Republican candidate for the State Senate, and promised by him to be gotten out of jail should they be taken there. Mr. Adams redeemed his promise on Thursday by appearing before Justice Cook, of this city, and offering himself as bondsman for the men. He was accepted and they were released on $200 bail in each case. A SECOND OUTRAGE of a similar character occurred on Tuesday night last at Guilferd, also in the 6th dist., where a meeting of colored Democrats was in progress and being addressed by Mr. Isreal of Baltimore City. The meeting was attacked by a gang of Republican negroes and many of the persons present severely beaten. At 9.30 on Sunday night last a party of tramps boarded Capt. Aldridge's freight train, bound east, at Mount Airy, cut the caboose loose from the train and robbed it, taking the conductor's clothing, tickets, time-book and punch, leaving their old clothing at Mount Airy. The conductor at the time of the robbery was putting down the brakes. The tramps, after taking all they could find in the car, started it down the road. Capt. Aldridge, seeing his caboose coming, had the presence of mind to cut his rear car loose, thereby preventing a smash-up. The tramps made good their escape.
