit who attributes the passion for nuts litical bucksters may cry their wares for more to the pleasure of cracking the shell sale. Mr. Whyte knew that it was a than to any delight in eating the kernel? waste of time and words to argue points of constitutional law with Mr. Blaine. He had just heard the Senator from Maine inform Mr. Lamar that the Su- be thought so very dead ? preme Court was wrong in a decision it had made. Sound lawyer as he is, Mr. met command his disciples to use? Whyte felt that he was powerless before phrase, "The exception proves the rule?" a foe who displayed such sublime auda- 92. Who wrote the line: city. He justly realized the ridicule was | The right divine of kings to govern wrong, the most powerful weapon he could use and was the idea of the line original with against such a man as Mr. Blaine, and him? there is perhaps no man in the Senate 93. What is a palindrome? and make chamber who can use that weapon with one if you can? greater force and more grace than the Maryland Senator. He taught Mr. Blaine perhaps better than he had ever been taught before,-that both he and his resolution are appreciated at their just mual prepared for children ? value, and that the Senate as well as the just their actual worth.

Since the institution of Christmas, that being reasonable will get drunk, and most celebrated of all Christian sole,nnties, its observance has been general among all nations that believe in the religion of Him whose anniversary it commemorates.

The institution of this sacred festival is ascribed by the decretal letters to Pope Telesphorus, who lived about a century after the Christian era. At first it was one of the most movable festivals of the Church, but about the fourth century some of the most distinguished theolofeatures are very much the same Merry Christmas." with every Christian people. It is now, as ever, kept as a day of devotion, of rest, and of merriment. During the Middle Ages it was celebrated by the most fantastic dramatic representations. bulls' heads, cherubs, eastern Magi, be- prices. decked with numerous grotesque orna-

means of the so called Christmas-tree. It | cessful business. is said that parents take this occasion to tell their children what they deem most only detracts from their enjoyment of the a call. occasion, but fails to make the impres-Germans, and it is very interesting to read of their fascinating ways of amusmaking time among the English people, their revels often lasting for weeks. It is said that an English larder, like hash, contains a little of everything, it was filled with capons, hens, turkeys, geese, ducks, ber of novelties suitable for Christmas which showed threads of bright chesnut met's Self-Vindication by Alphonso Pizbeef, mutton, pork, peas, puddings, nuts, presents, which they are selling low for plums, sugar, honey, &c. Whence comes the Italian proverb: "As busy as an English oven at Christmas." including fine home made and imported The lords of the manor, always upon that wines, brandics, whiskeys, &c., also the dressed as herself. "Do you know who ence. The scene from Shakespeare's Henry day, entertained their tenants at their hall grand prize Bergner & Engel Beer. Fresh and made every endeavor to continue to their pleasure and make their merry and happy.

"A Christmas gambol oft would cheer,

A poor man's heart through half the year." The custom of decking the churches and houses at Christmas is derived from ing their purchases for the heliday. They the ancient Druids. They had a superstition that sylvan spirits might flock to them and thus be protected from the nipping frosts. The Christmas festival has lost much of its original mode of celebration in England, the gambols and carols are nearly everywhere abandoned, and family reunions and evergreen decorations are most all that remain of those once boisterous merriments of that day.

In the United States, Christmas is less celebrated in the New England than in which to furnish their tables. the Middle, Southern and Western States. And its manner of celebration in Before another edition of the Times is sent forth to our renders, the pleasant remembrances of the past. And in what- be selected that will prove acceptable central part of the city which he makes ination. Services will be held at 10 soever manner our readers may celebrate christmas gifts. soever manner our readers may celebrate it, we indulge the hope that it may be to them all a day as merry and happy as we now most sincerely wish them.

Christmas gifts.

