utensils, etc.

young ladies.

in Baltimore.

from Granite.

many friends.

tent in this community.

convenient and very artistic in appear-

The grip is abating to a very great ex-

Items from Woodbine.

rison, a son of Wesley Harrison,

his train was standing at Bartholow's, struck by a west bound train. He was

Items from Granite.

pneumonia on the 4th inst. Mrs. Cavey, their father, who is critically ill.

No bones were broken.

WOODBINE, Jan. 21.-Andrew Har-

A MASON HONORED.

A JEWEL PRESENTATION TO PAST MASTER GEORGE B. SCHILLINGER.

The Honor Conferred by Patmos Lodge. Ellicott City, at Its Last Regular Communication-The Week's Round-up of Local News-Death of Mr. James Perkius -Will of Miss Hannah B. Gaither.

At the regular communication of Patlicott City, held on Tuesday evening caused his death, although he could not was presented with a Past Master's jewel end was nigh. by the brethren of the lodge. The jewel and was widely known as an inventor reverse side is the inscription: "Pre- in 1812.'14, and was born in Baltimore. sented to P. M. George E. Schillinger by the brethren of Patmos Lodge, No. Jenkins, which was burned in Sayannah, 70, A. F. & A. M. of Ellicott City, Md., Ga., shortly after the attack of For 19th January, 1892." The presentation Sumpter. Mr. Perkins and Chief was made by the Worshipful Master, Engineer William Jones escaped and Dr. M. G. Sykes, who spoke in part as on and walked all the way to Baltimore. follows:

little more than a year ago you were war and finally espoused the Federal chosen as our leader, you having pre- cause. He was appointed by General viously demonstrated your worthiness Burnside to be chief engineer of the and qualification for the honored posi- transport ship Belvidere. He was aftertion. Your punctual attendance on the ward detailed to the dangerous service meetings of the lodge, and the faithful discharge of your duties as its Worshipful Master cannot be praised too highly, Washington. At the close of the war while the ancient landmarks of the or- he became chief engineer of the steamer der. entrusted to your care,' have been | Ellie Knight, which, in 1868, in a race carefully preserved. Simultaneous with | with the steamer Petersburg from City your installation you conceived the idea | Point to Baltimore, beat all previous of improving the condition of your lodge, records by fifteen hours. Mr. Perkins by increasing Masonic knowledge among was afterward made inspector of boilers ye'r brethren, and opening a channel, for the Powhatan Steamboat Company. thre of which your successors might He invented the Perkins surface blow pass nto the honorable and dignified for steam boilers, which worked on a body of Past Masters. Your efforts principle entirely at variance with the have been untiring, and you have the existing theories of blowing out boilers. gratification of knowing that your la- He then, with Mr. Jacob Brands, formed bors were not in vain. On retiring from the Perkins Manufacturing Company, at property conveyed by him and his wife your duties as Worshipful Master. and Pittsburg, to manufacture the surface having become an actual Past Master, blow, but losses of a member of the comallow me, on behalf of the brethren of pany resulted in serious personal losses Patmos Lodge, to confer still another also to Mr. Perkins and he left the comhonor upon you, as a token of the high regard in which you are held by us. It is a Past Master's jewel, with which I Flour Mill of the C. A. Gambrill Co. have the great pleasure of presenting Mr. Perkins invented a steam pump and you, and as this is the fifth of its kind other mechanisms but after the failure that has ever been presented by the of the Pittsburg company he never pat brethren of Patmos Lodge, I assure you that it reflects credit upon you as a Mason. Marine Engineers Association, of which And as you have worn the lamb's skin

cence and the badge of a Mason,' so do

I hope you may live to wear this jewel for many years with pleasure to yourself and honor to the fraternity." Mr. Schillinger said in reply: "Wor shipful Master, Wardens and Brethren. Standing, as I now do, again in your I feel how unequal I am to the task which is before me, that of making an adequate acknowledgement of the high I were an orator I might be able to give expression to my feelings in language befitting the occasion. This beautiful Past Master's jewel which you have presented me, and which I so highly prize, I shall always carefully preserve, not ny; Edwin J. Farber, Judge John Mconly for its intrinsic worth, but for noto prolong my days upon this earth to A. or beyond the allotted time of man, I and Mrs. A. A. Jones, of Albercan in years to come, when my connection with this lodge may perhaps be Brae Cemetery. severed, look upon this emblem as a memento of the days gone by which were so happily and pleasantly spent here among you in old Patmos No. 70 But should it please the Supreme Grand Architect above to call upon me to lay aside my working tools of a Master upon the roll of departed workmen, I of one, who will doubly prize it, not only because it is a thing of value and beauty, but for the memories that are associated with it. Yes, it will be loved proud possession of one who stood so near and dear to the hearts of his family. Should it come into the possession o one of my descendents, I hope and trust it may be one worthy of its keeping. Now why should I prize this jewel so highly? Why set such great store by it? The fact that I regard it as a testimonial and an endorsement of me by a body of representative gentlemen, whose stand ing in this community is second to none, gentlemen, who have made their mark in the various lines of their professions, gentlemen whose characters are above censure and reproach, makes me doubly prize it. The thought occurs to me, what I have done to merit recognition? Reviewing the year just passed, and the work done here, while I had the

In conclusion Mr. Schillinger also ex pressed his appreciation of the personal friendship and esteem which had been : factor in promoting the gift and hope that he would never do aught to forfeit the good will of his brethren. After the presentation, the members honor of presiding as Master of this lodge, I realize that all was accomplish ed by your co operation, by your valuable assistance. The energy and zeal which you displayed, and the efforts which you put forth, made my adminis to call it such."

tration a success, if I may be permitted of the lodge adjourned to the large banquet hall, adjoining the Lodge Room. where a collation was served by Caterer Christian Eckert, in his usual ele gant style. The jewel can be seen at Dr. Alexan der G. Daley's drug store, where it will be left for a few days for inspection.

The Thermometer was Low.

Sunday morning the thermometer in the doorway of Dr. Alex. G. Daley's store, Ellicott City, crawled down to zero. Taesday night, after rain, came sieet followed by an inch of snow, with cold weather Wednesday morning. Extreme cold weather prevailed through 1'e South and West, Texas having a

In the Orphans' Court.

