DEMOCRATIC TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT, GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ADLAI E. STEVENSON, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR CONGRESS, MR. CARNEGIE. One would think from his action that Mr. Carnegie, principal owner of the iron works at Homestead, Pa., had abandoned the policy of protection as well as some other leading Republicans, only in a different way.

Mr. Carnegie has been the lock-out of his employees at Homestead as well-considered as any act he ever did. Hitherto it has been the policy of all Republican manufacturers to eschew anything like trouble with employees previous to a presidential or any other important election. There is nothing that could have so militated against Republican prospects of success as the scenes which took place at Homestead and it is reasonable to suppose that before entered upon the political road had been content.

But how can we account for Mr. Carnegie's action under the circumstances? Is it the same ardent advocate of protection, especially since he has built up a colossal fortune under its "blessing" influence? Has it been the policy of all manufacturers to ignore the idea of "infant industries" and ask for the earth? We believe there is but one way to account for Mr. Carnegie's action. He is at last satisfied, he hesitates to say so at this time. He is satisfied he can now compete with the world, and is tacitly in favor of the Democratic idea of a tariff bill—free raw material. He will know he could not have permitted a more impolitic thing than the lock-out at the time it occurred. Its effect is already in operation, as thousands of workmen in that neighborhood and all over western Pennsylvania have signified their intention of voting the Democratic ticket this fall. There are many manufacturers in the country who will know that the tariff policy, as given out by Mr. Cleveland, is the correct one, but from previous associations and out of consideration for brother manufacturers, refuse to come out. It was the policy of the Democratic party from 1846 to 1860. It was the policy of Jefferson, Madison, Jackson, Clay, Grant, Arthur, Garfield and in fact every other statesman whose moral perceptions were not dazed by the glamour of the untold millions which were in it at the expense of the people.

The only conclusion, then, we can arrive at is that Carnegie is secretly a Cleveland man and is disposed to let protection and the Republican party go by default. It has been generally believed that he was a man of high and noble aspirations, and why should we not believe he has experienced a change of heart and ere long will come out in a new role and say that the truly beneficial measures are those proposed by the Democratic party.

Republicans as well as Democrats should not forget to attend the Democratic mass-meeting and barbecue to be held in Lorenzo Warfield's Grove, near Glenelg, on Thursday next. The new system of balloting requires intelligence and education on the part of the voter. Yet under this requirement the Democrats have registered large gains.—Buffalo Inquirer.

The killing at Coffeyville, Kansas, last week of the Dalton gang, four or five in number, is another thrilling episode of Western life as found on the plains. It was suspected by the officers that a raid was intended on the banks there and they were partly prepared for it. When discovered the robbers were found to be raiding two banks at the same time, the party having divided. A desperate battle ensued and the desperadoes were picked up dead, but it is to be regretted that four citizens lost their lives in the fray.

Any one reading the St. Denis' items in last week's issue of THE TIMES would be led to believe that Rev. Frank A. Killman, pastor of the M. E. Church at Leany, was present at a dance. Mr. Killman desires us to say that the statement is an error.

MR. BUTTERWORTH ON THE TARIFF. Even Republicans of hitherto radical tendencies in a moment of forgetfulness or honesty, sometimes drop into a vein of common sense and reason whilst discussing the great economic question of tariff. The Frederick correspondent of the Baltimore Sun states that Benjamin Butterworth, of Ohio, when addressing a large Republican meeting at that place last week said:

"The rate of duty that should be imposed upon articles manufactured in other countries and imported into this country should be just sufficient to cover the difference in the cost of labor in the production of such imported articles, and every cent of duty imposed upon that point was wrong because it is a subsidy."

This is Democratic doctrine pure and simple, and we trust Mr. Butterworth will have the courage of his convictions on all similar occasions.

Judge Oliver Miller is lying in a very critical condition.

Luxuries and Necessaries. Speecher Hiseock in his Cooper Union speech did a little more than suggest the tariff to the rich, and paying the tariff tax. He said that in his opinion it is impossible for statesmanship to reduce our tariff laws so that the income will be more evenly and justly distributed to the consumers, always discriminating in favor of those least able to bear the burden.

The McKinley law does not bear out Mr. Hiseock. It shows that the best taxes are on the necessities of life and the lightest on the luxuries. The necessities pay 80 per cent. of the taxes, the luxuries pay 20 per cent.