Martin L. Rodey will serve his friends in Washington the greater part of the year, and leads a very simple, domestic preach. At night, Rev. Wm. J. Flord, a life, and is a great physical sufferer.—

Corner pastor. Services will be head at 10 o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. Hamble in Washington the greater part of the makes o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. Hamble in Washington the greater part of the city which he makes o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. Hamble in Washington the greater part of the city which he makes o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. Hamble in Washington the greater part of the city which he makes o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. Hamble in Washington the greater part of the city which he makes o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. Hamble in Washington the greater part of the city which he makes o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. Hamble in Washington the greater part of the city which he makes o'clock A. M., at which Rev. Wm. J. Flord, a life, and is a great physical sufferer.—

Corner pastor. now most sincerely wish them.

the New York World offers premiums in

81. Who was it divided the human them a call. race into "men, women and Beechers." and was the happy thought an original

S2. How far back can the use of the word Fall for Autumn be traced? 83. Who wrote the lines: Sorrow and the scarlet leaf.

Sad thoughts and sunny weather: Ah me! this glory and this grief Agree not well together! $4. What saint was it who compared the influence of piety upon character to

86. What is the gem of which a proverb tells us that he who has two of them has one too many?

S7. What unsuccessful dramatist was pottery originate? 89. How old is the saying, "As dead as attractive and worthy of attention. a door-nail," and why should a door-nail 90. What spirituous liquor did Maho-

91. What is the true meaning of the

91. Who was it wrote-

Where still so much is said, One-half will never be believed. The other never read.

95. What was the first Christmas an-properly begin, and is there any conflict country are disposed to treat them at of authorities over the date at which the town be again appeared, clad in minced pies ought to be first annually 97. What other animals besides man what records have we of the habit? 98. What king once wore a potato flower as a decoration, and on what occasion?

99. Is it certain that Shakespeare died on his birthday? 100. What Massachusetts girl emulated the Roman daughter by saving her father short months they from the fury of a Massachusetts mob?

Where to Eny Holiday Goods and Christmas Presents.

The Merchants of our city have all gians of that day, fixed positively upon | made complete arrangements for the rapthe 25th day of December as the Nativity idly approaching holiday season and icute reasons the young wife was adjudgof Christ, and since then it has been so their stores are well filled with suitable ed unfit to undertake the journey, and goods. No one of our subscribers who The mode of celebrating this great day reads our advertising columns carefully, with the bright hope of their being again differs with the peculiar customs of those need feel at a loss as to where to pur- united when a habitation could be erected nations that observe it, still the principal chase the many good things to make "A in the land where for the salvation of

Thomas H. Hunt has on hand a large at his destination was received at home, most fantastic dramatic representations pagne and wines of all kinds, dry goods of an infant in a craille surrounded by of all descriptions, and at the cheapest

The most useful Christmas presents are generally the most appreciated, and there is certainly nothing more useful in these It is a common tradition that Christ was days when nearly every lady is her own born about the middle of the night, and dress maker, than a good sewing mathroughout England and the Continent, chine. To get a first class one at a cheap to this day, bells are ruag at midnight. Buzby, who has been sometime in the In the Protestant districts of Germany, business and can suit all tastes. Mrs. Christmas is called the "children's festi- Buzby has on hand a large and tastefully val,"and Christmas eve is usually devoted | selected stock of faccy goods, and a visit to giving presents; especially is this the to her well arranged store will amply repay those in search of goods in her line. custom among parents and children, Quick sales and low profits is the princibrothers and sisters, and it is done by ple on which they are conducting a suc-

assortment of desirable and useful Christpraiseworthy, and what most faulty in ding delightful perfumes, toilet soaps of to a Russian seaport town, the name of that society are among the younger stumas goods and presents on hand. Inclutheir conduct during the year. This all kinds, hair, tooth and nail brushes, which is unpronounceable, where, under dents and belong principally to the would seem a rather peculiar time to in- also a fine assortment of ladies box paper. Muscovite influence, he expoused their form them of their faults, because it not pocket books, knives, &c., &c. The Dr. will be pleased to serve all who give him

