FARMERS AND OVER PRODUCTION. The great natural want of the country is more money among the farmers. They are the great consuming class. From them comes the wealth of the country. They first produce it-wring it from the earth in the shape of staples without which the world would famish and die. Being the great consuming class, their money finds it way to the country store, thence to the jobber and thence to the manufacturer. When wheat is at as low a price as it is now the farmer naturally draws in his expenses to the smallest possible compass. Not only one farmer is doing this but nine hundred and ninty-nine out of every thouare doing it, and who can estimate the aggregate loss to the manufacturer in this country? It amounts to untold millions. It is no wonder then that the manufacturing interests have languished. It has come not so much by over-production as under-buying and the whole difficulty can be traced to the farmer's inability to buy. What then should be the policy of the country? Instead of legislation that gives the manufacturer all the chance let us indulge in legislation that will put money into the pockets of the farmers and the question is settled. "Confidence" will keep banks from going to pieces for awhile but it does not of Agricultural, Mr. Rusk, 150,000,000 regulate the law of supply and demand.

half their wheat they would get for the to bed hungry. Between them ply daily other half a price that would more than suffer in feeding; but the trouble is needed food to the one and needed to get all the farmers to do it." The suggestion is a good one and might be send a bushel of wheat abroad than to carried out through the efforts of farmers' associations throughout the country. The farmer has it in his power to get rid of the over production of wheat by this process. If every farmer would thus bind himself he would before the year is out have the satisfation of hauling his wheat to market at $1.25 or $1.50 instead of 70 cents, and besides we would have better horses and better beef and

Let the idea spread and let farmers start associations based on plans for the legitimate and profitable reduction of the surplus of wheat.

FRANCE AND SIAM.

France has systematically gone about to bull-doze the kingdom of Siam out of French citizens sometime since were murdered in the disputed territory lying along the Mekong river for which the French no doubt justly asked indemnity, but from the fact that the sum asked-$600,000-is excessive and the French are laying claim to a large extent of country and are before Bankok, the capital of Siam, with gunboats and have already inaugurated war, the general belief is that it is a national scheme for aggression pure and simple. England and China are greatly disturbed by it, as, the French being friendly with the Russians, new opportunities may be afforded for the further advancement of the latter's outposts both in the direction of India and China. What action England | the support of reason but this solid jus may ultimately take in the matter of course cannot be overshadowed, but she of the duties that smell of monopoly is jealously watching her interests and and rescuing the sovereign power of from the fact that she has been in close communication with China since the intentions of France have been made known, it may be assumed that an understanding between the two countries intended to forestall the French will be reached. France will avoid a war with England under almost any circumstances as, with Germany menacing her in Europe she could ill afford at this time to exhaust her resources with so powerful adversary as England. The latter evidently holds the key of the situation and as she is strongly inclined to assist Siam may as a last resort conclude to do industries will be subjected to frequent so. After all this may be the spark that existing tariff system shall be permitted will light Europe into a blaze of war to stand. Tariff Reform is an essential which will change its geography and the ment and permanent prosperity.—Phila. status of some of the nations.

> World. Under Consumption. What is conveniently called "overproduction" is often another name for under-consumption. American manufacturers have far less reason to dread foreign competition than the unnatural influence of a tariff system which, while unwholesomely stimulating production, at the same time obstructs and discourages consumption. In the condition to which the iron and steel industries have been reduced the organs of Protection will vainly clamor that the whole trouble is due to the threat of the wicked Democrats to revise the tariff. These reactions like the present so long as the

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular correspondent.) WASHINGTON, July 24, 1893.—Secretary Carlisle is again on duty, having returned from the ten-day vacation which is probably the only one he will get for many long months to come, as the genperiod of the hardest work of his life. His department deals exclusively with the two great questions that will occupy the time of Congress-tariff and finance -and it is his desire to be prepared to furnish all of the information on both subjects that will from time to time be asked for from the time that Congress takes up these questions until it disposes of them, and when that will be is a conundrum that no wise man will try to answer at this time.

