A publication of the Navy List for 1879 shows that out of 1,668 officers, less than one-half are at sea. Of the rest 523 are doing land service of one kind and another, and about one man in eight is doing nothing. Of those doing "sea service" a large share spend their time on vessels securely anchored in some pleasant harbor in the Mediterranean, where their craft is usually undergoing repairs.

In the Senate and House, Monday, bills were introduced to take the piace of the political by the Circuit Court for lioward County to section of the recently defeated Army Approvalue and divide the real estate in the proceedpriation bill and referred. Miss Hewitt, daughter of Mr. Abram S. Hewitt, of New York, arrived at Fortress Mouroe on Tuesday morning, in company with Mr. C. L. Perkins and wife, and was screnaded in the evening by the band of the artillery school. The proceedings of Congress Thursday were devoid of special interest. In the Senate Mr. Morgan made a lengthy speech in favor of the bill to prohibit military inference at the polis, and Mr Edmunds had the floor for a speech on the same subject yesterday. In the House the bill to enforce the law making eight hours a day's wirk for government employes was killed by the adoption of a motion to lay it on the table. The remainder of the session was spent in debate on the bill to amend the laws relating to coinage and coin and bultion.