Of holiday specialties a good supply at sion that would likely be made upon very low prices can be seen at D. Sprechthem when there were not so many other er's, such as raisins, currants, citron, things to engage their attention. Yet, prunes, cranberries, almonds, filbertsupon the whole we admire the manner in ons, figs and apples, candy toys, mince which this festival is celebrated by the meat, fresh honey in comb or jars, canned peaches and tomatoes and dried truits parently broken-hearted man. Sugars of all grades, and molasses the cake makers delight. Dressed turkeys ing the children. Christmas has always and chickens, and every thing necessary been a religious, domestic and merry- for a good Christmas dinner. Call and

Mr. John Day & Son have a fine assortment of Christmas goods on hand, including fresh raisins, currents, citron, almonds, fruits of all kinds, and a aum-

Mr. Julius Wosch has a choice assortment of liquors on hand for the holidays, oysters in any quantity.

H. C. Becker has a complete assortment of Genta furnishing goods and clothing on at all-nor can I even see any traces of Cromwell. After a vocal trie between hand. It will pay every body to examine past beauty." his stock when making selections for Christmas presents.

Every body should pay a visit to Dr. I. J. Martin & Sons Drug Store before finish. have on hand a fine variety of box pape- the waters. But she seems to have re audience dispersed after having spent a teries, music, &c., suitable for holiday | linquished all effort to struggle against most pleasant afternoon. presents; also a large and varied stock of the ravages of Time, and to have laid perfuriery, soaps, hair brushes, combs and aside the false adornments wherewith a all manner of toilet articles; also a num- few years ago she used to disfigure inber of writing desks, box paints &c. stead of improving her appearance. Still, several days carpenters have been at work These goods are all marked down to suit it is very sad to imagine this once peer erecting an entrance to the depot on the the times and the present condition of less beauty now changed to a laded, eld-north side next to Mr. Radelille's store, the pocket book. Call and examine their only invalid deposed from her throne of which will shorten the distance to the sta-selected to suit every taste. Andrew Kraft will take pleasure in furnishing his customers with the choicest cuts of all kinds of fresh meats, with

The "New Store," opposite O.Id Fellows' Hall, is filled with goods suitable this country, is too well known to require as cheap as the cheapest, raisins, currents, wealth has been estimated at $1,000,000, to the christmas season. Prime groceries citron, prunes, cranberries, mince meat. dried fruits, canned goods, dried corn, N. O. molasses, butter, eggs, turkeys, geese, commercial paper for friends. The basis ducks and chickens. In fact everything dreams, and festive scenes of the Christ- that can tempt the palate; also a full line mas of 1878 will be among the pleasant of notions, from which many articles can or owned, a large tract of land in the vice by eminent ministers of that denon-

Give him a call.

Messrs. Bierly Brothers and Beal Helm are both offering a fine supply of boots, shoes, gaiters and bootees of all kinds at prices to suit the times. Overshoes of all styles are displayed at both stores. Give

Albert Hermes has on hand almost everything necessary to gracefully 'dress brands of cigars, and chewing and smokin the smokers line. There is nothing better for a Christmas present to the

S5. Have any English writers of aut cheap and pretty articles he has on hand Sunday night Mt. Airy Acc. train leaves

W. W. Radeliffe, at the bridge, has his store filled with the very best selection of groceries, wines, liquors and dry goods, all of which have been selected with a careful regard to the holiday season. Edward Norris, our baker man, has a choice assortment of cakes, candies, fruits, Ss. Where did the willow pattern in &c., in his confectionery department, while The friends of the College are invited. Engleston Philip his grocery side of the house is equally as find choice reading matter, including the Progress and the Times.

A Maryiand Enoch Arden.

He Goes to the South Sea Islands, is Reported Bead and Comes Back to Find His Wife the Spouse of An.