In the Orphans' Court Tuesday the following business was transacted: The will of the late Walter Dorsey was admitted to probate, and letters testamentary were granted to Julia A. Dorsey: s cond and final account of Frank D. Mollman, administrator of Rodolph Moliman, was passed; first administration account of Lennox Birckhead, ad rainistrator of James R. Bickhead, showi or payments amounting to $1,130.85 and balance due the estate of $2,971.97. passed; inventory of the personal es the of C. H. Isaacs, amounting to $1, 862, filed.

Officer of Patmos Lodge.

The following officers of Patmos Lodge, No. 70, A. F. and A. M., of Ellicott City, have been installed for the ensuing term: W. M., Dr. M. Gist Sykes; S. W., Thomas G. Brown; J. W., Dr. A. G. and excired ten minutes after the doctor missioners' books, recommends the dis-D dey; treasurer, John M. Collier; sectorized. He was a son-in-law of Mr. continuance of the expenditure, and generary, Louis N. Getz; S. D., George D. Samuel J. Radeliffe, of Ellicott City, and erally tears up things. Motschman; stewards, Samuel Tracey and Wm. Davis; tyler, Owen II. Mercer

Ellicott City Grain Market. Fultz wheat, 99 to 101: German 100 to 102; White corn, 50 to 52.

Miles' Nerve & Liver Pills.

TIMES office.

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedity cure biliousness bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest 1 50 doses 25 cents. Samples free at A. G. Daley's drug store. Promissory notes for sale at THE

MR. JAMES PERKINS DEAD. Sick for Several Months, He Expired Last

Sunday. Mr. James Perkins, whose illness had been mentioned several times in these columns, died at his home No. 413 North Gilmor street, Baltimore, last Sunday morning. Mr. Perkips had but a few months since removed from near Ellicott City to Baltimore and was apparently circumstanced for the enjoyment of yet many happy years. But recently he mos Lodge, No. 70, A. F. & A. M., El- was prostrated with liver trouble which last, Past Master George E. Schillinger be induced to take to his bed until the Mr. Perkins was in his sixtieth year. is a very handsome one of gold, set with and engineer. He was the son of Capt. a large sapphire and diamonds. On the James Perkins, a defender of Baltimore In early life he went to sea and became

Mr. Perkins waited in Maryland to see "Brother Past Master Schillinger. A what part the State would take in the ented any of them. He belonged to the he was one of the earliest members. for many years as 'an embtem of inno. Mr. Perkins leaves a widow, two daughters and five sons. The funeral took place at 10 o'clock in the morning from his aesidence, to St. Martin's Church, Fulton avenue and Fayette street, where a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Thomas A. Broydrick. The sermon was preached by presence, as the recipient of your favor, Rev. Wm. E. Starr, of Corpus Christi. The pall-bearers were selected from members of the Marine Engineers' Association. The C. A. Gambrill Manucompliment you have paid me. But if facturing Company, where the deceased was employed for seventeen years, sent a beautiful floral, tribute Among those present were Richard Macgill, president, and P. H. Macgill, vice president of the C. A. Gambrill Manufacturing Compa-Shane, of Howard county; W. T. Mcrtley, of Ellicott City; John Murray, of Cumberland; Mr. ton, Md. The interment was in Bonnie

The Wife of Baron Abinger. William Frederick Scarlett, Baron Abinger, whose death is announced by cable, says the Baltimore Sun, was born in 1821. He entered the army in 1840. Mason, when my name has been entered and served with distinction in the Crimean war, taking part in the battles know this jewel will fall in the hands of Alma, Inkermann and Balaklava, the siege of Schastopol, and the sortie of October 26, 1855. In 1877 he reached the rank of major-general, and was retired on half pay. He married, in 1863, and cherished because it was once the Elia, a daughter of Commodore Magruder, formerly of the United States Navy, and niece of Gen. J. B. Magruder. then commanding the Confederate forces in Texas, and of a well-known Maryland-Virginia family. He had succeeded his father in the family title in 1861. The first Peer was the distinguished lawyer and jurist long known as Sir James Scarlett, who was raised to the peerage in 1835. Four children were born of the marriage with Miss Ma gruder, the eldest of whom, James Yorke McGregor Scarlett, the only son, will succeed to the title. Miss Magruder was a student at the Patapsco Institute, Ellicott City, in the school's palmy days. under the administration of Mrs. Al-

mira Hart Lincoln Phelps.

Death of Frederick Harrison. Mr. Frederick Harrison, aged eightyseven years, father-in-law of Mr. Lennox Birckhead, died Saturday night at Mr. Birckhead's - home, 1203 North Charles street, Baltimore. Old age, was for Upper Marlboro', Prince George's the cause of death. Mr. Harrison was county, where she will visit her cousin, oo n in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. He was Rev. Father Cunnane. educated at West Point while Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, Gen. Joseph E. Johnston and Albert Sidney Johnston | the Misses Anderson, formerly of this | rietta and Bessie Brooks, of Baltimore were at the institution. He was appointed to the engineer corps, and later was stationed at Fort Dearborn, on the the guest of his brother, Mr. Joseph Pace, present site of Chicago. He retired on Sunday last. rom the army when thirty years of age. He was one of the first surveyors of the Baltimore and Ohio and Northern Central Railroads. With the exception of a few years devoted to travel, Mr. Harrison spent the latter half of his life at his home, in Baltimore county, devoting his

A Young Man's Death at Granite. Urias Johnson Jr., son of Urias and Tartha Johnson, of Granite, Baltimore County, died January 14 in his 21st year. He was very highly esteemed by all who knew him and died in the Christrailway company. The use of overtian faith. Rev. H. H. Donty, of Alerton, conducted the funeral services. The attendance was large. The body was interred in Granite M. E. Cemetery. The pall learers were Messrs. William and Clarence Goslin, Charles Brown, George Dunnigan, Albert Wheat, and Jalius Merkle. Mr. Joseph Smallwood's Mother. Mrs. Martha Smallwood, of Laurel wife of the late Philip Smallwood, died after a lingering illness on Saturday last. She was the mother of Mr. Joseph loss of his wife.

