On response to a circular calling for information as to the local names of places supplied from the delivery of the respective pestoffices throughout the country, a letter was received at the Postoffice Department to-day from Roswell Beardsley, postmaster at North Lansing, N. Y., in which he incidentally mentions that he has held that office for over fifty-one years The record of the department being thereupon examined, it was found that Mr. Beardstey was commissioned June 28, 1828. This disposes of the paragraph now going the rounds which refers to Edward Stabler, of Sandy Springs, Md, as the oldest postmaster in the service. His commusion was signed by Andrew Jackson in December, 1830. John Wilson, of Plato, III., is the oldest postmaster west of the Allegany mountains. He was appointed in 1840.

The amount of grain received at Chicago during October was larger than for the corresponding month of any previous year, and $,718 cars more than in October, 1878. There were 33,405 cars of grain inspected and 1,030,750 bushels received by the canal without inspection. The amount of grain received at Chicago during the year ended October 31 was several million bushels more than that received the previous year. The Communist vote in Chicago at last Tuesday's election decreased over 6. 000 compared with last years election. This is one of the results of the return of prosperous times.

WEDNESDAY.

During the passage of Gen. Grant and party through Galesburg, 111, the other day, the General was called out on the platform of his car and just as he Legan to speak three eggs were thrown at him by some vile sneaks in the crowd. One of the eggs hit the general on the back of the head, the other two struck persons in the crowd The neaver of Galesburg, who was in the car, at once came out and on the part of the city offered $500 reward for the apprehension of the throwers. Gen. Grant was very indign int at the outrage, but said that he did not blame G desburg or its people, and that it's mply was evidence that ill-bred rufflians live in every community. The crowd were greatly infuriated and tried to find the wretches, but without success.

A trick played upon a Southerner, who was a passenger on board the Gallia, from Liverpool to New York, while he was asleep in the smoking room last Saturday, came very near resulting in a tragedy.
