

GENERAL SUMMARY.

MONDAY.

In the United States Senate, Saturday, a communication was received from the Secretary of the Treasury, enclosing the draft of a bill for regulating the exportation of live animals.

The proposed international regatta at Geneva depends wholly upon the assent of some American crews to participate. If this is accomplished crews will start from England, France, Germany and Austria, and a grand regatta, it is confidently expected, will result.

An Alabama poultry fancier has obtained a beautiful fowl by a cross between a guinea and a turkey, and ought to be able to produce something new by crossing a trade dollar and a woodcock.

The Columbia College freshmen have accepted the Harvard freshmen challenge for a three-mile four oared boat race.

In the United States Senate, yesterday, Mr. Edmunds presented a bill from the judiciary committee to further protect the constitutional rights of citizens and to punish violations of the same.

The House, the bill for the relief of Maggie Barron and others, on account of supplies taken by the Union army, was laid on the table—yesterday, 67 yeas, 67 nays.

The remains of the late General R. R. Chilton, adjutant general to General R. E. Lee, were buried in Hollywood Cemetery, at Richmond, Va., Saturday, after funeral services at St. Paul's Church.

The Western Union telegraph operator at Topeka, Kansas, being in custody for refusing to produce before the legislative committee certain dispatches in his custody, his case excites renewed interest.

Col. Wm. R. Ross, formerly a famous stage driver and expressman, died in Providence, R. I., Saturday night. When Jenny Lind visited Providence he paid $653 for first choice of seat.

Ex-President Grant is at Allahabad, (the City of God), in Hindostan.

The United States Senate, yesterday, passed the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to accept the ship "Albatross" for exploration purposes.

In the House the Senate amendments to the revenue bill were considered, and those providing for the taxation of retail and wholesale dealers, striking out the clause abolishing the tax on matches, and exempting insolvent banks from taxation under certain circumstances, were concurred in and a conference committee was appointed.

The United States Senate, which remained in session all Monday night, adjourned at 4:35 yesterday morning, after passing the bill to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases, etc.

In the House a resolution was reported from the committee on elections declaring L. S. Metcalf, sitting member from the third Missouri district, entitled to his seat.

Beaconsfield never forgets an affront, but he is patient. His favorite author is Holingsbroke. His voice is loud and grating, unless he warms, and then he grows beautiful.

At Chicago Madame Exelsis is busily engaged in successfully completing the task of walking in addition to the 2,700 quarter miles in as many quarter hours, 300 quarter miles in 300 consecutive periods of ten minutes each.

—Minnie Hank is naturally docile and tractable and kind. The mischief with her seems to be that she is in love with a blond cavalier who parts his hair in the middle.

—We are glad to learn that Mr. Evans is not entirely unconnected with the present Administration. As long as Bill Chandler is free to roam around the back of a coal, clear-headed professor of law and order—Atlantic Constitution.