Church, Highland, Monday afternoon. Death of Mr. Beal Helm. Mr. Beal Helm, flagman of the Western Maryland Railroad, at Westminster, died suddenly Monday night, aged fortythree. He was taken with cramp colic countants to examine the county com-

was well known here. Funeral of Mrs. Porcher. The funeral of Mrs. Eliza D. Porcher whose death was announced in THE the patriarch of poultry in America. Times last week, took place from St. He also claims that the white Leghorn Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church, will lay larger eggs than any other va-Ellico t C tv, at noor, Salvation Oil is the best liniment ever offered to the public. It is both good and cheap. 25 cents. worth everytime, when buying Dr. Bull's 'tasted is that of the light Brahma hen Cough Syrup for a cough or cold. Price laid in her second year. only 2 cents.

Novelties in jewelry and sterling all der in their feed. If Lexington Street, Baltimore, Md.

MISS HANNAH B. GAITHER'S WILL. Numerous Charitable Bequests—Disposi tion of the Residue of Her Estate. The will of Miss Hannah B. Gaither was filed in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City Wednesday. It bequeaths a large aggregate sum to charitable objects. The Church Home and Infirmary receives yearly ground rents amounting to $450 for the maintenance of a room in the Home to be occupied by one woman, to be selected by the rector of Emanuel Protestant Episcopal Church. The will names Mrs. Mary A. Seattle as the first occupant if she should be living. If the Home should be abandoned or cease to be connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church, the legacy is to revert to the Baltimore Orphan Asylum on Stricker street. Ground rents aggregating $630 are left to the Home for Incurables to maintain two rooms, the occupants to be desigrooms are to be known as the Hannah B. Gaither rooms.

The Nursery and Child's Hospital rethe Home of the Friendless $6,000 absolutely.

laryland is left $5,000 for the relief of disabled and superannuated clergymen. The Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States is left $5,000 to be applied to domestic missions. The rest of the estate is bequeathed to relatives and friends. George R. Gaither, nephew of the testatrix, is left her residence, No. 602 Cathedral street, and the family portraits. The residue of the estate goes in trust to Thomas II. Gaither and George R. Gaither, Jr., brother and nephew respectively of the testatrix. Charles D. Gaither, a nephew, reversion to his children. The remainder of the estate is to be divided into four equal parts. George R. Gaither, Jr., receives one part absoutely. Mary R. Norris, Henrietta Smith and Georgeanna M. Gaither, nieces of the testatrix, are each to enjoy the income from one part, with reversion to their children. The trustees are also named as executors. The will provides that the collateral inheritance tax shall be paid out of the estate. It is dated March 1, 1887, and has two codicils. The witnesses are George McCaffrev. Philip T Tilvard and I. Robert Is-

ITEMS FROM OELLA.

Death of Mrs. Duvall-Employe Hurt-

Other News. Mrs. Rebecca Duvall, relict of the late Thomas Duvall, died Tuesday night of the infirmities of old age. She was Eldersburg, of typhoid pneumonia. She eighty five years old and one of the oldes | was much esteemed by a large circle of inhabitants of this section. Since the friends and her death causes general death of her husband, which was about three years ago, she had led a sol- children to mourn her loss. Her funeral few days before her death. The funeral Stewart Kearney, J. M. McDonald and Clock. Rev. J. H. Marsh, of Emory M. E. Church, Ellicott City, conducted the ceremonies. The interment was in Oella cemetery. Three sons, Messrs. vall, of Woodberry and John Duvall, todrew Isaac, of Baltimore, Mrs. Christopher Herrman and Mrs. James Green, of Westchester Avenue, survive her. She leaves a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Frank Mills, while operating what is caught in the machinery and the The spreader is the most dangerous piece of machinery in the mills and this s the second accident connected with it in the past two months. Dr. B. J. Byrne, of Ellicott City, dressed the wound. A dramatic association, to be known as the Oella Literary Society, was organized some time since with the following officers: Secretary, Wm. Donaldson, and F. W. Graham, president. A committee of three was also appointed with Mr. Randolph Donaldson chairman. The society contemplates giving a dramatic entertainment in the near future. A public meeting was held on Wednesday evening in Oella Hall, to consider the advisability of building a new church. Owing to the inclement weather the attendance was not very large and | weather a goodly company assembled little was done. Another meeting for and to the melting strains of Iula's harp, the same purpose will be held Monday night. Rev. Wm. Merrick, of Wetheredville, delivered a lecture on temperance to a large congregation in Patapsco Chapel on Sunday afternoon. Miss Mollie Onthanks left on Monday

Miss Ida Lowe left on Monday for Frederick where she will be the guest of Mr. Jacob Pace, of Wetheredville, was Miss Grace Gaugh, of Frederick, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Day. Mr Lee Thurston, of Virginia, is visiting friends here.

ACROSS THE PATAPSCO.

Events of the Week in Baltimore County of Interest Here.

A bill will be introduced in the Legislature to empower the Union Passenger Railway Company of Baltimore to use the cable or electric system, and to consolidate with any other passenger head wires or any other system of electric motors is authorized by the bill. Within the old city limits the speed is limited to ten miles per hour and out side to fifteen miles per hour. This will doubtless bring about a more rapid transit between Catonsville and Baltimore than the horse cars now afford. The application of Dorothea Butsch. of Catonsville, for a liquor license, has been hung up until the matter is adjudicated by the court. A protest denies the necessity of the saloon, and says it is opposite the entrance to a large school Smallwood, of Triadelphia, Howard for girls, and the Presbyterian church, county, and who, it will be remembered, and in the midst of a number of private was recently called upon to mourn the residences. Among the signers to the protest are Robert Lawson, John C. The funeral took place from St. Mark's George, Robert Taylor, Elias Livezey, William H. Gill, Charles G. W. Macgill, Eli Scott, Frank Albert, Samuel W. Owens and Reuben Jones. This is the first protest filed. The Baltimore county grand jury con demns the expense of having expert ac-

Hens That Lay. Legliorns lay more eggs than any other variety of fowls. So says Felch riety of Leghorns. He commends as an excellent cross for practical purposesmeat and eggs—a white Leghorn cockerel on light Brahma hens. A correspondent in Southern Financier says: "A certainty." You will receive your The best hen egg I have ever seen or To insure plenty of eggs all winter put a little Stonebraker's Chicken Pow-

The grip seems to be abating.

COUNTY DATE LINES.