In the year 1870, says a correspondent of the Snow Hill Messenger, a young theological student passed through the town of Newark (Worcester county) en route for the Synepuxent Bay, where, with fishing, sailing, etc., he intended to spend a few weeks with the hope of improving his health, which was very delicate, by reason of too close application to his studies.

sporting habilaments of the latest style. which gave bear an indescribably romantie appearance. While in the town he encountered a fair damsel, and through the mystical influence of love's magnetism they saw the hero and heroine of their dreams, and in the course of events they became acquainted and betrothed. Time sped on, and smoothly they journeved toward Hymen's altar where the nuptial knot was duly tied, and for a few

DWELT IN BLISSFUL BEATITUDE

But the implicable hand and duty pointed toward the path the young husband should tread, and it sent him to one of the South Sea Islands, there to spread the balm of salvation on the sins of the benighted heathen. Through delthe parting between the loving pair, though sad and sorrowful, was tinged whose people he had devoted his life. News of the young missionary's arrival

SOUL APPALLING INFORMATION the paganized maw of a benighted canni- made some brief remarks. the engagement before Kars and taken to Constantinople where through the influence of the American consul he was released, and took passage to the United and hope, and found, alss! that his wife

The Empress Eugenie.

accompanied by another lady as quietly its share of appreciation from the audi that is ?' asked my friend's companion VIII between Cromwell and Wolsey was SENATOR THURMAN HOME. -- Senator Thurman has returned to his home on Fourteenth street. His house is a large and comfortable double one near K. Onc. at no other period of the year is such an half of it is generally occupied by his son- accommodation more desirable; why not in-law, Gov. McCormick. Thurman's therefore make the improvement at once? but he is said to have made considerable losses this summer by indorsement of of this fortune was a rise in the value of recently erected at the Union factory, Washington Letter to Chicago Tribune. and deliver a sermon.

B. & O. R. R. LOCAL TIME TABLE. East.—Fred. Acc. 7.05 A. M., (Daily).; E. City Acc. 8.10 A. M., on Sunday at 9.00 A. M.; Winchester Acc. 10.12 A. M.; E. the Christmas turkey. Large, fresh prime P. M.; Mail Acc. 2.30 P. M.; Way Train, 3.04 pysters and fresh fruits and confectionary ovsters, and fresh fruits, and confectionery Acc. 6 26 P. M., (Daily). West. - Way of every sort. He is also offering choice Train arrives 5.52 A. M., leaves at 6.28 A. M.; E. City Acc. arrives at 7.05 A. ing tobacces, as well as many novelties M.; on Sunday arrives at 8 38 A. M.; Mail Acc. arrives at 8.38 A. M.; E. City Acc. arrives at 2.10 P. M.; Winchester Acc. At J. J. Lamkin & Co's, you will find a at 5.57 P. M., (Daily); Mt. Aary Acc. choice selection of dainties &c., for your arrives at 7.02 P. M., (Daily). Theatre the winter we may expect other very useful novelties suitable for presents. The rices at Ellicott City at 12.00 P. M. On Baltimore at 9.00; arrives here at 9.40.

> Rock Hill College .-- A Christmas entertainment will be given in the College Benjamin Wilber Foy Henry C Hall, on Monday, 23d inst. at 10 o'clock | Bester Charles A. M. Essays will be delivered on Cor- Commellan J F ruption in Politics, Monastic Institutions, | Dersey Oliver Journalism, and Ancient vs Modern Times. Edwards Harry

At Mrs. Brook's news depot you will Important Decision .- The Court of Appeals delivered an opinion on Saturday last, in the case of McShane Brothers of Baltimore city, vs Henry R. Hazleburst of this county, in which they reverse the decision of the Circuit Court delivered Mr. Hazleharst discovered, twenty cents as he thought, that the value of the city property had been misrepresented to him, and that he had been deceived as to the net yearly income which he alleged he was led to believe he could derive from it. He at once filed a bill in the Circuit Court, seeking to set aside the deeds which had been made, and praying for a decree making void the contract on the ground of false representations. The Messrs. McShane filed their answer denying all the allegations of the bill, and much testimony was taken on both sides. The Court here passed a decree granting the prayer of the bill setting aside the contract, and ordering case was very ably and elaborately argued | befallen him. in both Courts; Messrs. George II. Williams and James Mackubin appearing on behalf of Mr. Hezlehurst and Mr. John Carson and the late Fred. W. Brune for the Messis. McShape.

