To the Taxpayers of Howard County.
Whereas, The depressed condition of prices for all agricultural products as well as the shrinkage in all values, render the high rate of taxes now being paid by the people of Maryland burdensome in the extreme, and in our judgment demand reduction.

In pursuance of these objects the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Howard County Grange, and the taxpayers of the county are earnestly solicited to cooperate for the accomplishment of the above named object.

Resolved, By Howard County Grange, this 8th day of March, 1879, that a County Convention of the taxpayers of Howard County be held at the Court House, on Saturday, May 24th, 1879, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of devising means for the reduction and curtailment of our County and State expenses and thereby reduce taxation.
