THE SCHOOL BOARD.

THE OBSTACLES WHICH ARE IM-PEDING ITS PATH.

The Old Board Will Neither Act Nor Give Up the School Property-It Says That Mr. Thompson Won't Let 'Em-The Local News Field.

The old school board of Howard county met Monday and received a formal demand from Mr. J. E. Hill, secretary, treasurer and examiner, appointed by the new board, for the office and school property in the old board's possession. Formal reply was made to Mr. possible to defeat the will of the people Hill's demand by the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, by the board of county school commissioners of Howard county, That, in reply to the request of Mr. John E. Hill, made this 5th day of September, 1892, as to the position of said board with regard to the recent demand of Mr. Robert A. Dobbin, for the surrender of the books, vouchers and other property of the public school authorities of Howard county, the said board beg leave to state that the said books, vouchers and other property of said authorities are now in the possession of Mr. John T. Thompson, secretary, treasurer and examiner of said board, who intends to hold the said books, vouchers and other property until directed by the proper legal authority to surrender

Mr. William Mackintosh, president of the old board, and Dr. Wm. B. Gambrill voted for the resolution and Mr. Le Page Cronmiller against it. Mr. Mackintosh says the old board does not propose to figure in any litigation that may follow, and that Mr. Thompson, as an independent official, will act on his own responsibility. Mr. Thompson has retained Mr. Henry E. Wootton as counsel, and states that he will take the initiative at once, the new board having failed to do so. Messrs. Mackintosh and Cronmiller state that even if determined legally in office they will at once resign.

The new school board was in session Tuesday and dispatched considerable routine business, including the confirmation of a number of teachers' appointments. Mr. John T. Thompson secretary, treasurer, etc., of the old board, appeared before the new board and proposed that an agreement be made whereby the latter might have the use of the old board room for the distribution of books and the transac tion of other business, provided it was understood that Mr. Thompson for- in session on Monday last, elected dele feited none of the legal rights which he claimed. After due consideration of Mr. Thompson's proposition it was declined, and Mr. J. E. Mr. Robert A. Dobbin, president of the school board, and Mr. J. E. Hill. secretary, treausurer, &c., appeared before the county commissioners Thursday and asked for $1,000 to meet expenses incident to opening and running the schools. The matter was referred to Mr. Reuben D. Johnson, counsel to the county commissioners. Mr. John T. Thompson, secretary, treasifier, &c., of the old board, has notified the county commissioners that he expects all school money to be paid to him. The school board Tuesday appointed

Miss Mary F. Jones, of Elkridge, to the scholarship at the Maryland Institute.

IN FOR A LICKING.

Mr. Thomas Parran, of Calvert County

Mr. Thomas Parran, of Calvert county, deputy collector of internal revenue, was Tuesday nominated by acclamation for Congress by the fifth district convention at Laurel. Notwithstanding the nomi nation was made by acclamation, it is said things looked rather cloudy for Mr. Parran a short while before the convention met. There were 26 votes in the convention, and at the time of its meeting there were but 13 straight for Parran. These were the three from Calvert county, three from the seventeenth ward of Baltimore city, five from Anne Arundel, and one each from the two districts of Baltimore county. Where the necessary fourteenth vote county's three votes had been instructed for L. Allison Wilmer, Prince George's four votes were divided between L. D Wine and W. G. Melloy, and the three delegates from each of the counties of Howard and St. Mary's were non-committal as to their positions and were understood to be for Dr. W. G. Tuck, of | $362.22, was passed. The first and final Anne Arundel. Thus matters stood at the beginning of the convention.

Col. L. Allison Wilmer was selected as temporary chairman, and the committee on permanent organization and resolutions reported in favor of his election as permanent chairman. This was done. While the committee was at work about fifteen minutes were devoted to caucusing and missionary work. On the reassembling of the convention Mr. L. McKaig Griffith, of Calvert county nominated Mr. Parran, and the nomination was seconded by State Senator Washington Wilkinson, of St. Mary's. Benjamin F. Richard H. Alexander, a colored dele gate from Charles county, moved to make Mr. Parran's nomination by acclamation. Alexander had not been classed in the Parran column, and his going over gave Parran fourteen votes and the nomination. So it was made

FORD'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE. The Great Merry-Making Success, "Eight DID YOU EVER

Bells." Next Week, In the drama and in poetry, as well as in the arts, the bell is a subject of importance. In a number of plays the bell figures prominently. In fact to a greater or less extent the bell is used in most plays.

The opening scene has a pretty air in view. The effect is pleasing. During the first act a verse or two of "Hear dem Bells" is sung. This song is always popular with an audience, at least the chorus is, no matter how often the song is heard. In the second act a locomotive bell clangs away at a railway depot scene, with the melody peculiar to itself. The second scene of the second act is represented on shipboard. Daniel McGozzle counts the strokes, and says "Eight Bells" and thinks he will turn in. Just here he goes into a terrible lot of trouble. The play is a pantomimic comedy, and the vessel commences to heave and roll in a tremendous storm, what is accompanied by thunder and lightning. A violent lurch carries the whole of the upper part of the steamer away. McGozzie in one stateroom, and the two servants, John and James in an adjoining one, have a difficult time of it keeping their feet. In this they show great agility. Several times the vessel, or rather the hull of it. which is left, appears to be on the point of going over; at last it does, and rolls over and over again with increasing rapidity. The three occupants of the staterooms in view keep constantly limbing like squirrels in a cage. It is ludicrous and absurd, but very funny. The audience roars in laughter. The confusing situations, and in the end everybody is happy. There is no villain in the piece. Incidentally there is some very clever juggling, remarkable whist-ling, and there is a moonlight scene. humorous throughout, causing hearty mirth. It is therefore, good medicine easy and pleasant to take. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday;
