GENERAL SUMMARY.

The United States Senate, Saturday, discussed and refused by 20 to 21 to modify Mr. Vest's silver resolution. The marshals' bill was opposed by several republicans. Their amendments were, however, rejected, and the bill passed by a vote.

The House amended and passed the bill to exempt canal boats from a license fee and a resolution for the appointment of commissioners to make a new treaty with Mexico. Messrs Herbert and Gibson made personal explanations, denouncing a report that they had made a bargain with the republicans.

On Saturday last, at daybreak, 3,000 men went to work changing the gauge of the St. Louis, Iron Mountains and Southern railway, and before night the entire line, extending from St. Louis to Texarkana, nearly 700 miles, had been changed from five feet the standard gauge to 4 feet 8½ inches. The locomotives and cars having already been altered, traffic under the new order of things will proceed without hindrance.

The New York police held the liquor saloons under strict, espionage Sunday. Some forty or fifty saloon keepers and bar tenders were arrested.

The Russian authorities are trying to quell the disturbing effect of false reports about a redistribution of land - forty acres and a mule, as it were.

San Domingo will be blockaded if the Dominican government refuses to give satisfaction to Spain.

The body of Prince Napolean will be brought from Africa on the British troopship Orontes.

Minister Noyes gave a dinner to "Old Probabilities" in Paris Saturday night.

In the United States Senate, Monday, Mr. Vest's silver resolution was referred to the finance committee on appropriations, reported a joint resolution to adjourn sine die at 4 P. M. Monday, but, Mr. Windom objecting, the resolution went over until to-day. A message was read from the President calling attention to "the failure of Congress to appropriate money for the necessities of the government." The same message was also read in the House. Mr. Chandler, of Michigan, made a speech in denunciation of the democrat party. The Senate, by a vote of 27 to 18, indefinitely postponed a bill offered by Mr. Windom, which was the marshals' appropriation bill, minus the political clauses.

In the House, a message was received from the President approving the judicial expenses bill; also a message vetoing the United States marshals' bill. The House then voted on a motion to pass the bill over the President's veto, which resulted yeas 83, nays 63; so the motion failed the necessary two-thirds not voting in the affirmative. A bill was passed putting salts of quinine and sulphate of quinine on the free list. The House refused—yeas 61, nays 83—to suspend the rules and pass the marshals' bill shorn of its political clauses.

Commencement week began at the University of Virginia on Sunday, when the Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim, of New York, formerly of Baltimore, preached a sermon before the Y. M. C. A. on the person of Christ and modern unbelief. Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, and Chaplain Woodfin, of the university, assisted in the services. During the session just closed there have been 365 students, representing 25 States, in attendance, Maryland contributing 17.

The venerable George Bancroft, the historian, while riding out Sunday afternoon at Newport, R. I., was thrown from his saddle by the stumbling of the horse. Fortunately he was but slightly injured. He was unable, however, to resume his place in the saddle. It will be remembered that Mr. Bancroft was thrown out of his carriage last season and seriously injured.

The President has nominated Colonel Horatio G. Wright to be chief of engineers, with the rank of brigadier general, vice General Humphreys, retired at his own request.

Forty-eight liquor dealers, arrested in New York Sunday for violating the excise law, have been held in $100 bail each to appear for trial.

The Louisiana Savings Bank of New Orleans has gone into liquidation.

Upon the assembling of the United States Senate, Tuesday, a resolution was adopted by a vote of 27 to 16 (a party vote) to adjourn at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon. House bill to repeal the duty on quinine was passed by a viva voce vote, and afterwards approved by the President By a vote of 30 to 13 the Senate passed House joint resolution providing thirty days' extra pay for House employes. Resolutions recognizing the ability and impartiality of Vice-President Wheeler and Hon. A. G. Thurman, president pro tem, as presiding officers, were unanimously adopted. A committee to wait upon the President having reported that he had no further communication to send to the Senate, Mr. Thurman returned his thanks briefly to the Senators, and then, at five P. M., declared the Senate to be adjourned without day.

The House by a vote of 93 to 65, a party vote, concurred in Senate resolution to adjourn sine die, at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Both Houses passed a resolution to pay L. H. Fitzhugh $1,250 for services as doorkeeper during the Forty-fourth Congress. The hour of five o'clock having arrived, Speaker Randall returned his thanks as presiding officer to members of every political division for their uniform kindness and courtesy, and then declared the House adjourned without day.

Hanlan, the oarsman, sailed from Liverpool for America Tuesday on the steamer City of Chester.

The seizure of the Lanterne newspaper in Paris has raised a storm against the perfect of police.

The platform of the California democratic convention, which met at Sacramento Tuesday, declares that the democratic party, being the only party which has always obeyed and maintained the federal constitution, is therefore the only one that can be trusted to administer the new organic law of the State; condemns Chinese immigration; favors legislative control of corporations and the regulations of freights and fares; declares that this is an indissoluble Union of indestructible States, and that any attempt of the federal government to interfere with elections in the States is dangerous to the liberties of the people; condemns the odious election laws of republican origin, and denounces "the repeated abuses of the veto power by Rutherford B. Hayes, sitting as the executive officer of the government, in defeating the will of the people as expressed by Congress." Hugh J. Glenn, nominee of the new constitution party, was nominated for Governor by acclamation.

Mr. Justice Mellor who lately retired from the English bench, strongly objected, of late years, to mustaches worn by lawyers. He was quite deaf and heard as much with his eyes as ears, and they interfered with his understanding what was said.

Grasshoppers have done considerable damage to a small section along the Sioux valley Iowa, but all reports give the crop prospects as very flattering.

Annie R. Scaggs
vs
William W. Scaggs.

In the Circuit Court for Howard County, In Equity.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii, for the complainant Annie R. Scaggs from the defendant William W. Scaggs, and for alimony for the said complainant, and for maintenance and support of George O. Scaggs, the infant child of the said complainant and defendant, and for such counsel fees as may be deemed right and proper by this Court for conducting this suit, and for an injunction against the said William W. Scaggs enjoining and strictly prohibiting him from attempting to convey away or in any manner dispose of any interest, claim or right, which he has in and to the real estate of any part of the real estate which Alfred Scaggs, late of Howard County, deceased, died, seized and possessed of. The Bill states that on the 28th day of January, A. D. 1875, the said William W. Scaggs was legally married to Annie R. Marlow, both of whom then resided in said Howard County; that the said complainant and defendant lived together for a few months thereafter, when the said defendant abandoned the said complainant without cause, and went to the city of Wheeling in the State of West Virginia, and has never since returned to the complainant, nor in any manner contributed to the support of the complainant, nor to the maintenance and support of their said infant child, and that the said defendant as one of the children and heirs at law of Alfred Scaggs, late of Howard County, deceased, is entitled to an one-eighth undivided part of the real estate of which the said Alfred Scaggs, died, seized and possessed, in said Howard County, and that the complainant believes said abandonment and desertion to be final and beyond reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

It is thereupon this 24th day of June, A. D. 1879, adjudged and ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Ellicott City, Howard County, once a week for four successive weeks before the 24th day of July, 1879, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this Bill, and warn him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the first Monday of December, 1879, to answer the premises and show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

L. J. WATKINS, Clerk.