MATTERS THAT CORRESPONDENTS FIND TO WRITE ABOUT. Festivities at Springfield Institute which

Were Much Enjoyed-Social and Personal Notes of Interest-The Record of a Week Elsewhere-Deaths, Casualties and all Those Events which Make Sykesville, Jan. 21.-A reception was given on Friday evening of last week by Mr. and Mrs. Juan Weems at Springfield Institute. The three large young ladies of Clarksville. It will rooms on the first floor, the drawing doubtless be the most brilliant and room, music room and dining room exspacious building, were thrown into a series of communicating apartments. They were brilliantly lighted and with the moving figures of the guests, hum of nated by the board of managers. The conversation and glimpses of gliding dancers in the room assigned to that purpose, presented a coup d'æil suggescives $2,000, the Boy's Home $5,000, the tive of one of Du Maurier's house-party Baltimore Orphan Asylum, $10,000, and studies, without the characteristic stiffness of his figures. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Adams and Mrs. The Convention of the Protestant Thomas, wife of Rev. J. D. Thomas, and Episcopal Church of the Diocese of a piano solo by Miss Hestenger, each member eliciting hearty applause. A "conversation party" was then formed of which some of the topics were: "Leap Year," "Protection and Free Trade, "Microbes," "Home," "Sun Spots," "La Grippe," "Cats," "Love," "Electricity," "Spooks," "Evolution" and "Mules." An election was then held to ascertain the choice of the company for the most popular lady and best male conversationalist, each sex voting for the opposite, and Miss Hewitt and Mr. Scott Lane Heffenger were declared elected. The iostess then awarded as a prize to the lady a tasteful photograph holder and to the gentleman an artistic calendar. A is to receive the income from certain delicious supper of salads, ices, cake and to testatrix and $15,000 additional, with coffee was served in the supper room, after which the floor was cleared for dancing which was enjoyed until after midnight. Among others present were Miss Neal, of St. Paul; Misses Henrietta and Bessie Brooks, of Baltimore; Miss Ursule Brooks, Miss Nannie Brooks, Miss Minnie Brooks, of Baltimore Mrs. John Merryman Curtis, Mrs. J. D. Thomas, Miss Heffenger, Miss Lillian Heffenger, Miss Bennett, Miss Hattie Bennett, Mrs. Thos. W. Fisher, Miss Fisher, Miss Agnes Hewitt, Miss Nellie Warfield, Miss Nannie Polk, Mr. and Mrs. Mellor, William C. Polk, Scott Lane Heffenger, Charles Lowndes Bennett, John Hewitt, Dr. Clarence Warwick Heffenger, Bradley J. Fisher, Pennington Bennett. Howard Warfield, Trusten Polk, Jr., Beverly Bennett, L. Kearney, Lloyd Bennett, Gordon Fisher, John G. Voorhees, Charles Thomas

Charles Kalkman. Mrs. Samuel D. Shipley died on Fri day 15th. inst., at her residence near sorrow in the neighborhood. She left surviving her a husband and three small nie Golden.

Miss Rice died at her home on the Washington Road between Hoods Mill Samuel Duvall, of Virginia, Beal Du- and Cooksville, of pneumonia, on Thursday of last week. Her remains were gether with three daughters, Mrs. An- taken to New Market, Frederick county for burial. This is the second death in Mr. Rice's family within the past few weeks, a son having been buried recently and the stricken household have the sincere sympathy of the community. Mr. Zadock Waters, an aged citizer known as the spreader in the Oella cot living near Hoods Mill, is extremely ill ton mills Saturday, had his right hand at his residence. Grave fears are entertained for him as he is considerably palm was badly torn and bruised. more than eighty years old and has been feeble for some time.

> Miss Neal, of St. Paul, Minnesota, is visiting Mrs. Juan Weems. Misses Henrietta and Bessie Brooks, of Baltimore, are spending a few days with the family of Mr. Thorndike Brooks. Mr. John G. Voorhees, of Alexander W. Va., is home on a visit to his mother. Hagerstown visiting Col. Buchanan

Miss Mazie Ridgely is visiting ber cousin, Miss Eloise Hood, on North Calvert street, Baltimore. A pleasant dance was given in Howard Hall on Tuesday night by a committee composed of Messrs. Bradley J. Fisher, John Hewitt and Adolphus Merceron. Notwithstanding the inclement "chased the glowing hours with flying feet" until all could answer with pleasant memories the question of the song. "Where were we at a quarter past three?" after a jolly "Night's Frolic." The floor was good, the music inspiring, and the company congenial, a trio of circumstances whose sum total can only be equal to a thoroughly successful result. Among those present were Mrs. Thos W. Fisher, Miss Fisher, Miss Heffenger Miss Lillian Heffenger. Misses Hen The Misses Blount, of Granite, Miss Agnes Hewitt, and the Messrs. Blount, Mr Brown of Woodstock, Jno. C. Brooks Jr., Scott Lane Heffenger, John Hewitt, Fisher, Chas. Thomas, Gordon Fisher Lloyd Bennett and others. Mrs. L. H. Schultz, has gone to Cininnati upon a visit to her mother, Mrs Miss Minnie Brooks, of Baltimore has been spending a few days at the "Heights" with Miss Hattie Bennett. Mr. Lucian Kearney slipped and fell a few days ago, breaking one of the bones of one of his hands and lacerating it painfully. The fracture was reduced by Dr. The Grip's Grasp on Savage. A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writing from Savage, Howard county, under date of January 17, says: any delay. A great number of persons are suffering with this distressing complaint throughout the county, and in Savage and vicinity it is seen on all

Dr. C. Warwick Heffenger, Bradley J

"There was some talk of shutting down the cotton mill here on account of the great sickness among the mill opera tives. Ninety of the looms were unable to run because the weavers who worked them had the grip, and only a few of these operatives are now able to work regularly. A large number of the oper atives in the other departments of the mill are prevented from working by the The popular and very active physician of this section, Dr. Thomas W. Linthiic has been going early and late, far and has spared no expense on the piece. 2201 North Charles street, at 7.30 o'clock

An eminent Presbyterian divine announced to his congregation that he at the theater or down town office. must take a vacation on account of bron chitis, the elders raised his salary and gave him a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. He was cured. My daughter suffered greatly with neuralgia in the face and forehead and was unable to secure any relief. I saw Salvation Oil advertised, sent for a bottle and one application gave entire relief. J. S. McCAULEY, (Policeman). Residence, 204 N. Bond St., Balto., Md.

Have your watch repaired at Boettinger & Walter, 205 W. Lexington Street.

