A TEN PER CENT. REDUCTION.—President Mayer, of the B. & O. R. R. Company, has issued a circular letter to the various departments, stating that on account of the general depression in business, the management had decided to make a reduction of 10 per cent. in the salaries of all employes receiving $150 per month and over. The reduction begins with the month of September.

Worth Their Weight in Gold. I was troubled for ten years with dyspepsia, and tried many remedies with no benefit. Suffered a great deal with gas in stomach. Was finally induced to try Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills, and found them a great remedy in curing me of those complaints. I now urge all thus afflicted to give them a trial CLARENCE D. EBY, Grocer,