is 245, but in the same period 5,090 have been suspended, pending further investigation. Judging from past experience in such cases it is estimated that a large majority of the latter will finally be dropped. The work of examination is being push as rapidly as possible and will be confined for a long time to pensions granted under the act of 1890. Now that Secretary Lamont has taken i four years' lease on a Washington residence the rumor-mongers will probably cease starting stories of his intended early retirement from the Cabinet. He will live in good company as his house is next door to that of Senator Brice and within a stone's throw of the White House. The Secretary came here this week to consult with Secretary Gresham in regard to several matters under the State department which were unsettled here he signed the lease for his house. Although accompanied by Mrs. Lamont whose face is almost as well known as his own the Secretary spent several hours in Washington and got safely away before the newspaper men knew of his visit. However, it would not have made much difference, as Lamont is a past-master in the art of talking without saying anything, which Talleyrand said was the first requirement of diplomacy. During the short time Secretary Lamont remained in town he found time to decide that Army officers who desire to attend the World's Fair must pay their own fare like other people, and that permissions granted officers to attend the fair do not carry free transportation. While this will upset the plans of numerous Army officers who have been calculating to take in the show at Uncle Sam's expense its justness is manifest to all. The salary of the Army officers who will visit the fair go right along and they certainly should be willing to

We have stored in the Federal Treasury 362,000,000 of silver dollars, we have 58,000,000 silver dollars in circulation and about $80,000,000 in small silver coin. Here is a bulk of silver curency, amounting to $500,000,000, which eral belief, fully shared by himself, is the Government is bound to keep at par that he has now entered upon a long with gold. We cannot possibly keep this bulk of silver in circulation. Why should we coin more of it? We cannot use it ourselves, and we cannot pay it to other nations. Besides this coined

STATE OF MARYLAND, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. -Ed. Petzold's, Catonsville, Md.,-

WHEREAS, Section one of Article fourteen of the Constitution of Maryland makes it the duty of the Governor to order the publication in certain newspapers to be designated by am, of any bill, or bills, passed pre posing any mendments to the said Constitution; and WHERFAS, at the January Session, 1892, of the General Assembly of Maryland, a bitt was passed proposing an amendment to the Con stitution, which ameadment is Chapter 313 of the Acts of 1892, and is as follows, to wit:

CHAPTER 313. AN ACT to add an additional section to SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Three-fifths of all the nembers of the two houses concurring, that the following section be, and the same is hereby proposed, as an amendment to the Constitution of this State; and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, as herein provided the same shall supercede and stand n the place of Section thirty-nine of Article four of said Constitution.

SEC. 39. The General Assembly shall, as often as it may think the same proper and expedient, provide by law for the election of an additional Judge of the Supreme Bench of Raltimore city, and whenever provision is so made by the General Assembly, there shall be dected by the voters of said city another Judge of the Supreme Bench of Battimore city, who shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same term of years, receive the same compensation, and have the same powers as are, or shall be provided by the Constitution, or laws of this State, for the Judges of said Supreme Bench of Baltimore city, and the General Assembly may provide by laws, or the Supreme Bench by its rules, for requiring causes in any of the courts of Baltimore city o be tried before the Court without a jury unless the litigants or some one of them shall within such reasonable time or times, as may be prescribed, elect to have their causes tried before a jury. And the General Assembly may reapportion, change or enlarge the jurisdiction of the several courts in said city.

SEC, 2. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That the foregoing ection hereby proposed as an amendment to he Constitution shall be, at the next general election to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection in pursuance of the direction contained in Article fourteen of the Constitution of this State; and at the said general election the vote on said propos nendment to the Constitution shall be by sillot, and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" or "Against the Conelect, and immediately after said election due eturn shall be made to the Governor of the rotes for and against said proposed amendnent, as directed by said fourteenth Article of the Constitution. Approved April 4th, 1822.

We hereby certify that the aforegoing is a correct copy of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed January Session W. G. PURNELL, Secretary of the Senate.

CARLTON SHAFER. Chief Clerk of the House of Delegates. Now, therefore, I, Frank Brown, Governor of Maryland do hereby order and direct that the said hereinbefore described bill, or Act of the General Assembly, proposing an amendnent to the Constitution of Maryland, be published once a week for at least three months in two newspapers published in each county in this State, if so many are there published, and in three newspapers in the city election, which will be held on Tuesday, the eventh day of November, 1893; at which said election the proposed amendment aforesaid will be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of Maryland for adoption or rejection Given under my hand and the Great Scal of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, on the 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and of the Independence of the United States, the one