THE FARMERS' CONVENTION. News from Highland.

HIGHLAND, Jan. 20-At a meeting of the stockholders of Highland Hali on Monday afternoon, Mrs. Samuel Hopkins, Miss Jennie Hardey, Mrs. John Simon, Dr. W. H. Hardey and Mr. W.

last week at Pythian Hall, Baltimore, ad H Marlow were elected directors for journed Friday after making a demand the ensuing year-President, Mrs. not only for a reassessment of property. Samuel Hopkins; Secretary, Miss Jen-nie Hardey; Treasurer, W. H. Marlow. ation. The convention decided that the The hall is now specially adapted to listing system of assessing taxes, now ped with stoves, lamps, china, cooking in force in nearly all of the Western States, and which Governor Hill recom-The absorbing topic of conversation mended in his last message for New just now is the cotilion party to be given York, was the system they wanted. The in the Hall on the 27th by two charming Maryland Legislature will be informed fashionable event that has ever taken the substance of two papers presented tending around three sides of the place in the neighborhood. The next on Thursday. One of these was by Dr. social entertainment talked of is a leap M. G. Elzey and the other by Mr. H. O year ball to be given by a number of Devries, both of Howard county. Dr Devries, both of Howard county. Dr Elzey's paper states that the constitution The Episcopa! Rectory recently comought so to be amended as to exempt pleted is a very handsome building, and from taxation all public property, all reflects great credit upon the building churches actually used for public worcommittee and the contractor, Mr. James ship, and all grave-yards from which no Turner, of Laurel. It is thoroughly revenue is derived. It also states that all other property not exempted by the constitution should be taxed at a uniform rate. This amendment, the resolution declares, ought to be written in language so plain that no question can arise as to the intention of the people to take the whole subject of taxation and discrimination in taxation out of the Legislature. Mr. Devries's paper calls of Carroll county, met with an for the adoption of the listing system. accident on January 2nd. He is an At the request of several of the deleengineman on the B. & O. R. R. While gates, Judge Stake, the presiding officer, explained just what the system is. he started to cross the track and was Instead of dividing the State up into assessor districts, as is now done in Mataken to Mount Airy where one leg was ryland, the listing system," he said. "reamputated. He is now lying in a critical quires each citizen of the State to make condition. He has a child critically ill

> Messrs Jacob, George and Franklin Young, of Minnesota, are at the home of A brakeman of the B. &. O. R. R. fell off his train at Watersville on the 19th. his own assessor. By this method the In the last issue of the Baltimore very few false returns are made. If false County Union are the following items returns are suspected, the county com-"Mrs. Catherine Enhlishbeedied of > mother of Mr. William Cavey, is also dead. She was 70 years of age and leaves a large family of children and system has, so far as is known, abandoned it.' "Mrs. Wm. F. Weller who has been. "Gip has been very prevalent here Among those who suffered seriously from its effects are Mrs. Neil Cavey and

> Mrs. Triplett. "Mr. Lawrence Triplett and wife, who spent the holidays with the latter's have in which small properties are asmother, at Union Mills, have returned "Miss Laura Triplett is visiting Miss the accident here on the 20th, caused by cousin, Mr. C. Rowies Hardey, is mend-Hardey's beautiful cutter was demolished, and his horse frightfully crippled.

Annie Christ, of Mt. Washington. Miss Irene Hardey Improving.

Lecture at St. James. Metropolitan Church, Washington, D. C., will deliver his interesting and instructive lecture, "How to Win," at St. James Methodist Episcopal Church, Patapsco circuit, Wednesday, January 27, at 7.30 P. M., for the benefit of the mis-

Washington Press says: "Metropolitan M. E. Church blazed with patriotism last night when the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Corey, delived the Annual Memorial Oration before the Grand auditorium was crowded with a representative audience, and the oration was a splendid literary and oratorical effort." The committee are Revs. J. N. Davis.

D. D., and M. H. Courtney. THE THEATERS NEXT WEEK

Nat Goodwin in "the Nominee"-At the Lyceum and Academy. Nat Goodwin with a most excellent company and a merry, successful play will appear at Ford's during the week of January 25th. Of his performance the Boston lierald of a recent date thus

"Ripple of laughter followed ripple in the Tremont Theater last evening, until they reached wave after wave of merri ment and tumbled and broke over each Lombard street, near Exeter, December, other under the spell of the ludicrous situations, the snappy dialogue and the Sunday-school at St. Vincent's, and on general hilarity which abounds in "The Nominee,"as interpreted by NatGoodwin other priests as altar boy. At the age of and the players associated with him. There are hundreds of hearty laughs in the piece, "The Nominee" from the same quarry which gave Charles Wyndham's "The Candidate" to the world. In its original form, the French, the piece had a run of more than a year in Paris at one of the leading theaters. In its Americanization its French flavor more, as assistant, and from there, in is retained in so far as wit and repartee 1871, to St. Vincent's, where he acted in are concerned while its humorous and crisp lines, wholly American, greatly til the death of that gentleman, in add to its zest; it is full of extraordinary complications.' Matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

February 1st, Rosina Vokes and her London Comedy Company.

The Duff Comic Opera Company.

formance that will be seen in Baltimore this season will be that of the J. C. Duff Company at Harris' Academy on Mon-"The grip may have been a little late in day night next, when Lecocq's sparkdeveloping in Howard county, but by ling light opera, "The Queen's Mate," its present activity has fully made up for | will be heard for the first time in Baltimore. The opera will be presented in a spectacular manner, over three carloads of scenery being used in the three acts of the opera. Miss Helen Bertram, the beautiful young prima donna, who was so well liked here during her brilliant Academy two years ago, will sing the leading role in the "Queen's Mate." Miss Bertram will receive a cordial reception from her legion of admirers in Baltimore. The sale of seats is at the box office and Lertz's, No. 9 North Charles street.

J. K. Emmet Coming. The production of "Fritz in Ireland"

comes to the Lyceum well heralded The scenery is all new and com "Though the sleighing is not very good | views of the Rhine and the Lakes of now many sleighs were on the road to. Killarney. Mr. Emmet's rendition of "Fritz" is pronounced as a finished and graceful piece of acting. His company is a strong one. Seats may be secured

> Z. H. Postles, Hudgins, Matthews county, Va., says: The Powell's Red Bag Fertilizer that myself and others sed on corn is making quite a show. My grass and clover where I used the Powell's Prepared Chemicals last year on oats is attracting notice. I think I have the finest grass in the county.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS ALMANAO Contains One Hundred Recipes for making delicious Candy cheaply and quickly at home. This book is given away at drug eral atores.

