Baltimore Primary Election.

In the Baltimore primaries Thursday Cleveland clubs polled 359 votes out of 8,360.

Col. Schley Going to Chicago.

Col. Buchanan Schley, of Hagerstown, won a victory in the Democratic primaries of Washington county. He will go to the national convention. His opponent for that distinction was Mr Edward W. Mealey.

Urging Senator Rogers.

The Towson Journal says: "State Senator John G. Rogers, of Ellicott City, is urged by friends in Howard county as a candidate for Congress to represent the Fifth district, the seat of which is now held by the Hon. Barnes Compton."

Plenty of Candidates in Sight.

The Baltimore Argus says: "In the Fifth Congressional District, Baltimore county has declared for Hon. John Hubner, Howard for Hon. John G. Rogers, Anne Arundel for Hon. Barnes Compton, and there will be plenty of other candidates besides these named."

CLEVELAND AND HILL.

It is Said That They Will Fight it Out—The New York Delegation.

Washington press dispatches of Saturday last say:

Mr. Cleveland will not retire from the Presidential contest. This can be stated authoritatively and with emphasis from Don M. Dickinson, whose personal relations with the ex-President are well known.

It is one of the main features which has developed during the brief but important visit he has made here. He reached Washington last night with Deputy Secretary of State Rowley, of Michigan, and from the moment of his arrival the atmosphere was charged with Cleveland sentiment.

Mr. Dickinson had come direct from New York, where he had met the leaders of the Cleveland movement and had a lengthy talk with Mr. Cleveland himself. The Michigan man was, therefore, talking, understandingly on the situation. Ten minutes after Mr. Dickinson arrived he was in a cab headed for the house of Senator Gorman, the "dark horse" of the situation. The conference which ensued lasted three hours.

To-day Mr. Dickinson is again with Mr. Gorman in the latter's Senate committee-room. Mr. Dickinson dodged the interviewers as much as possible, and when they occasionally ran him down in the Supreme Court room or the Capitol corridors he smilingly assured them there was absolutely nothing to say "What is the use of discussing a certainty?" said Mr. Dickinson "A few weeks ago it might have been worth while talking about the Presidential situation, but there is no longer any 'situation,' as it is settled. Discussion of possibilities is a part of ancient history."

"Do you mean by this that you are absolutely confident of Mr. Cleveland's nomination?"

"Assuredly I do; so sure, in fact, that I do not want to indicate by any discussion of the subject that there is any open question to discuss."

"What is this confidence based upon; is it the results in New Jersey and Georgia?"

"It is the results everywhere. The whole country has spoken. We have heard from the South, from the West and Northwest, and in short from every section of the country. The result in New Jersey was no surprise; as I expected as much. The machine went down, and as usual the force of popular will carried the result for Cleveland."

"It is being reported, Mr. Dickinson, that Mr. Cleveland will withdraw. Will you authorize a statement on this point?"

"Yes. I say with greatest emphasis that Mr. Cleveland will not withdraw under any circumstances, unless the people who have demanded his services retire him."

"Did you see Mr. Cleveland during your visit in New York yesterday?"

"Yes, and found him as serene and free from care as ever."

The Congressional friends of Senator Hill express great annoyance at the repeated statement that the New York delegation to the Democratic National Convention contemplate abandoning Senator Hill after a ballot or two and casting the votes for some other candidate.

Hon. W. Bourke Cockran strongly resents the insinuation that the Tammany delegates are not loyal to Senator Hill, and he, as well as General Slocum, asserts that Hill is in the fight to the finish, that not one of the 72 delegates will abandon him, and that if the New York candidate is to be defeated he will go down with the 72 votes of the Empire State loyal to him to the last.

Senator Gorman Didn't Say So.

The report in Washington Tuesday that Senator Gorman had predicted Mr. Cleveland's nomination on the first ballot caused a general flutter. The newspaper men went skurrying after the Maryland Senator and had some difficulty in finding him. He stated that he had not expressed any opinion upon the Presidential outlook, and the anxious ones drew a long breath.

Another Marylander for President.

Secretary Harrity says that Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania, would have an excellent chance at Chicago if Mr. Cleveland is not nominated for the Presidency. The Governor is a native Marylander.

Something Bob Believes.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll is for Judge Walter Q. Gresham for President. He believes Mr. Blaine is master of the situation and that President Harrison cannot be elected if nominated.

Tracy as Residuary Legatee.

It is said that in the event of President Harrison not being able to secure the nomination the weight of the administration influence will be thrown in the direction of Secretary Tracy.

Three Are for Gorman.

Of the twelve delegatee to the Democratic National Convention elected at the district convention in West Virginia Wednesday nine are for Cleveland and three for Gorman.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

Attended by Members of St. Paul's Council, No. 205 C. B. L.

Cathedral Council, Catholic Benevolent Legion, held its first anniversary celebration in Baltimore Sunday night. All the councils of the State were invited to be present, and the Cathedral was filled to overflowing. The various city councils marched in a body to the Cathedral. Visiting councils from Washington, Ellicott City, Frederick and other places arrived in special cars and marched from the railroad station.

Rt. Rev. C. E. McDonnell, Bishop of Brooklyn, who is ex-officio spiritual adviser of the legion, attended the meeting and made an address. He was met at Camden Station by a committee of Cathedral Council, consisting of Owen Daly, president, Dr. S. A. Keene, chancellor, Michael W. Ganzhorn and L. Bruce Walcott. Bishop McDonnell was escorted to the residence of Cardinal Gibbons.

Rev. J. D. Boland, pastor of St. Vincent's Church, was the orator of the celebration.

After Father Boland's address, Cardinal Gibbons ascended the pulpit and extended a welcome to Bishop McDonnell. The Catholic Benevolent Legion, he said, has been conspicuous for its loyalty and devotion to the ecclesiastical authority of this diocese.

St. Paul's Council, No 205, Ellicott City, was represented by Justice Bernard H. Wallenhorst, Messrs. Matthew Powers, John F. Fross, John J. Mahon, Joseph E. Gallaher, Henry Temmink, William M. Cooney, August Miller and John U. O'Brian.

In the Religious World.

The Methodist Protestant General Conference at Westminster, struck the word "obey" from the bride's promise in the marriage service.

The conference adjourned Tuesday after designating Kansas City as the next place of meeting.

The case of the Rev. Dr. Charles A. Briggs was remanded by the General Presbyterian Assembly at Portland to the New York Presbytery.