College on Wednesday evening last by the and stolen half a barrel of flour. in her father's mansion, and was woed, the editor and his numerous contributors work. won and wed to a young commercial to say that their different productions traveler for a New York house. Subse- were marked by unusual ability, and their quent events went to prove that the re- general style fully illustrated their motto port of the young missionary's death, Labor Omnia Vincet; and it is but though coming through so reliable a truth to affirm that they reflected equal source, was false. Under one of the credit upon professors and pupils. The miraculous interventions of Providence exercises occupied about two hours, which he escaped in a canoe and drifting far in the opinion of all who were present out on the sea, determining rather to seek | were pleasantly and instructively spent. a grave in its peaceful depths than to fill At the close of the exercises Dr. Keene

bal. He had been on the weary waste The entertainment given by the Bayley Dr. Middleton, druggist, has a large of waters three days, and was well-nigh Literary Society of the College on the passing on his checks, when a Russian following afternoon was a complete success whaler picked him up and carried him in every way. The members composing junior departments of the College, and cause against the Turk, was captured in the excellent manner in which they rendered their well selected programme was specially complimentary to them. The exercises opened with the Bayley Grand March by the band, which was followed States. Arriving in New York he has by Scott's Lochinvar, very well recited by tened hither with a lover's impetuosity Bernard V. Sims. After a chorus by the Glee Club there came the touching scene had flown-he knew not whither. A from Shakespeare between Prince Arther few evenings since he left Newark an apand Hubert by John Withers and Albert E. Devine, both of whom acted their respective parts in a praiseworthy manner. Master Alex. Mosher as 1st Attendant had but little to do, but did that I recently had a description of another little well. Milanollo March by the Ornoted royal personage from an American | chestra was followed by a humorous readlady who saw her this summer at Ems | ing by Edward Rennert in which he was Walking in the woods one day, my friend | most happy, and evinced much talent for met a pale, elderly lady, in the plainest of so young a reader. A piano solo by John through its silver, was put back plainly zini, both received well deserved applause. under a simple hat of black straw. She Then came a waltz by the band, A Parawas very lame, and was evidently suffer. phrase by Frank Thomas, and the Sleigh ing extremely from rheumatism. She was Ride by the Junior Choir, each receiving as they passed. "No," was the answer, especially well rendered by Edward Day. "Do you think she is handsome?" "Not er as Wolsey and James B. Gardiner as A. Mosher and E. and R. Rennert, Antony Yet that lady was once hailed as the Antelotti read Christmas Eve and made loveliest woman in Europe - it is the Em- | a brief and clever address of thanks to the press Eugenie. She was living in the audience, very appropriate in its allusions quietest possible manner at Ems, and be- to the coming holiday season. The exerfore she left she was much benefited by cises were closed by the band and the Railroad Improvement .- Fer holiday stock which has been especially triumphant loveliness as from the throne tion for persons coming from the Baltimore France .- Paris Letter to Phila. Telegraph. county side. We are informed that in the spring the company intend rooling the entire platform on both sides of the track and furnishing the same with acits for passengers. Winter is now here, and

> Dedicatory Services .- On To morrow (Sunday) the new M. P. Church

Bramatic Entertainment .-- The noticed, were happy selections, and in ted to be present. their performance evidences of amateur talent were shown very creditable to respective roles. The stage was resees on amateur stages. Where each acted lovers of the weed, then a box of havanas. At J. J. Lamkin & Co's, you will find a at 5.57 P. M.; Winchester Acc. arrives Patapsco Dramatic Association has effect. The holidays.

