

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Honorable Montgomery Blair, in conversation with the Baltimore Sun correspondent, said that the Kellys in New York, it could not be more certain that gentlemen's advantage, than it is in Maryland. He has no idea that Kelly will have more than a contemptible following when the day of election comes around, and the whole affair, according to his view, will only tend to help what he thinks will be certain at any rate, the nomination of Mr. Tilden by the next Democratic convention. Judge Blair says he is not just now taking any personal interest in Maryland politics, but he has no doubt that Mr. Gorman is desirous of getting into the United States Senate. In regard to Judge Blair's views as to the effect of the Kelly revolt, it is interesting to know that a very shrewd republican politician who has for a long time been active in national politics, and who arrived from New York on Sunday, holds the same opinion. He says that there is nothing more certain in politics than the adherents of any leader will fall largely from him when they know that defeat is inevitably awaiting them. For this reason, he says, Mr. Kelly could not possibly have conducted a more foolish act than to get up and proclaim to the host of Tammany and all that he could expect was to defeat Robinson. The Tammany masses take no interest in Mr. Kelly's personal quarrels with Mr. Tilden and Gov. Robinson. All that Mr. Kelly is to them is as the dispenser of crumbs of patronage. Therefore, as the politician addressed sagely remarks, who Mr. Kelly considers himself in advance that he hopes to accomplish in the satisfaction of his private animosity, that affords no prospect of material advantage to them for throwing their votes away, and they will make haste to enroll themselves with the Tilden and Robinson forces, where they may expect something, perhaps, after all, it did not need Mr. Kelly's admission that his followers could anticipate no substantial fruits from adhering to him. He saw how Mr. Kelly was defeated in the local elections of last fall through the influence of Mr. Tilden, and the densely ignorant among them could not fail to realize that if Mr. Kelly preferred a republican Governor to Robinson, Mr. Tilden and Mr. Robinson would prefer a republican local success to that of Mr. Kelly. Judge Garvey, of the Baltimore City Court, on Tuesday quashed a bond writ in a replevin case in the City Court because of technical errors in the bond. He said it was a hard case that where property had been taken possession of under a writ of replevin, it might be wrongfully and the party security the person from whom the property was taken, has, is the bond given, yet when the writ is issued on there can be no recovery because of some technical error in the bond, as a wrong Christian name, for instance. He said the law ought to allow the court to permit amendment of the bond in such cases. He suggested such a law as being needed, especially, and in the law reform spirit of the time.

Gen. Grant visited the California Theatre, in San Francisco, Monday night, and witnessed the military spectacle entitled "The Color Guard." The building was packed, and the General, on his appearance in the box, was greeted with uproarious applause. The play was magnificently put upon the stage, and the appearance of the second act, the orchestra played the "Army Quadrille," dedicated to Gen. Grant. He was afterwards serenaded at his hotel.

The Cumberland Times says: "There is said to be 400 Swiss who propose settling in Garrett county shortly, and we are informed that the first installment has arrived and are making preparations for the reception of the others."

Gen. Grant and his party attended Tuesday night the grand ball of the police department at San Francisco in aid of the Widows and Orphans' Aid Association. A box ornamented with the national colors was prepared for the reception of the guests, who were received with cheers by the company assembled. Wednesday morning before going to Black Point the General received a number of former residents of Glenaca.

"So glad" our republican friends are so glad of the progress our party is making in 1879. It had all along been our impression that the Republican party, a minority party in 1876, had been becoming more and more a minority party in 1879. So confident, however, are our republican friends that we really must take down our trusty almanac and pencil and figure it out, let us simply we should all this time have been leaning on a broken reed. There have been elections this year in the following States:

California, Kentucky, Maine, Michigan, Rhode Island, four of these five States are Republican strongholds, two of the four being the headquarters of three eminent Republican party leaders, Messrs. Blaine and Zach Chandler. At the election for President in 1876 the following was the total vote, Republican vote and Republican percentage of the total vote in these States:

Table with 3 columns: State, Total vote, For Reps. P. Ct. California: 155,777; 79,269; 50.93. Kentucky: 239,908; 121,546; 50.72. Maine: 117,497; 60,500; 51.51. Michigan: 317,821; 166,831; 52.52. Rhode Island: 20,627; 15,787; 50.29.

In 1879 the following was the total vote of each of these States, according to the fullest returns we have, and the total Republican vote:

Table with 3 columns: State, Total vote, Reps vote. California: 155,777; 85,818. Kentucky: 239,908; 121,546. Maine: 117,497; 60,500. Michigan: 317,821; 166,831. Rhode Island: 20,627; 15,787.

We will next compare with the vote which the Republicans should have brought out if they had maintained their strength of 1876 that which they really cast, indicating the increase or decrease in 1879:

Table with 3 columns: State, 1876, 1879. California: 155,777; 85,818. Kentucky: 239,908; 121,546. Maine: 117,497; 60,500. Michigan: 317,821; 166,831. Rhode Island: 20,627; 15,787.

In other words, in but one of the five States that have held elections this year has the Republican party held a majority compared with 1876; in two others a majority three years ago it possessed a majority it is now in a minority of the popular vote; in a fourth where it still preserves a majority that majority has been decreased, and in the fifth, where it was already in a hopeless minority, its minority is more hopeless than ever. Just as we thought!