Listing of Property to Supersede Present

Mode of Assessment. The Farmers' Convention, in session of this. A resolution was adopted embodying a; plication to the county commissioners every year for an official blank. This the applicant fills up, giving his real and personal property and its estimated value. The estimate is made under oath, and each taxpaver becomes personal property that now escapes taxation, such as stocks and bouds, is found, and experience has shown that missioners are empowered to make any person testify as to his possessions, and if these have not been correctly returned, he is liable to prosecution for per-jury. No State that has tried the listing

"I have studied the listing system for years," said Dr. Elzey, "and believe it sick for some time, is slowly improving. the best that can be devised. Not that it is perfect and will not work inequalities, not that it will prevent the usurer from despoiling the widow's house, but it is the best that can be gotten. Could anvthing be worse than the system we now sessed much higher than their value, with the great ones much lower? The reason for this is that the assessors owe their positions to men of money and influence. What becomes of American's proudest claim-that of equality of all men before CLARKSVILLE. Jan. 20 .- Miss Irene | the law-when the very tax laws them-Hardey, who was so severely injured by selves discriminate between the rich and the poor, and in favor of the rich as against the poor. The Democratic itary and secluded life. She possessed took place at Westminster and among a pair of runaway horses plunging into party has promised the people a reassess-the sleigh occupied by herself and ment of all property."

Mr. Devries, in speaking of the new bler and better reasons, for should it Cauley, Messrs. Holden and Charles took place Friday afternoon at two William Wilson, of Sykesville. The deling very slowly, her nervous system plan, said that a class of property would be reached that had never been taxed A committee consisting of Samuel Brooke, of Anne Arundel county; Gen. The accident should be a warning to E. L. F. Hardcastle, of Talbot; Lloyd tained at dinner, with others, by the repersons who drive with the lines un Lowndes, of Allegany; Joseph Coudon, tiring Comptroller, Hon. L. V. Baughbuckled—a loose line being the cause of of Cecil: L. A. Lambert, of Howard; man. the runaway on the occasion men- Samuel Vannort, of Kent: John H. Gasof Baltimore county, and W. J. Cox, of The popular and entertaining lecturer, with a committee from the Maryland Rev. George H. Corey, D. D., of the State Grange in presenting matters to harmonious law for the whole State, the Legislature.

To the committee was referred a reso lution by Mr. Devries to establish a question of the organization of a State board of agriculture, the resolution regarding patent laws, Mr. Harlan's reso sionary society. Of Dr. Corey the lution favoring the appointment of a oad and bridge engineer, and a resolutor to succeed the late Senator Wilson was also announced, and it being detion by Mr. Johns, of Cecil, in favor of compulsory education. Judge Stake and Mr. William B. Sands' were unanimously to elected to be taken by the joint meeting, in accord-Mr. Scott Lane Heffenger is in Army of the Republic. The immense the offices of president and secretary, ance with the Federal statute. The respectively. The executive committee consists of Henry O. Devries, John Moones, E. L. F. Hardcastle, C. Lyon Regers, G. W. Miller, Edward Stake and Wm. B. Sands. Mr. Samuel Hopkins is vice president for Howard county.

> FROM THE MONUMENTAL CITY. Rev. Edward Didier, rector of the St. Vincent's Church, North Front street. has resigned. He will remain at the F. Brattan, 1; George M. Russum, 2; church until March 1, when he will travel abroad. Father Didier has labored in St. Vincent's parish for the past twenty-one years He was the seventh pastor of the church, and for eighteen years has been rector. He was born on 1832. As a boy he attended mass and occasions assisted Father Gildea, and eighteen he entered St. Charles College. near Ellicott City, and after a four vears course began his theological studies at St Mary's Seminary. He was ordained June 26, 1858. His first mission experience was at Hagerstown and at Rockville. From the mission he was transferred to St. Peter's Church, Baltithe same capacity to Father Meyers un-

Allnutt, Nixon & Goldsborough wholesale boot and shoe dealers, made an assignment last week for the benefit of creditors, and a receiver was applied for to wind up the affairs of the Balti-Probably the best comic opera per- more Publishing Company, both as a result of the failure of J. J. Nicholson & Sons. The trustee of the boot and shoe firm filed a bond for $150,000. It is said that the failure of Nicholson & Sons was largely due to money advanced to the other concerns. Hon. Edwin Warfield, vice president and general manager of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, with a large force of accountants of the company, was in charge of the investigation of the affairs of Nicholson & Sons, and stated early in the week that while individual depositors would suffer greatly, engagement in the summer operas at the that the standing of none of the leading business houses here or in the South would be greatly impaired. It has developed that John Carson, the Baltimore lawyer, who was found dead in the streets of New York with his throat cut, was not a suicide but a victim of "Jack the Slasher," who has been arrested in a similar attempt. The slasher's victims are nearly a dozen. Mrs. Helen Turner Raborg, daughter of this section, Dr. Thomas W. Linthicum, is confined to bed from overwork. He has paid as high as forty-six visits a day, and throughout the present epidemiology bean going early and late far and lat

> Albert William Mentzel were married before a large assemblage of friends and relatives at 8 o'clock Wednesday night in Eutaw Place Baptist Church by Rev. Dr. F. M. Ellis. A minstrel performance was given their regular Monday reception Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Charles E. Key, a well known bailiff in the tax department, has been seriously ill with pneumonia at his home, Hollins Street and Frederick Avenue.

Miss Sarah A. Hutchinson and Mr.

Tuesday night at Spring Grove Asylum by members of the Iroquois Democratic Club, of Baltimore. Ex-Confederates observed Gen. Robert E. Lee's birthday at the Carrollton Hotel Tuesday night.

GORMAN AND GIBSON.

THESE ARE MARYLAND'S REPRESENT-ATIVES IN THE U. S. SENATE.

Mr. Gorman by Acclamation His Party's Choice Tuesday-Mr. Gibson Chosen on the First Ballot Thursday After Unsuccessful Balloting for Two Days-The Week at Annapolis.