> Postoffice, Ellicott City, for the week ending Saturday, December 21st, 1878.

entertaining performances.

Finnegan Mrs Julia Kain Sarah Lumkins Mrs Jane Marshall Miss Williams Sarah F

Persons calling for the above letters will please say they are advertised. JAS. G. KIRKWOOD, P. M.

Entertainment at Union .-On Wodnesday evening next the pupils of Public School No. 9, will give an eufor this county, from which the case tertainment in the church room over the was appealed. Sometime since Mr. Ha- store at Union. The programme will conzlehuist made an exchange with the sist of dialogues, recitations, tableaux as important business is to be transacted. Messrs. McShane of his valuable estate and vocal and instrumental music. The known as "Mt. Hebron" not fir from this proceeds will be devoted to purposes of city, for some Baltumore city property be- the school. Miss Sallie O'Philipps is longing to the latter gentlemen. Soon principal of the school and Miss Mar; K. after the deeds had been executed and Holden assistant. Admission ten and

Paralyzed. - One day last week, reconveyances of the property to be made Mr. James Freakle, of the fifth district Patapaco Family.................. 85.75 between the parties. From that decision in this county, had a partial stroke of the Messrs. McShane appealed and the paralysis, from the effects of which, at appellate Court has reversed the decree last accounts, he was but slowly recoverwith costs, and dismissed the bill filed by ing. Mr. Treakle is widely known, not the complainant. The deeds first made, only in his own county, but throughout therefore, retain their effect and the con- the entire State. His friends will learn tract between the parties holds good. The with regret this sud affliction which has

Robbery at Carroll's Mill.-On Thursday night of last week an entrance was effected into the store of Mr. O'Donnell at Carroll's Mill. The noise was heard by Mrs. O'Donnell, her hus-Literary Entertainments at band being absent in Baltimore, and giv-Rock Hill College.-We regret our ing an alarm the thieves fled without obinability to have been present at the lit- taming any plunder. Previously they erary entertainment given at Rick Hill had entered the mill at the same place

Improvement. - Our citizens livliterary treat which our young friends had contributed to the repair of the steps prepared for them. The leading feature and improvement of the walk leading that he had been killed, ecoked and esten of the entertainment was the reading of from the depot to the summit of that by the people whom he was trying to the Collegian -a journal on which our hill, through the Patapseo Hotel proplead to eternal felicity. The shock well own editorial apprenticeship commenced, city, now have the pleasure of using nigh sent the widow to an early grave. and of which Francis DeS. Benzinger is that route without danger to neck or But, rallying she again resumed her place now editor in chief. It is but justice to limbs. John Gross, carpenter, did the

> Hours of Service. - On Christmas A. M.; Children's entertainment at 3

Presentation .- On Monday evea few remarks, by way of thanks, after which the gathering spent sometime in pleasant conversation.

Morgan Switch Improvement. The railroad company has made several improvements at Morgan's Switch for which passengers using that station feel thankful. A new station house of ornamental design has been erected and the platform enlarged and otherwise made convenient.

Election of Officers .-- At a regular communication of Patmos Lodge, No.

The Railroad Offices will be closed on Christmas day from 10.15 A. M. till 2 o'clock P. M., and from 2 80 till 4.30 o'clock P. M. The Postoffice will be closed from 10.15 M. till 3.30 o'clock P. M.

Sale of Property. - On Saturday last, John G. Rogers, attorney for the heirs of the late Thomas Brass, sold a house and lot, situated at Gray's factory, Baltimore county, to Nicholas Lauman, Replaced .- The city lamps stolen a few weeks ago on the New Cut road have been replaced, and the denizens in that locality will again enjoy the convenience they afford.

Railrond Accident. - On Tuesday, engine 25, way train, broke its machinery at the Union bridge and another engine was despatched to continue the of this city has been appointed one of the Dec. 21-3ts. guards at the House of Correction.

