—A barbecue and pic-nic was held at Darley Park, Baltimore county, Thursday, by the friends of Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton for Governor of the State. There were about three hundred people present including a number of ladies. The entertainment commenced with the roasting whole of an ox, weighing 1,100 pounds, which was slaughtered by William Wilhelm, assisted by Henry Saunders, colored. While the cooking of the ox was going on the assemblage amused themselves by dancing, tenpin rolling, &c. The ox was served out in the afternoon. After the feast was enjoyed a mass-meeting was organized in the grounds, with the following officers; President, George H. Carman; vice-presidents, Edward Ryder, Eli Stansbury, John Q. Codling, S. J. Robinson, Wm. H. Collins, Charles M. Waters, John Harris and Dr. James C. Larsh; secretaries, John Grason, James W. Berry, and James C. Harrison.

Mr. Carman addressed the meeting in favor of Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton as the choice of the whole people of the State for the next Governor, and also eulogized Messrs. Gwinn, Keating and Jones, the other candidates on the State ticket. He urged that there should be no local dissensions in Baltimore county, but that a large majority for the whole democratic ticket, of State and county officers, should be given next fall.
