A Cyclopedia for 810.00,-Perhaps the most remarkable literary enterprise of the time is the publication of the Library of Universal Knowledge, in 20 volumes of nearly 1,000 pages each, handsomely bound, for 50 cents per volume, or $10 00 for the set. It is a reprint entire of the last (1879)Edinburgh and London edition of Chambers' Encyclopedia: A Dictionary of Universal Knowledge for the People, with very large additions upon topics of special interest to American readers. The amount of matter will somewhat exceed that of the Cyclopedias of Appleton or Johnson, though the price is but a fraction of their cost. Volume one is to be ready early in September, and the others will follow at very short intervals. The remarkably low prices are accounted for by the method of sale, to the subscribers direct, saving them the large commission, often 50 or 60 per cent., paid to agents or dealers; also, by the recent great reduction in the cost of making books, and by making very large sales.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine for coptember .- This exceedingly interesting publication comes to us as bright, fresh and lively as ever, richly freighted with choice, entertaining, and altogether delightful reading-matter. Among the illustrated papers are another of Mr. Guernsey's on the Persecutions-the subject, Persecutions of the Lollards-and containing sketches of the notable Pontiffs Gregory IX., Gregory X., Celestine V., and Boniface VIII. The Zani Legend, Major Calhoun; The Jains of India; Lavalette's Escape from Prison; Chivalry and Knighthood, etc., are admirable articles. Among the stories worthy of particular mention are Rush and Reaction, by Rev. Mr. Baker Arthur Moreland's Fortune ; A Thorny Rath; Reuben Holmes's Faith, etc., etc. The oems are original, and possess unusual merit, fully sustaining the reputation which this magazine has won for itself in this department of literature. The more strictly religious papers include Remember, by Thomas A. Hoyt, D. D.; The Ivalid's Portion; a sernon by the Editor on the subject, Secret mon by the Editor on the subject, Secret Discipleship; Popular Exegesis, etc., etc. in the editorial department the editor discusses various timely subjects, among the rest Elegant Simplicity, The Boys at the Springs, Egotism, Meekness, Tapping the Wicels, etc. "At Home and Abroad contains and the supplier of the sup Springs, Egotism, Meekness, Tapping the Wheels, etc. "At Home and Abroad contains a full summary of important events transpiring in the religious world. There is also a comprehensive and most interesting miscellany.