Installation .- Public Installation entertainment given on Tuesday evening of the officers of Limestone Valley Grange last by the Patapsco Dramatic Associa- No. 7 will be held at Liuthicum Chapel, tion was well attended, and very much near Clarksville, on Jan. 2nd 1879 at enjoyed by all who were present. The 2 o'clock P. M. The occasion is to be plays, both of which have been previously one of unusual interest, and all are invi-both the ladies and gentlemen, in their Fair and Festival .- The ladies of the First Lutheran Church of this city, markably well arranged, and the scenic are holding a fair and festival in the effect very much better than one usually building formerly occupied by Mr. Collier as a tin-ware store. A full line of so well his par special comment would be goods, usually for sale at a fair, will be Etunaways. - On Sunday seven boys excaped from the House of Refuge. One of them was caught near this city, and List of Letters remaining in the while being taken to the police he cscaped and was not afterwards captured.

> Departure of the Governor .-On Thursday His Excellency Governor John Lee Carroll and family left their home at the Maner for the Executive Mansion in Annapolis.

Personal .- Dr. Maclin, an estecmed citizen of this county, we regret to hear, is lying very ill at his residence in the 5th district.

day evening next it is desirable to have a large turnout of the members of the Club.

Byron Literary Club. - On Mon-

Accident .- On Thurday Mr. Richard Lilly, living at Gray's factory, was $2.00 Per Auntin and severely cut about the head.

Postmaster Appointed.-Thos. F. Lansdaie has been appointed postmaster at Triadelphia, Montgomery county, vice Thomas Lansdale, deceased.

ELLICOTT CITY RETAIL MARKETS. CORRECTED WEEKLY BT

J. J. LAMKIN & CO. ELLICOTT CITY, Friday Dec. 20, 1373. FLOUR.

Extra. 6.50
Chesapeake 6.25
Orange Grove Extra. 6.60 Severn Mills " 4.55 Cataden Super. 3.40

Printing.

On December 12th, 1878, by Rev. J. H. M. Lemmon, of Emery M. E. Church, next two years, local, State, and SARAH A. WOLFE, of Thistle.

M. Lemmon, DAVID EMERSON MILES, of Baltimore County, to Miss CATHER. news, together with the comments of INE GILES, of Eivsville.

above city. [Annapolis papers please readers of THE TIMES.

New Advertisements.

By virtue of the power vested in me as late Collector of State and County Taxes, in the First Collection District of Howard County, I have seized and taken in execution all that lot or parcel of land belonging to the heirs of day service will be held in the different churches as follows: St. Peter's P. E. Baltimore and Frederick town Turnpike road Church, Litany and Celebration at S A.
M., Morning Prayer and Second Celebration at 11 A. M. St. Pau's Catholic Church, 5, 8 and 10 30 A. M. St. John's for the same on the southermest side of the B. Service at 11 A. M. Emory M. P. E., Service at 11 A. M. Emory M. Baltimore and Frederick Turnpike road at a E. Church, Prayer Meeting at 6 o'clock point distant one hundred and thirty-two feet north 67 degrees and 31 minutes cast from what was formerly the northeast corner of a frame stable and running thence north 67 deurnpike road twenty-three feet, then soutl 23 degrees cast seventy-eight feet, then south ly maintain what it believes to be ning last Rev. Chas. O. Isaac of this city, 67 degrees 39 minutes west parallel with the right and as fearlessly condemn north 23 degrees west seventy-eight feet to set of china, about fifty pieces, by the la dies of the M. E. congregation at the Union hending the lot which is distinguished on a Works. The surprised gentlemen made plat of property there situated, lately belonging to the late Andrew McLaughlin by the number 23; and will sell the same or so much thereof as may be necessary, on the prem-

> Saturday, January 11, 1879, at 12 o'clock M., to the highest bidder for cash, for the payment of taxes overdue and owing by the said heirs of the late Jacob David for the year 1577.

REZIN HOPKINS. Late Collector of Taxes, 1st Collection Dist. of Howard Co.