Annapolis, Jan. 25.—It was, of course, known of all men how the vote for Senator Gorman's successor in the United States Senate would be, and readers of THE TIMES therefore accept as a matter of course the result of the ballot Tuesday in both branches of the legislature whereby the hero of the Force bill received the inestimable yet merited honor of unanimous choice by his party for a third term, the same beginning March 4, 1893. It was quietly done and as the result of a foregone conclusion arrived at now these many months. Wednesday at noon the result was announced to the joint assembly and Senator Gorman was formally announc ed his own successor. The Republicans gave their complimentary vote to Hon. Lloyd Lowndes. The vote in the Senate was: Gorman, 20; Lowndes, 3. In the House: Gorman 80: Lowndes, 6. Neither house was successful in deter mining at once who was to be Senator Gorman's colleague. A ballot Tuesday in the House resulted as follows: Barnes Compton, 1; John B. Brown, 9; James Alfred Pearce, 8; John Gibson, 7; Elihu E. Jackson, 14; John S Wirt, 10; Robert M. McLane, 16; James Hodges, 1; William A. Fisher, 1; Ber nard Carter, 1; William J. Vannort, 6 A ballot in the Senate resulted as fol lows: John S. Wirt, 5; John Walter Smith, 4, Elihu E. Jackson, 3; James Alfred Pearce, 3; John B. Brown, 2; George M. Russum, 2; Levin L. Waters, 2; Thos. G. Hayes, 1; Wm. J. Vannort, 1. The vote of Senator Rogers was cast for Hon John B. Brown, of Queen Anne's. Delegate Tracey voted for Hon. John Walter Smith, of Worcester, and Delegate Haslup for Hon. Elihu E. Jackson. On Thursday the fight ended and the legislature in joint session stampeded to dibson on the first ballot. The total number of Senators and Delegates voting was 113; necessary to a choice 59. The votes cast were recorded as follows; Charles H. Gibson, 86; Johr B. Brown, 3; James A. Pearce, 5; John Walter Smith, 4; Elihu E. Jackson, 5 Wm. J. Vannort, 8; James A. Gary 1; L Allison Wilmer, 1. Of Senator Gibson' votes, 15 came from the Senate and 7: from the House. The Howard county delegation went solidly for Gibson. ROUTINE LEGISLATIVE WORK.

Senator Rogers submitted a message to the Senate Tuesday concurring in the message of the House for the appointment of a special committee of three two on the part of the House and one on the part of the Senate, to visit and report on the Agricultural College. The message was adopted and Mr. Rogers appointed on the part of the Senate. Senator Hubner introduced a bill to refund to Henry J. Hebb, late treasurer of Baltimore county, $243.73, amount overpaid by him into the State treasury.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. Mr. Marion DeKalb Smith qualified as Comptroller Tuesday, and was enter

Trouble is being encountered in ob saway of Montgomery; Thomas B. Todd, taining concerted action upon a county Charles, was appointed to co-operate has its own views. It is of the highest Owings. It was at one time feared she importance to enact a general and would die. but unless better councils prevail there will be a hotchpotch. Mr. Robinson in and Miss Feuner Lee were among those the Senate and Mr. Laird in the House grain elevator for the bay trade, the are taking deep interest in the matter. and are trying to get a good law. After the formal election of Senator Gorman on joint ballot Wednesday the result of the separate voting for a Senaclared that no choice had been made the Speaker directed that a vote should whole number of votes cast by the Senatewas 25 and by the House 88. The voting resulted in no choice and was as follows: James Alfred Pearce, 12; John Waiter Smith, 17; John S. Wirt, 12; Elihu E. Jackson, 15; John B. Brown, 11; The convention will meet again next | Charles H. Gibson, 7: Robert M. McLane, 10; William J. Vannort, 8; J. Fred. C. Talbott, 4; Richard II. Edelin, 2; James Hodges, 2; Bernard Carter, 2; J. Alexander Preston, 1; Robert C. Davidson, 1: Ferdinand C. Latrobe, 1: Bradley T. Johnson, 1; W. Sidney Wilson, 2; Robert Frederick Stone, 1; Thomas G. Hayes, 1 The way the Senate stood on the joint ballot was as follows: James Alfred Pearce, 3; John Walter Smith, 5; John S. Wirt, 7; George M. Russum, 2; William Vannort, 1; Frederick Stone, 1; Thos. Hayes, 1; Elihu E. Jackson, 3; John B. Brown, 2, Absent, 1. Senator Rogers. of Howard, cast his vote on this ballot for John Walter Smith. The way the House stood was as foliows: James Alfred Pearce, 9, John Walter Smith, 12; John S. Wirt, 5; William J. Vannort, 7: Elihu E Jackson, 12; John B. Brown, ); Charles H. Gibson, 7; Richard H. Edelin, 2; J. Fred C. Talbott, 4; Robert F. Brattan, 1; W. Sidney Wilson, 2 Bradley T. Johnson, 1; Robert M. Mc Lane. 10: Ferdinand C. Latrobe, 1 Rob ert C. Davidson, I: James Hodges, 2: J. Alexander Preston, 1; Bernard Carter, 2 Delegates Tracev and Haslup stayed with their first loves, Smith and Jackson. Hon. W. B. Peter, of Howard, was the guest of Governor Brown early in the week. During his stay in Annapolis, n company with the Governor, Senator Peter called on ex-Governor Jackson and other acquaintances and friends. TO BETTER PROTECT THE PUBLIC. A bill will be considered by the legisature to authorize all officers who may give bond to the State of Maryland with orporate security, to charge the cost thereof among the expenses of the respective offices.

It provides that "whenever any officer. viio may be required to give bond to the State of Maryland, shall execute such bond, and give as the surety thereon any corporation authorized by the laws of this State to become such surety, he may charge the reasonable cost of such bond among the expenses of his office; and the company becoming surety upon any such bond shall have the right, at any time, to examine all books, accounts, vouchers and securities of any such officer." The bill is regarded favorably. The sureties, right of supervision is a salulary check and corporate security will render such sympathy as has arisen for the individual bondsmen of the late treasurer, Archer, and which may eventually from using Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has been worth $100 a bottle to me in the following place the burden of his default on the a thing of the past. The business of furnishing surety is like that of life or fire insurance and is of such a character as ladies and gentlemen. When in town stop in and make yourself at home. 524 and 526 West Baltimore street.

