SEED SOWN IN GOOD SOIL. CATONSVILLE, MD., January 12, 1892.

Editor THE TIMES:-Accept our sincere thanks for the fruits of our recent advertisement. Seed sown in good soil will grow, and experience has taught us that THE TIMES is the soil upon which to sow the seeds of advertising, and the sower will reap a rich harvest. We have made the acquaintance, and what is more, we have gained the friendship and patronage of people from the extreme corners of Howard and Montgomery counties through The Times. Respectfully, VICTOR M. PRESSON, for Catonsville Supply Company.

AN AD, IN "THE TIMES" DID IT. Mr. Walter Dorsey, of E., of the firm, Dorsey Bros., proprietors of the Dorseyville Steam Roller Mills, writes to THE does not show in a striking light

STATE OF MARYLAND, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Whereas at the January session, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety, of the General Assembly of Maryland, six separate Amendments to the Constituion were proposed, and six separate Bills, each embodying the Article or Section as the same will stand when amended, were passed, in the manner and form prescribed by the Constitution; And whereas the Governor, as required y section one of article fourteen of the Constitution, did, on the sixteenth day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, issue his proclamation cott City, on the Frederick Pike, concontaining each one of the proposed amendments in full, and submitting each one of them to a vote of the people of the State at the general election then HOUSES IN HOWARD COUNTY next ensuing, which proclamation was published in at least two newspapers in each county in the State and in three newspapers published in the city of Baltimore; And whereas at a general election held in this State on Tuesday, the third day of November, in the said eighteen hundred and ninety one, each one of the said amendments was separately voted upon by the people, and from the returns of such election made to the Governor in the form required by law. giving the vote "For" and "Against" each proposed amendment, it appears that in the vote on the amendment, known as chapter one hundred and ninety four of the Acts of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled an Act to amend section seventeen of article two of the Constitution of this State, (designated in the Governor's proclamation as amendment number one, there were cast "For" fifty thousand one hundred and one votes, and "Against" twenty-two thousand one hundred and twenty-seven adopted.

votes, and the said amendment was In the vote on the amendment known as chapter one hundred and ninety-five of the Acts of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled An act to amend section forty-eight of article three of the Constitution of this State, (designated in the Governor's proclamation as amendment number two,) There were cast "For" forty-seven thousand six hundred and seventy votes, and "Against" twenty-two thousand eight hundred and seventy-one votes, and the said amendment was adopted.

In the vote on the amendment known as chapter two hundred and forty-two of the Acts of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled An act to amend article fitteen of the Declaration of Rights of the Constitution of this State, (designated in the Governor's proclamation as amendment number three.) There were cast "For" thirty-two thousand two hundred and eleven votes, and "Against" thirty-eight thousand one hundred and eighteen votes, and the said amendment was not adopted, but was In the vote onthe amendment known excluded from all benefit of said estate.

is chapter two hundred and fifty-five of he Acts of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled An act to amend section one of article seven of the Constitution of this State, (designated in the Governor's proclamation as amendment number four,) there were cast "For" forty-two thousand one hundred and forty votes and "Against" twenty-six thousand six hundred and ninety-six votes, and the said amendment was adopted.

In the vote on the amendment known as chapter three hundred and sixty two of the Acts of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled An act to amend section three of article twelve of the Constitution of this State, (designated in the Governor's proclamation as amendment number five) there were cast "For" thirty-five thousand one hundred and eighty-two votes, and "Against" thirty-three thousand four hundred and forty seven votes. and the said amendment was adopted. In the vote on the amendment known as chapter four hundred and twenty-six of the Acts of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled An act to amend section fifty-one of article three of the Constitution of this State, (designated in the Governor's proclamation as amendment number six,) There were cast "For" thirty-five thousand three hundred and forty votes, and "Against' thirty one thousand one hundred and thirty-nine votes, and the said amendment was adopted. And whereas the said section one of acticle fourteen of the Constitution further provides that "if it shall appear to the Governor that a majority of the votes cast at said election on said amendment, or amendments severally. were cast in favor thereof, the Gov ernor shall, by his proclamation, declare the said amendment, or amend ments, having received said majority of votes to have been adopted by the prople of Maryland as part of the Constitution thereof."

Now, therefore, I, ELIHU E. JACK SON, Governor of Maryland, do hereby proclaim and declare that the amend ment herein designated as amendment number one, the amendment herein designated as amendment number two, the amendment herein designated as amendment number four, the amendment here in designated as amendment number five, the amendment herein designated as amendment number six, having received a majority of all the votes cast at said election for the said respective amend ments, have been adopted by the people of Maryland as parts of the Constitution thereof, and henceforth said amendments shall be part of the said Constitu-

And that the amendment herein designated as amendment number three not having received a majority of the votes cast at such election is hereby declared to be lost and is not a part of the said Given under my hand