Sec., James W. Thompson; Treas., S. W. come; obstacles have risen up like monsters in our pathway; opposition has met us on every side; still we are holding the fort. And as we side; still we are notding the lost. And as we look forward to the close of 1878, we feel duty bound to make preparations to meet the responsibilities devolving upon us; and in order to meet these obligations we appeal to all who are indebted to us, whether it be ten cents or ten dollars, to come forward and settle. Our debts must, and shall be liquidated.

We have made many specificus and descined

We have made many sacrifices and deprived ourselves of many pleasures to keep our busi ourselves of many preasures to keep our business up and accommodate our patrons. All we ask in return is what justly belongs to us. If we all could realize how important and essential it is for our own good and happiness to promptly settle our accounts, how many sleepless nights would be spent in peaceful slumber; how smoothly would our frail bark glide over the ocean of life, free from auxiety, care and mental excitement! Stidden Death.—On Tuesday morning, Miss Georgiana Smith, a young lady living at the Union factory, was considered to the late of the late found dead in her bel. The deceased had been sick for sometime, but her sudden death was unexpected.

our deamings here below, then it is put into found dead in her bel. The deceased practice the golden rule: "Do unto others even as you would have them do unto you;" for we are commanded to deal honestly with

We feel grateful to all who have favored us with past patrouage, and carnestly solicit a continuation of the same, feeling sure that we can give satisfaction in every particular. Wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, we remain

Yours truly, J. J. LAMKIN & CO.

TURNPIKE NOTICE.

Appointment.—Mr. John Mayfield of this city has been appointed one of the guards at the House of Correction.

The Stockholders of the Ellicott City and Claracylle Turnpike Company are requested to meet at Clarksylle, on MONDAY, JAN. 9, 1870, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of electing seven directors to serve for the cusuing year. By order, JOHN R. CLARK, President. S. K. GEORGE, Secretary.

Dec. 21-31s.

FOR

1879.

The Ellicott City Times

AND

HOWARD COUNTY ADVERTISER.

A Democratis Weekly Journal, deveted to the Interests of the Poople of Howard County.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY

AT

IN ADVANUE.

Now is the time to subscribe and o renew your subscriptions for 1879

The publishers desire to make THE TIMES for the coming New 6.25 Year more interesting and useful than ever before, and to accomplish that end they rely upon the cooperation and support of the citizens of the County.

The political campaigns of the National, will be particularly im-On December 12th, 1878, by Rev. J. H. portant and interesting. All the the leading Journals and the views In Baltimore on Dec. 15th, 1878, by Rev. G. W. Cooper, JOHN R. DOWELL to Miss AGNES E. BALDWIN, all of the country will be furnished to the > Special attention will be given to the local affairs of the county.

The miscellaneous reading mater will be selected with care.

Nothing objectionable, nothing ensational, nothing sectarian and nothing personal shall find a place in our columns.

THE TIMES will labor earnestly to promote the success of the Democratic party, because it believes that in the success of that party rests the salvation and prosperity of our country; but it will at all times fearlesswhat it believes to be wrong.

THE TIMES has the largest circulation of any paper in Howard County, and is invaluable as an advertising medium.

To any person sending us the names of five new subscribers aocompanied with the money voo will mail a copy of the TIMES free for one year.

To any person sending us the 70, A. F. A. M., held on Tucsday night last, the following officers were elected: W. M., P. M. Hugh Bone; S. W., P. M. Alexander Bone; J. W., George Dykes; Sec., James W. Thompson: Treas. S. W. names of ten now subscribers for of either Scribner's Monthly Magazine, the Galaxy or Harper's Magazine as they may select, and also a copy of the TIMES.

> Now is the time to make up Clubs for 1879.

All Styles of Job Work DONE WITH NEATNESS, PROMPT-NESS AND AT THE LOW - EST PRICES.

ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO

THE TIMES,

ELLICOTT CITY, Md.