Cloth pays a tax of 150 per cent; uncut diamonds, 10 per cent; Blankets pay 90 per cent; champagne about 50. Cheap blankets pay 25 per cent; carpets, 10 per cent. A wool hat pays 85 per cent; a carriage, 35. Sausages pay 20 and piglets 110 per cent. Cabbages pay 60 per cent, and anchovies 20. Beef pays 20 per cent, and hams, 10 per cent. Woolen clothes, cloaks, jackets and ulsters are taxed 85 per cent, and patent leather only 10 per cent. School-books are taxed 25 per cent, and books 10 per cent.

This is the way in which Mr. Hiseock's party has discriminated in favor of those who are able to bear the burden.—N. Y. World.

McClure's reply to Mr. Hiseock. That the so-called apathy in political affairs is simply an indication that the people are thinking this year instead of shouting is being shown in many ways, and in none more strikingly than in the call for the better class of campaign literature. For example, the Democrats for the pamphlet edition of Colonel McClure's reply to Governor McKinley on the tariff has already exhausted 150,000 copies, while the Democrats are still pouring in Philadelphia Record.

Guess They Know Too Much. The expanse money of the Republican papers are putting forth for the falling off in their circulation in Vermont is that the Australian ballot has lost the party the votes of ignorant men who were loath to confess an ignorance as to how to vote. But has it not always been the boast of Republicans that theirs was "the party of the ignorant" and Democrats were steeped in ignorance? Is it possible that there are 10,000 Republicans in Vermont out of the 48,000 who went to the polls in 1890, who are not able to vote under the Australian law? We guess it was a little too much knowledge.—of Harrison and McKeenism.—Pittsburg Post.

An Unaccepted Challenge. Senator Hill disposes of the talk about increased wages in the State of New York when he declares that the Democratic party would not be likely to consent to permit every working-man whose wages has been increased since the passage of the McKinley bill to vote the Republican ticket. His opponents will contend that all these wage increases have not been increased shall vote the Democratic ticket.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Eng Handle Property. Europe has been sending us annually 500,000 immigrants, largely paupers, in return for the $75,000,000 that American tourists squander abroad. Let us give exactly the same to them, and they will stop to this jing handle species of reciprocity.—Louisville Times.

Protected Labor. The Massachusetts report of manufacturers shows that in 1891 there were 46,722 persons working for protected manufacturers in that State at "under $1.00 a week." How are Democrats to get out here in the West with such "pauper labor."—St. Louis Republic.

The Secret Ballot. The practical test of the Australian system has proved the falsity of the boast of the Republicans that the bulk of the voters are ignorant and stupid. The new system of balloting requires intelligence and education on the part of the voter. Yet under this requirement the Democrats have registered large gains.—Buffalo Inquirer.

SECTION 3. We denounce the Republican protection as a fraud on the labor of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the Federal government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purposes of revenue only, and we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the government when honestly and economically administered.—National Democratic Platform.

A Colored Democrat. News is daily being received at the National Democratic Headquarters of the accession of prominent party to the Democratic ranks. One of the latest to repudiate the Republican party is Mr. William A. Crosthwaite, a prominent colored lawyer of Nashville, Tenn. Post A. W. Willis invited by letter Mr. Crosthwaite to become a Republican campaign speaker, to deliver "a half hour's talk one night or two every week, which would be greatly appreciated." Mr. Crosthwaite refused, by a letter in which he stated that he was true to his element, and was "constrained to believe that under the treatment of the negro by the Republican party for the last twenty years no well-informed colored citizen can at this time enter the campaign for the Republican party's triumph at the polls. During the present political contest the Republican party has very emphatically announced to the negroes of Tennessee that they are wanted only at voting time. The party of Sumner has just indicated that it is not true to its element, and is tossed by spoilsmen and minions of corporations, it is not true to the people, and the beneficiaries of the party's grace realize the necessity of speakers whom the people trust. Mr. Crosthwaite then reviewed the treatment of the colored people by the Republican party since the war and says he can no longer support that party.

Why This Was Thus. Perhaps the refusal of the Republican campaign managers to allow Governor McKinley to discuss the tariff with Col. McClure and permit him to meet Mr. Byrum in Indiana is explained by his more imperative assignment to help the rock-ribbed Republican States of Vermont, the Governor, along with other distinguished speakers, was detailed to stump that State, and he opened the campaign at Burlington, which usually goes Republican, gave a Democratic majority of about 200, while the Democrats made gains at every point. The Governor spoke.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