Are you insured? If not, why not? You can have your property insured in the best companies and at the lowest rates with Charles A. Herrmann, agent Mrs. Lewis N. Hopkins and Miss Lucy cy Hopkins, of 1510 Park Avenue, held Ellicott City. Md.

> Neuralgic Persons And those troubled with nervousness resulting from care or overwork will be relieved by taking Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuino has trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Happenings of the Week Briefly Told and Personal Mention. By the will of the late Rev. James Stephenson, S. T. D., of New Market, Frederick county, all of his library and his philosophical and astronomical instruments go to the University of the South at Sewanee, and $3,000 is bequeathed to found the Stephenson scholarship in the general theological seminary in New York, the scholarship to be at the disposal of the Bishop of Maryland. The members of the Emory M. E. Church Tuesday surprised the family of their pastor, Rev. J. H. Marsh, taking with them many useful and valuable gifts in the shape of household supplies. After the thanks of the pastor had been extended, the company was invited to partake of abundant refreshments.

The Washington correspondents last week got Mr. Joseph Isaac, of Elk Ridge, mixed up with "Joseph Grace," and stated that the latter fictitious individual had the appointment of locksmith to the House of Representatives instead of Mr. Isaac, the real appointee. The case of Henry Winter vs. John Campbell White, transcript from Howard county, action of ejectment, was before Judge Stewart in the Superior Court of Baltimore, this week, as well as the cases of White vs. Winter and

Clark vs Winter Mr. Charles H. Stanley, of Laurel, is one of the incorporators of the Washington and North-eastern Railroad Company, to operate in North-east Washington, D. C., and vicinity. The Thistle Cotton Mills, near Ilchester, are putting up a new building, which will be used in the manufacturing of colored cloths.

In the Court of Appeals Tuesday case No. 15, O'Neill vs. Register and others, was argued by Charles J. Bonaparte for the appellant, and Frederick C. Singluff and Wm. A. Hammond for the appellees. This is the case sent from the Howard county circuit court.

The following special mail service change has been ordered: Botterill, lloward county, from Guilford. From January 20, 1892, change base of supply to Simpsoville. Miss Katie Haller, of Baltimore, was he guest of Miss Lizzie Isaac on Sun-Young men of the town will give leap year ball in the New Assembly Room on February 29. A meeting for that purpose will be held in the Town Hall, February 1st. Edward, the fourteen-year-old son of John and Elizabeth Bradey died near Harrisonville on Tuesday and was

Mrs. M. J. Kuhn, of Ellicott City, has been among the many sufferers from the Judges Mil'er and Jones are holding the January Anne Arundel Court at An-buried vesterday.

napolis.

PERSONAL MENTION.

People Whose Movements and Doings are of Interest to Friends.

Rev. Peter B. Tarro, rector of St. Paul's Catholic Church, Ellicott City, is making a manful struggle through a long siege of typhoid fever. The most encouraging hopes are now entertained by Father Tarro's many friends. Rev. Paul Griffith, of Howard county, will assist Rev. Thomas S. Lee in the rectorship of St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Baltimore. This will not interfere with Father Griffith's connection with St. Louis, Clarksville. Miss Nannie M. Dudley, teacher of the Oaktand Mills school, who has been ill from pneumonia, is improving under commissioners law. Every delegation the skillful treatment of Dr. T. B. Ex-Governor and Mrs. John Lee Carroll, the Misses Gorman, Mrs. Acosta, > at Dr. and Mrs. Chatard's at home, in Washington, D. C., Wednesday after-Mr. Charles H. Stanley, of Laurel, was counsel for the appellees in Jackson, Whyte and others vs. Walsh and others concluded before the Court of > Appeals Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Florstedt, of Botterill's. Howard county, have been spending a week with relatives in New fork City. They spent a most enjoya-The daily papers say that Mr. A. P.

> Gordon-Cumming, who has a country place near Sykesville, is hunting elk and moose in the Canadian North-west. Among the grip's victims of the Simpsonville neighborhood have been Mrs. John J. Myerly, Mr. Richard B. Owings > and Miss Rose O'Donnell. Cards were issued last week for the silver wedding of the Rev Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Killgore on the afternoon and evening of January 22. Mr. Alexander Daley, the venerable > and esteemed father of Dr. Alex. G. Daley, is recovering from his recent ill-Mr. H. R. Warfield, representing the H. G. Davis Coal Company, of Piedmont, W. Va., was in Ellicott City this week. Mrs. Ella Cohen and her daughter

> Miss Geneva, are in Florida enjoying the balmy weather of that latitude. Attorney Charles K. Dorsey has been requently at Annapolis since the beginning of the legislative session. Rev. and Mrs. R. Andrewes Poole have both been ill from the grip with threatened pneumonia.

few days in Baltimore. Miss Lorena Hill has resumed her school duties. "Who said Hood's Sarsaparilla?" Thousands of people know it to be the 11Mr. J. Clark McGuire, son of State's Attorney McGuire, has been spending a best blood purifier and tonic medicine. ; When you come in town shopping stop into Neal's Dining and Lunch Rooms, 524 and 526 West Baltimore Street, and rest yourself and get a nice lunch. Oysters in every style. Game in season. Petersburg, Va., December 16, 1889. Mr. C. P. Knight, Baltimore, Md.: Dear

Sir:-We have used the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company, which we purchased through you, and can say we found it first-class in every particular, and justly deserves all that is claimed for it as to beauty, durability and economy. Yours, &c., LE ROY ROPER & Son. 1

A Big Profit

$200 Realized on an Investment of "I feel that I must add my name to the list of Wrote My Resignation Neal's Dining and Lunch Rooms the cosiest and finest place in the city for over $200 clear from $2 spent for Hood's Sar-sapacilla." W. F. Еплиоти, Morrow, Ohio > Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the best-blood purifier, the best strength builder, the best nerve helper. Give it a trial. Hood's Fills are the best family cathartic.

3.50 PERDAY Can be made easy by any energetic person selling "CHAM-PION PASTE STOVE POLISH." No breach re-quired. No hard labor. No dust or dire. Always ready for use. An article every housekeeper will buy. 116,000 packages attd in Philidelphia. Retinsive agreesy for one or more counties given competent person. Write to day reclosing stamp, for particulate. You will never regire it. Address, CHAMPION CU., 68 N. Fourth 34., Philadetphia, Ph.